An Invitation to Love Jesus Newsletter Messages of Love September 2023 Issue 328

Editorial

The Messages

Jesus' Messages this month are full of Instruction for us. He tells us have faith, to trust in Him, not to despair or worry.

He tells us also to, "...pray for those in need of My Love and My Forgiveness..." Monday 4 September 2023

And to, "...Clear the sin from your daily lives and you will begin to see the Path I have laid down before you..." Thursday 7 September 2023

Very importantly for us to follow are His Words, "...See what I am saying so that you can become a part of My Army of Love that I will use to help all those who are in need and want to be helped by Me. Trust Me and walk the Path of dying to self..."

Without us walking on this Path that Jesus has laid before us, we are in darkness and not only will we not be able to help others, but we will not be able to see what is happening around us and we will be the ones waiting for someone to come and help us. But, ultimately, it is down to us what we do with His Words for Jesus has said many times that free will is His Gift to us and He will not over step the bounds of it. We have to remember, it is a spiritual battle that we fight but Jesus is with us, every step of the way.

Priorities

The Patricks have written an article, 'Priorities' which explains so much about sin and how it blocks the Light of God from us. It speaks to us of our calling to serve God in Truth and humility with a willingness to give up the things that are not from Him.

Saint Stanislaus House of Prayer, Poland

Continuing our feature on the Houses of Prayer, the Patricks have written the story of the purchasing of Saint Stanislaus House.

The Messages of Love

as given to the two Patricks

Friday 1 September 2023

Have faith in Me, your God, and know you are My child, as you read these Words. I have invited you, child of Mine, to read these Words of Love so that you would know the Path of Truth.

So many try to change My Words, in this time, but, when My Words are changed to suit you, then you only follow a lie. I say, once again, I am the Word and I do not change. Come trust in Me and follow My Gospel Truths; I do not change and will not accept sin. Anyone who walks the path of sin and refuses to see the Truth, only walks the path to hell.

So many are being lost, every day, to the fires of hell as they refuse to enter the Kingdom of Heaven for, they refuse to admit their guilt and would rather throw themselves into hell in their rage rather than admit their sin.

Children, come walk the Path of Truth and Heaven shall be yours. Yes, you may fall many times but I have given you the Sacrament of Confession: use it and fight on. Trust Me. I Love you.

Saturday 2 September 2023

Look always to My Truth and see the Truth of My Words as they are fulfilled before your eyes.

I have told you that the greatest part of the wealthy countries of this world have accepted the blood of the innocent into their own blood and have begun the death of nations.

Prepare, children of Mine. I Love you.

Monday 4 September 2023

Have faith in Me, children, and see the Glory of your God descend upon this earth. I have told you I will show this world the True Power of their God. This I will do in ways unexpected.

Rid your mind of what you think will happen for you only cloud your minds with untruth and dreams. Simply trust Me and allow Me to show all the Truth in My Way. That will result in the reclaiming of many souls from the darkness.

Be patient, children of Mine, and pray for those in need of My Love and My Forgiveness.

Trust Me.
I Love you.

Thursday 7 September 2023

Come to Me, children of Mine, and listen to My Words of Truth. The days are changing and so few are prepared. As the time of change grows closer, so do the desires to reject Me and My Ways.

The temptations increase as lucifer can feel that his grip on mankind begins to loosen, as the web of lies begins to untangle.

Trust Me and be obedient to My Words and prepare by dying to self. Clear the sin from your daily lives and you will begin to see the Path I have laid down before you.

Trust Me, children, and follow Me in Truth.

Trust.

I Love you.

Sunday 10 September 2023

Have faith in Me and believe for all I have said will now be fulfilled and this world will be renewed in My Love. All evil shall be removed; all those who refuse to see and refuse to repent of their evil ways will die and Freedom will be given to this world, once again.

Sin is evil, which is darkness. No matter how small the sin, it is a block between you and Me. Recognise your sin and remove it and you will know True Freedom and you will come to know True Peace.

Trust, children. As I have said, the Truth walks among you for the Holy Spirit is True Justice and He comes to bring True Freedom to My remnant.

Believe I Love you and will do all in My Power to Save as many of My children who are willing to listen.

Trust Me and do not ignore these, My Words of Love and Truth, any longer.

Trust and come to Me.

I Love you.

Sunday 10 September 2023

Have faith, children, and do not doubt or let despair creep into your hearts. I am here, I am at work, now, among you to undo the evil, the lies that have been promoted, in the name of truth.

Trust Me, children, all My Words will now be fulfilled and this generation will be cleansed of the evil that it has accepted over the past years. This is the time I have asked you to prepare for and you have little time left now to prepare. Take heed of My Warnings and prepare. The time is now changing and this world will change in ways that mankind would believe impossible for I mean to show this generation how little they truly know about creation.

Prepare.

I Love you.

Monday 11 September 2023

Have faith, children, have faith in Me, your God. All is changing and the darkness begins to retreat slowly but, soon the web will break and shatter and this world will see the deceit of those in power. This world will be shocked at the evil that has poured from but a few. Prepare, children, for already the changes are taking place and, soon, Freedom will come to My people as they are given a voice that, once again, will be listened to. Trust Me and prepare for all is changing; all is happening as I have said. Trust Me. I Love you.

Tuesday 12 September 2023

Believe, have faith in the Words I speak and break free of the lethargy that lucifer has cast over this world to prevent the Truth from being truly looked at. See what I am saying so that you can become a part of My Army of Love that I will use to help all those who are in need and want to be helped by Me. Trust Me and walk the Path of dying to self for all will suddenly change and the people of this world will no longer understand. What they thought they knew about creation, will no longer be credible. Trust Me and be ready so that you will know and understand and will be able to help those around you. Trust Me and prepare. I Love you.

Wednesday 13 September 2023

Have faith in Me, My children, and believe in the Words I speak for many great events are now upon you. This world is changing in ways that your scientists would not believe possible but they do not understand that I am a God of Truth and that I truly live among them.

I will show mankind how little they truly understand creation.

I will show mankind the lies that they have chosen to believe.

I will show mankind how they have poisoned themselves with the chemicals the scientists have created in their greed.

I will show mankind how lucifer has used them like puppets.

You have little time left to prepare, children, I will not force you to prepare, I simply ask you: the decision is yours. If you prepare now, you will understand what is happening around you and you will be able to help your brothers and sisters through this 'Time of Cleansing'.

Yes, there are many harsh days ahead but, if you understand then, they shall lose their harshness and you will see the Hand of your God at work.

Prepare, children.

I Love you.

Thursday 14 September 2023

Feast of #### the Exaltation of the Cross

Have faith in Me and do not fear but know My Spirit is with you as you read these Words of Truth. Children, already, My Words are being fulfilled and the peoples of this world are so caught up in their own righteousness that they cannot see the danger all around them.

This world that you live in is being choked with your sin and, now, has begun to free itself of the burden you have placed upon it.

My Spirit resides in all creation and will no longer stand back as you destroy it with your sin. Look around you and see, children, it has begun and the changes will grow rapidly as time passes.
Listen, now, for already it is too late for so many for they refuse to see the Truth. Repent and you shall be protected from the cleansing of My Spirit.
Trust Me, children, and prepare.
I Love you.

Friday 15 September 2023

Have faith in Me and prepare, children. I am among you. My Spirit is at work and, very soon, you will see the Power of your God sweep this earth as I begin to reclaim the peoples of this earth who are willing to listen.
Trust Me, children, and believe. Prepare, now, while you have still time for when the Fire ignites in Truth, it will sweep this earth as a raging inferno. Already, the embers glow, children, and so few are ready; make haste, the Glory of your God will be seen.
Trust Me.
I Love you.

Saturday 16 September 2023

Come to Me, children of Mine, and believe in My Love for you. I have not forgotten you and I will not forget My Words to you. I will protect all who try to follow Me in Truth.
I will guide all those who try to follow Me in Truth.
I will show this world My Power.

I will protect all those who try to walk the Path of Truth for they are My remnant and I shall cleanse all those who only wish to follow the path of sin; for they are blind to the Truth and will have no part in the 'Time of Peace' that will descend upon this earth. A time when all creation will rejoice in the Glory of their God.
Prepare, children, for although this time begins slowly - in earth terms - it will suddenly begin to build rapidly and, you must be ready. Trust Me and make ready.
Trust Me.
I Love you.

Sunday 17 September 2023

Have faith in Me, My children, for already the 'Time of Change' is upon you and you have not taken the time to prepare. Listen and prepare, now, for time rapidly runs out for mankind and his evil ways. Listen, children, what comes can no longer be stopped and I must intervene in order to protect My remnant. I have told you to prepare; I will not force you but, already, the change takes place and will increase rapidly.
Prepare.
I Love you.

Tuesday 19 September 2023

Have faith, children, I will show this world that I am not a dead God and that I look after those who truly want to follow Me in Truth. Now, you will see the Power of your God. You will see how I heal My Flock from the wounds inflicted by the evil of this time where many have given themselves over to lucifer through their sin.

Trust Me and prepare, children. I have not forgotten you. I, your God, truly Love you. Trust.

Tuesday 19 September 2023

Have faith in Me, children of the Light. I have now begun the Battle of Love and I will drive the darkness back into the pit. I have told you to prepare and you now live in the time I have told you to prepare for. So little time is left for you to change your lives.

Sin is darkness, children, and I Come to remove the darkness. See what I say and do not allow yourselves to be caught in the tide of Justice that sweeps this earth. Repent and come follow Me in Truth.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Wednesday 20 September 2023

My children, I Love you. I call you to prayer, be with Me, get to know Me. Read My Gospels and you will begin to understand Me and My Truth. Sin is your enemy and must be fought against and removed. The more sin you remove from your lives, the more you shall understand. Trust Me, children of Mine. I Love you.

Thursday 21 September 2023

Have faith in Me and believe in the Words I speak for you do not truly understand the events that are now taking place on this earth. I am taking back what has been stolen through lies and soon you will see the results of My Spirit at work. Trust Me, children, for I have come to bring Freedom to My people. Prepare while you still have time for already the final grains of sand begin to fall. Prepare. I Love you.

Friday 22 September 2023

Children, I come to free My remnant from the chains this world has placed upon them. I say, mankind, prepare for you have called the Wrath of your God upon yourselves with your evil lives. You skulk in the dark and think you are so clever as you plan to deceive your neighbour with your lies.

Wake up and see the Truth for I can see all that is done in secret and you shall pay for all your actions that have not been repented of. Prepare, now, mankind, for already the last grains of sand fall from the hourglass and you have not prepared.

You think I am a dead God, that I am a weak God, that I have no Power over Creation! How wrong you are, mankind, for you are about to experience the True Power of your God as I cleanse your wickedness from this earth.

I say, again, repent, turn away from your evil lives and I shall wash you clean in the Blood of the Lamb and Forgiveness shall be yours. Stay on the path that you are on now and your destination is hell.

You, in your justification, shall say these are harsh Words: I say they are true Words, Words that you do not want to accept because you will have to change your evil lives. Wake up, children, and see the Truth; read the signs of your times. See how this earth rebels against your sin: you call it 'global warming' from the effects of your industry. I call it 'global darkness', brought about by your sin. You choke this world with your sin and it begins to rebel against you. You have seen little of what you have called down upon yourselves.

Wake up, children, and follow Me in Truth and I will protect you in this 'Time of Justice', as I protected My people, Israel, in the desert.

Trust Me and prepare by dying to self: remove the sin from your lives and you shall see the Truth of what is happening around you. Wake up, wake up, children! It has begun and cannot be stopped. The cleansing is upon you. I Love you.

Friday 22 September 2023

Make haste, My children, My Houses are in need all over this world. I have called for many, many Houses through My Prophets, Visionaries and Seers all over this world but so few are prepared to help.

Make haste, children, and prepare My Houses of Prayer for they are the refuges of the 'Time of Cleansing' and so few have taken time to help. These are the refuges, like the Ark. They will guide you to safety as My Spirit cleanses the evil from this earth.

I ask for your help, children, listen to My calls.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Saturday 23 September 2023 Feast of Saint Pio

I have not forgotten you, My people, as I have said, it has begun. My Justice is at work and it will overcome the darkness and My Light will shine.

Trust Me and prepare while you still can.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Sunday 24 September 2023

Have faith in Me and believe in the Words I speak. I guide you to safety, away from the darkness of this time. My Words are a guiding Light that will guide you to safe refuge. Trust Me and believe sin is your enemy, remove it from your lives and you will walk the Path of Truth that leads to the Kingdom of Heaven. Trust. I Love you.

Monday 25 September 2023

Have faith in Me and do not fear the events that take place on this earth at this time. I have told you, I will look after My own and I will show this world that you are Mine. I will show this world that they have no power over any part of My Creation. I will show science how little they know or understand My Creation.

Prepare, children, for already it has begun and you are fast running out of time.

Prepare, children.

I Love you.

Tuesday 26 September 2023

My children, I call again for help with My Houses all over this world. So many are in need of your help. Prayer is one of the greatest gifts you can give to My Houses for your prayers will open the hearts of your brothers and sisters who are in darkness and these shall be drawn to the safety of My Houses.

My Houses of Prayer are refuges and they will call out to the peoples of this earth before the Fire of Cleansing descends from the heavens. You do not realise the importance of these Houses.

Both I and My Mother have called for many Houses through the Prophets, Visionaries and Seers of this time. They are the Refuges of Faith, Refuges of Love and, soon, you shall see them ignite as My Truth is poured back into this world of darkness.

Prepare My Houses, children, open your hearts and let My Spirit guide you.

Believe.

I Love you.

Wednesday 27 September 2023

Have faith in Me and believe in the Words I give to guide you through this time of darkness.

Believe, children, although it seems We are losing the battle, in Truth, We are winning. The ones who spread the darkness begin to fall into their own traps. Have patience a little longer and you shall see the high and mighty come tumbling down of their mighty thrones.

I have told you that they would fall to their own lies and that time approaches rapidly. Prepare, children, for the fall can no longer be stopped. Mankind's sin is so great that I must intervene to stop the destruction of all life.

Trust Me and prepare.

I Love you.

Friday 29 September 2023

Feast of the Archangels

Have faith in Me, children, and know that I, your God, am with you. I am guiding you through the tide of lies to safe refuge.

I have Promised to look after My own and you are Mine for I chose you to read these Words. These Words are My Invitation to you to become a part of My Army of Love.

Trust Me, child of Mine, and walk this Path of dying to self. Sin is your enemy; remove it from your life and follow Me in Truth.

Trust Me.

I Love you.

Writing from the two Patricks

PRIORITIES

Wandered in the desert

The Israelites wandered in the desert for forty years. They thought they were doing the right thing. They even got all their gold together and fashioned a god that would suit their needs:

1 Now when the people saw that Moses delayed coming down from the mountain, the people gathered together to Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make us gods that shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him."

2 And Aaron said to them, "Break off the golden earrings which are in the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me."

3 So all the people broke off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron.

4 And he received the gold from their hand, and he fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made a moulded calf.

Then they said, "This is your god, O Israel, that brought you out of the land of Egypt!"

5 So when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it. And Aaron made a proclamation and said, "Tomorrow is a feast to the Lord."

6 Then they rose early on the next day, offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

Exodus 32:1-6

The foundation of a people

Moses had gone up the mountain to be with the Lord to receive the Ten Commandments: Commandments which were given to Israel to be the foundation of a people, a nation. They were to be what Israel was built on and what they lived their lives by. A new beginning, a new people, a Covenant between the people and its God.

In the Commandments, God had marked out a Way for His people, a way of Life in which they would serve Him, the One, True God. All the Commandments pointed to one thing: Love; love of God and neighbour. Love God first and love of neighbour would arise in the heart as these Commandments were lived out. Putting God first in their lives was loving their neighbour; loving their neighbour was loving their God and, in this Way, they would serve Him and be His people.

Wanted another god

Literally, as the Lord spoke to Moses and formed these Commandments on the tablets of stone, the people in the valleys were betraying Him. They wanted another god, one more suited to their ways of thinking and the opposite of what God was giving them. They were missing the lives they had in Egypt, that place where they had forgotten their God, that place that their God rescued, saved, them from. They only saw that Moses was delayed and, like spoiled children, they did not see, were blinded to, all the things that this God of Love had already done to prove His Love for them. They were like a bride who had betrayed her husband while the marriage was taking place.

Jesus came into the world to do the same thing. He called a group of people together to form a Way; a Way that would be as the Commandments would be. Loving God and neighbour would be the very essence of this Way. The essence was His own Love, spilled out, running over, pressed down; a Love that could be seen, could be felt and, those witnessing it, would see Him in the actions of His little followers, who would love without self.

His own Heart

He poured into it His own Heart, His own Love, that would mould hearts into this Way of Loving in littleness, in service, in dying to self. He asked that in learning littleness, we would become humble enough to serve our neighbour, thus giving up self in the process. He asked for service; a service that would serve all who came, a service that would show others the fruits of what spending time in loving God, through prayer, could do and how we could love our neighbour in the Way of the Ten Commandments. He called them; He chose them to be a light on top of a mountain that could be forever seen by the Light that He shone through them by their obedience to Him.

The process of dying to self would not happen overnight. It would involve a routing out of all sin so that the Truth, His Truth, would see through the selfishness of sin for sin is a barrier to the Truth of God. One cannot see if one is blind.

Something is blocking the light

Sin is like cataracts that cover the eyes. Cataracts slowly darken the vision and one may not even realise they are being blinded. Slowly, the proteins in the lens of the eye start to break down and clump together thus forming a hard shell over the eye - which lets light into the body so we can see:

34 "The eye is the lamp of your body; when your eye is clear, your whole body also is full of light; but when it is bad, your body also is full of darkness.

35 "Then watch out that the light in you is not darkness.

36 "If therefore your whole body is full of light, with no dark part in it, it will be wholly illumined, as when the lamp illumines you with its rays."

Luke 11:34-36

Someone with cataracts begins to realise that the light coming into their eyes is dimming and they need more light to see. They compensate by adding other lights into their surroundings in an effort to see more clearly and do not realise that something is blocking the light and the other lights are not the solution.

Lack of effort

In my opinion, sin works the same way. The Light of God continually shines on us through Grace. Through lack of effort, through wanting things our own way, the Light of God, the Grace, dims and we begin to see through that sin - that has formed in front of our vision of God - and, seeing through the sin, becomes a way of life. The sin distorts how we see God, our perception of Him becomes less clear and we begin to see less the Love of Him and less the love of neighbour. Sin distorts enough for us to think that Gods Way is not just right somehow and, so, we begin to seek other gods, other ways to satisfy the self-seeking in us, the self-seeking that is really a seeking of Him, which has become distorted because the human heart was created to love God. As Saint Augustine writes in his Confessions, "You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in You."

Becomes distorted

Seeing through cataracts is not easy. We see things that are clearly there but, because of the hard shell formed in our vision, we do not see them, how we see becomes distorted because something is blocking how we should see. Sin has formed on the lenses of how we see God. God should do this; He should do that. If God was this, then things would be like that and so on. Sin influences how we behave, it dims the passion in us for the first part of the Commandments:

4 "Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord is one!

5 "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

6 "These words, which I am commanding you today, shall be on your heart.

7 "You shall teach them diligently to your sons and shall talk of them when you sit in your house and when you walk by the way and when you lie down and when you rise up.

8 "You shall bind them as a sign on your hand and they shall be as frontals on your forehead.

9 "You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

In other words, this is the way you should go, this is what you should do, if you are to be My people. This verse speaks of making an effort: You shall teach them diligently. The dictionary states:

Diligently:

1. in a way that shows care and conscientiousness in one's work or duties.

"he spends his nights diligently working on his dissertation"

It means, basically, put your heart into it; make it important, make it a priority. Something that is a priority should be done first, not last. Let your loving of God be first, put nothing before it. This is the basis for dying to self for, if our priority is not taken from the self, self will die because we can see without a block in our vision of God. We see Him as He really is. We see that our treasure is buried and we need to sell everything we have to buy the field in order to get that treasure. THIS is our priority.

33 But seek FIRST His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.

Matthew 6:33

Should be our priority

If we love Him as we say we do, then loving Him first, before all other things, should be our priority, always. The people of Israel allowed their needs to come before God. They asked for bread, God gave them manna in the desert, where nothing grows. They asked for meat, He gave them quail. They asked for water, He told Moses to strike the rock and water flowed. Before any of this, they called on Him in the land of Egypt to free them from the tyranny of Pharaoh. He raised up Moses and freed them through the plagues which were miracles, showing His Majesty as God. They had already seen what God can do, yet, they betrayed Him. They chose another god, a lifeless image of a calf made from the gold that they possessed, the thing that was precious to them. They tried to find another light by which they could see. They did not give up their gold to make something beautiful for the God who had shown Himself to them in many ways.

Whilst we are in sin

I can't help but wonder how the calf displayed its love for them. Did it make a covenant with them? Sin – a turning away from God – blinds us to the things that He has already done for us. We cannot see clearly whilst we are in sin. We are a dark city that sheds no light.

As I see it, the crux, the priority, the way to love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might is to die to self. It is the way to “see” Him and what He is really about. He asks of us:

8 O taste and see that the Lord is good; How blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him!

Psalm 34:8

We cannot taste unless we take a bite because, how we taste is through the taste buds on the tongue. If we refuse to taste a certain food then we cannot make a judgement on whether or not it is nice or otherwise. If we do not “taste” the Ways of God then we wander in our own desert for many years, going from one god to another, thinking that this new god is the answer to all our problems.

Their vision of God was restored

We all sin. We have our small sins and our big sins. We continue to commit them because we have allowed ourselves to become enslaved to them. We have made sin our priority; all our selfish wants and needs have become the god we worship. Self is a demanding god; it wants cars, money, houses. Because a small section of this world has riches that can buy these things, we think that that is what we should have, that it should be our priority to get them. But, because our vision has been distorted by our sin, our turning away from God, we do not see the words spoken by God, Himself:

We must, unlike the children of Israel, get our priorities right for, like them, we cannot enter the ‘Promised Land’ while sin is our priority. The Israelites who fashioned the golden calf did not enter the Promised Land. Their generation died out in their wanderings in the desert. It was a new generation that entered. A generation who had long put away the golden calf and their vision of God was restored.

We remain slaves

As we continue to sin, to not make God our priority, we remain slaves to our sin. We remain wandering in the desert, creating new gods to satisfy us. But, there is Good News!

Jesus has Died for us so that we may no longer be enslaved by our ‘golden calf’. He has provided an ‘operation’ for the cataracts of sin that have formed to distort our vision of God. He has given Himself in ransom for our sins. We cannot continue to love Him and remain in our sin. We must take Him at His Word and believe that His Promises are true and they are the solid ground we stand on as we die to the sin in our lives.

1 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin so that grace may increase?
2 May it never be! How shall we who died to sin still live in it?
3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death?
4 Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection,

6 knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin;
7 for he who has died is freed from sin.

Romans 6:1-7

If you take nothing else from this writing, which only serves to point out the priorities that should be the Way in which we should be living, then see this and ponder on it often:

"Then WATCH OUT that the light in you is NOT darkness."

Luke 11:35

St Pio

Since we have recently celebrated the Feast Day of Saint Pio, 23 September, we thought we would reprint this Message that he gave through the two Patricks. He gives us some great spiritual advice!

My little brothers and sisters, you look to many Saints but you do not see the reality of what you are seeking. You do not see the total resources of what was given. In the life of a Saint there were many things. There was the constant battle against self. This was not all but it was the greater part. To begin to die to self you must first look at your life in God and outside God then your Journey will begin. You must work upon merging both, so that there is no life but only that in God.

You must begin to see all things through the Eyes of our Most Loving Master, Jesus. To look at your brothers and sisters and see them in the image of God; not to reject anyone nor do harm in any way, both spiritual or physical. This is your aim in life: that you must seek. This is the beginning of dying to self. To realise that we are nothing but to realise that everyone is greater than I, myself, ever can be. To Love.

When reading the lives of the Saints, look and see to Whom they have strived. When you fulfil this, then you will see the point that you have been searching for: Jesus. Now we will move on to the second point. Prayer is the communication with the Master.

If we are not in constant communication with Jesus, then the source of our willingness and our strength to strive for perfection, will no longer hold and you shall fall back into the world and be lost to the True Path. To be in constant communication will mean that the evil one shall have no hold over you but Love will thrive in your lives and all shall be fulfilled in your Journey.

Do not allow yourselves to fall into complacency or pride: that all you can see is your own good points and how you, yourself, strive to do all things right. This is the beginning of falling away from the path. You must always look to see where you can improve; seeing our own arrogance and pride in thinking these things. We must see ourselves as nothing. This is the truth of self-dying. Our aim must be Jesus in all things...

THE HOUSES OF PRAYER

Saint Stanislaus House of Prayer, Poland

“...Fraught with difficulty...”

When Jesus told us, on Saturday 21 January 2006, that He wanted a House of Prayer in Poland, He said that the setting up of the Houses would “...be fraught with difficulty...” Monday 23 January 2006, and truer Words were never spoken. We did not realise the full impact of what His Words would mean to us.

He indicated to us that there was a House just four kilometres from the Ukrainian border with Poland. It was an ideal place for a House of Prayer to be situated as there was a triangle of mass graves from the Holocaust, where people had been systematically murdered during the Second World War. While we were there, we visited the concentration camp, Majdanek, on the outskirts of Lublin. Here, they took the “good” Jewish leather shoes from the prisoners in the camp and sent them back to Germany to be sold to the people there.

Jesus lost that house

After the price was agreed on between the two parties, we were then waiting on the date for the signing and purchase of the House. In between times, we were informed by the seller that the price had gone up by ten percent! We sent two of our people to Poland to reiterate that the price was already agreed upon and we would not change our minds. After that, the “deal” fell apart and Jesus lost that house as a House of Prayer. But Jesus had Warned us of this too: “...much of the difficulty will be from those who would put blocks in their (the Houses that He wants to set up) way. You must trust Me, My sons, in these ventures. The money that has been given to you has allowed the purchasing of this House that you look for now. To go to My country of Poland, is a sacrifice for; your Holy Father (John Paul II) has asked this of Me here in Heaven. His dedication to this country has led the way for its conversion back to Me. I give you the task of finishing that request with Me as your Head. You must carry a picture of him when you go to this country...”

So, we pulled out of the “deal” and, as Jesus asked us, we continued our search for His House. As He said in the Message of Saturday 25 March 2006: “...greed has already spoiled My Plans but I have other ones...". Even though Jesus wanted this House, He never steps over our free will. We learned so much about His Patience and Love on this trip. Jesus was Teaching us. We were in a foreign land; we did not have the language and many people we came up against did not believe in God.

The next house

The next house that Jesus sent us to was in September 2006. We have a Polish friend, Ewelina, who was living in Northern Ireland at the time. We asked if she would come with us and she had no hesitation. We were guided by Jesus to a House on the western side of the country and everything looked good. It was a perfect house for a House of Prayer. It was in a small village in which the people were friendly and accommodating. It even had a piece of land to it. We actually shook hands with the agent and all seemed well. Some people complained that we were non-nationals and pointed out that this was a "green belt" and should only be owned by Polish people. Again, disappointment! They would not sell the House to us.

All the time that we spent trying to find the House that Jesus wanted for Poland, we felt Him 'spurring us onwards', even in the face of disappointments. We felt He was Teaching us not to give up, even though we were being beaten back by greed and non-belief.

As well as telling us that this House would be fraught with difficulty, He also told us on Saturday 11

February 2006:

"I place the sign of My Cross upon your foreheads as a Blessing for you for what you have done. Learn much from this time for this journey will need to be done again. My Heart sings for joy as My Houses are established but, it would sing all the more if they were manned. Then, would My Heart Love the world all the more! See, children, look, children! Your Lord creates new places through your hands, your feet and your eyes. I Love you and I thank you for making Me your happy Lord." He had told us that the journey would have to be done again, even while we were waiting to hear about the second one!

Jesus is a Teacher, the Teacher. As we continued, we began to realise He was Teaching us obedience, trust and to trust blindly. Jesus wanted the Houses but He would not give in to greed. He had Plans and it seemed to us that He was taking us through these plans, detail by detail.

This was a Message that Jesus gave for the people who went to Poland to get the House for Him.

Wednesday 13 September 2006 Jelenia Góra, Poland

"Children of Mine, I Love you. Never doubt these Words of Mine for they are the Flames of My Heart given to you. Stay with Me on this mission for I wish to strew petals of My Love wherever you go in this country to heal the hurts of My people, Poland. They are strong hearts in My Love but their oppression they wear like clothes.

I wish to give them My Invitation to love Me. I wish them to be free. I have spoken much to them through My daughter, Faustina, and I gave them My Mercy and Love through her. Now, I come again through her (Faustina) to prepare for My Coming. I Love her (Poland).

You, My children, I have given the work of this preparation. You lay Me, the Foundation Stone, of My Houses in this country that I have longed for - a city besieged on all sides. But this day I give them hope for My House is here, My House of Hope. Its prayers should be for hope for all nations that are oppressed."

Another Message that Jesus gave for the people who went to Poland to get the House for Him.

Wednesday 13 September 2006
Jelenia Góra, Poland

"My children, I Love you and I thank you for what you are doing for Me in this country. Much in it has been denied to Me but now you are as a trail of light. What you are doing will not go unnoticed by your God.

Oh, that My Love were growing in the world as the grass does! My Pain is great when I think of how much work still has to be done, how many more countries My Light still has to be brought to. You little understand My Pain, children, but what you do eases Me. That is why I speak these Words. Love Me a little in your hearts for to bring My Love to this country and all countries is not without its pain. I Love you and I Bless you in the Name of My Father and of Myself and My Holy Spirit. I Love you."

For me, this Message speaks so much of the great need for Houses of Prayer in the world. While convents and monasteries are closing down, all over the world; while priests, nuns, brothers are losing the true faith to a watered-down version of it, Jesus is trying to reestablish what they have lost in their blindness and He needs our cooperation.

Message of pleading and Warning

Jesus spoke on Saturday 25 March 2006. It was a long Message of pleading and Warning, calling us to look afresh at the Gospel Message and telling us about the modernism in the Church.

"My children, I plead with you to listen to these Words. They are Words of Warning to you...I have told you over many years that it would come but, less and less believe Me as the years go on; the closer it gets, the more you walk away from Me...

I ask of you to look afresh at My Gospels. If the Words that I spoke there do not challenge you then you are not walking in My Ways...If you say that you believe in Me, then follow Me! Do not listen to the modernists within My Church who close the Gates of Heaven to many with their changes and open the gates of hell. They will not go through the Gates of Heaven themselves for they teach a different doctrine from the one that I have placed within My Church.

My Church at this time is like a wailing woman who has lost her child, she will not be comforted until her child is restored to her. Those who change My Words to suit themselves are those who have taken her child...

28 There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and, yourselves, thrust out.

29 They will come from the east and the west, from the north and the south, and sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And indeed there are last who will be first, and there are first who will be last."

Luke 13:23-30

...I speak to those priests who hide behind a wall of modernism, yet, remain true to Me in their hearts. I tell you that this is the time to come out from behind your wall. I call you to stand up and be counted. Lead My Flock as they are supposed to be led...

I call upon all those whom I have called to help with My Houses for I move quickly to get them established. My Houses are awaiting help. Where is your help? Greed has already spoiled My Plans, but, I have other ones. Help Me, My children, I appeal to you." These Messages came during the time of us looking for the House of Prayer in Poland and, to us, were so significant in the establishing of that House. Jesus was, and still is, calling us to open our eyes and understand why He is doing all these things. He is like a doctor who is trying to establish hospitals before a war begins, to be ready for the healing that will be needed. The world needs Houses of Prayer and Poland is no different.

Back to Poland

In February 2007, He sent us back to Poland. I think we were a little wiser to the pitfalls of what could happen, in spite of the opposition and disappointments.

This time, Anna, Ewelina's sister, came with us. Having somebody who could speak the language was a great bonus for us.

We were led to a house in the village of Wierzchoslawice, outside Bolkow and about one hour from Wroclaw airport. The house we were looking at was formerly a school and was right next door to Saint Joseph Catholic Church. As we walked through the house to view it, it felt like home. The more we walked around it, the bigger it seemed to get. All the time, in my heart, I knew that this would be the House of Prayer but, I said nothing, as I could not get talking privately to Patrick to see what Jesus was saying to him. When we did get together, we felt that Jesus was saying a resounding "Yes, this is My House..." We were elated.

Even though we may have to go through another disappointment, we felt Jesus would be with us. The House was nothing to do with us, anyway, it was His. We were only His servants, out to please Him with our obedience.

Greed reared its ugly head

Then greed reared its ugly head, again. After saying we would take the house, we went home to await the time of the signing. When it came, we were in Saint Nikolaus House of Prayer in Germany for a few days before the signing. There came the news that the sellers had asked for an extra ten percent on the price. It seemed to be happening again. Jesus told us to be strong and refuse to pay it. We then travelled to Poland – a journey of three hours from House to House – to meet with the owners.

We met with the owners in the kitchen of the House and the discussions began. In the end we said no and went to leave. We insisted that – in good faith – we had agreed on a price and were willing to pay it but, we would not agree to the extra money. Finally, they accepted the agreed price and we shook hands. The signing was in a few days' time and we waited patiently. The signing went off without incident and the House now belonged to Jesus. All the disappointments were over: it was His! Saint Stanislaus House of Prayer was born!

Silence pervades

The House was formerly a school, I suppose like a primary school in Ireland. It has eleven bedrooms and a big garden and has been renovated. For me, it is the prettiest House of Prayer as it has the old and the new. On summer mornings, when the windows are open and silence pervades, only disturbed by a gentle breeze and birds chirping, it is then that I remember the Words Jesus spoke: "...I Love you and I thank you for making Me your happy Lord..."

As it Stands

This House has had work done on it and is in good condition. Apart from general maintenance, the only work still needing done presently is that the wood log burner needs replaced as it is rusted and very old.

Interview with Fr Evans

-PART 5-

We are delighted that you came back, what made you want to come back to Cookstown?

As you may know, I am always very happy to be here so it is very obvious that I really, really would like to come back as soon and as frequent and as often as possible. And I hope that this will not be a big bill now because before it was a little bit difficult because I needed a lot of things to be done, before I could come over but now, as a priest, I am sure that whenever I will be sent to work, and I think holiday at least after every two years, so I hope it will not be taking seven years for me. So, after every two years, I think it can be possible to come over. I am very happy to be here. I am very happy to celebrate Mass with the servants here. And I look forward to doing that as many times as possible in the future.

Remember Jesus asked you to help set up a House of Prayer in Kenya? Do you think this is it, what you are constructing?

I don't know.

The only thing I know is that, right now, I am convinced that that is the thing I need to do right now.

It could be. Only Jesus knows.

What did you think of London, Evans, did you like going back over?

Of course!

But the only thing was, when I went there, my friend Margaret was not there but it was good to return there, to walk around. You see, when I phoned back home and I told them "You know what, I am in Tottenham!" (laughter) they envied me. It was very exciting for me to get there, in fact, at that time when I was there, I wished that I could move around a little bit more but it was not possible so much because of the time frame that we had.

So you would have liked more time there, I suppose?

Of course! (a big laugh)

It was nice to meet the servants there and I noticed that they are quite committed in what they were doing and they are happy to offer their services in the House of Prayer. Heather and Michele, and I met these Jamaican guys, Johnny and his wife.

Johnny and Sonja!

Yea! They are lovely! And then there was this Kenyan, Alice, who came over and even made a big feast!

She can cook!

...but this time she bought food, she bought Kenyan food and she brought it around and made a big feast of it. It was lovely!

She's a lovely girl, Alice!

Is there anything else you would like to add to this interview?

Yes! I shared but I don't know if you got it well or not. I shared with Patrick and I was saying that those people who had been invited to come: my sister, yeah, my sister, my young uncle, and now there is this lady called Caroline, who Patrick was talking about. Caroline, this lady, when Patrick came to Africa, was in the crowd and, after that, she was interested and asked me questions: how do you know them and all of that and, since then, she has been my friend. As friends, I used to visit her, she visited me and then there is this cousin of mine who got to know her. And so, eventually, this cousin made her pregnant. And now she has a baby, a girl. But, unfortunately, as soon as this cousin noticed that she was pregnant, he started playing some games, so much that, when the baby was born, he was nowhere to be seen. And now Caroline knew me and knew I was a cousin to that guy so, quite often, she asked for some help from me and because of my background, I could not say no because that is what defines my story. So I have tried to support her and now there was a time when she wanted to process the documents for the baby and that man refused to give his name. But, since he's my cousin and this baby was born as our child, I decided to give my documents and explained to my people what the story is and they have no problem and I give my documents and so the child got her birth certificate and even her passport. I insisted that Caroline come over to Cookstown because I look at her as a big investment in the project of helping teenage mothers that I want to start. I desire that she gets to come here so as to get to see the House of Prayer and get the answers by herself to the many questions she has always asked me.

And that's the only thing I could add.

So on the child's birth certificate you are named as the father so that the child could get a birth certificate?

Yeah.

So, it is the case, where you are from, that you cannot get a birth certificate unless you have the father's name?

You must have. Before it was easier but, right now, the government insists that you must have a father because they say that no child can be born without a father.

So they want to know the father and you cannot register your child without the father?

Because there were increased cases in Kenya of men running away from their responsibilities so, to control that, the government decided that, in all documents, the father must appear somewhere so that in the case of anything, it is easier to make.

But if the father runs away then, the child cannot be registered, can't get a birth certificate and then, when it is older, can't get a job or anything because it has no identity?

It will affect the child, yeah. So too, and for us culturally, according to our culture, what I did should not be a big thing because, at the end of the day, that child is ours, according to our culture. If you are my sister and you have a child, that child is yours but it is also mine.

So it's your responsibility as well.

Completely responsible.

I would like to put that into the interview because people wouldn't understand that here, because it's different. So once that's explained.

That is the culture, once the child is there, no problem.

And it was a great act of kindness

as well.

Yeah for me, I have no problem because, at the end of the day, I have tried to help many other people, many other children, so what's wrong with helping this one.

Yes, exactly.

Did your superiors have a problem with it?

I explained to the one who is concerned, only one who is concerned, and he was ok. Because adopting children is something common in our cultures and all that. I did not make it known to all of my superiors but to the one who is concerned, you must ensure that at least someone knows. So to the one who is concerned when I explained, he is ok. And most of us in our condition, most of us have adopted children and are helping them, no problem.

Ok, we'll put that in as well. Is there anything else?

None. Good!

-THE END-

John Paul II

APOSTOLIC LETTER: NOVO MILLENNIO INEUNTE
Of his Holiness Pope John Paul II to the bishops, clergy and lay faithful at the close of the Great Jubilee of the year 2000

Pilgrimage to the Holy Land

13. And how can I not recall my personal Jubilee along the pathways of the Holy Land? I would have liked to begin that journey at Ur of the Chaldeans, in order to follow, tangibly as it were, in the footsteps of Abraham "our father in faith" (cf. Rom 4:11-16). However, I had to be content with a pilgrimage in spirit, on the occasion of the evocative Liturgy of the Word celebrated in the Paul VI Audience Hall on 23 February. The actual pilgrimage came almost immediately afterwards, following the stages of salvation history. Thus I had the joy of visiting Mount Sinai, where the gift of the Ten Commandments of the Covenant was given. I set out again a month later, when I reached Mount Nebo, and then went on to the very places where the Redeemer lived and which he made holy. It is difficult to express the emotion I felt in being able to venerate the places of his birth and life, Bethlehem and Nazareth, to celebrate the Eucharist in the Upper Room, in the very place of its institution, to meditate again on the mystery of the Cross at Golgotha, where he gave his life for us. In those places, still so troubled and again recently afflicted by violence, I received an extraordinary welcome not only from the members of the Church but also from the Israeli and Palestinian communities. Intense emotion surrounded my prayer at the Western Wall and my visit to the Mausoleum of Yad Vashem, with its chilling reminder of the victims of the Nazi death camps. My pilgrimage was a moment of brotherhood and peace, and I like to remember it as one of the most beautiful gifts of the whole Jubilee event. Thinking back to the mood of those days, I cannot but express my deeply felt desire for a prompt and just solution to the still unresolved problems of the Holy Places, cherished by Jews, Christians and Muslims together.

International debt

14. The Jubilee was also a great event of charity — and it could not be otherwise. Already in the years of preparation, I had called for greater and more incisive attention to the problems of poverty which still beset the world. The problem of the international debt of poor countries took on particular significance in this context. A gesture of generosity towards these countries was in the very spirit of the Jubilee, which in its original Biblical setting was precisely a time when the community committed itself to re-establishing justice and solidarity in interpersonal relations, including the return of whatever belonged to others. I am happy to note that recently the Parliaments of many creditor States have voted a substantial remission of the bilateral debt of the poorest and most indebted countries. I hope that the respective Governments will soon implement these parliamentary decisions. The question of multilateral debt contracted by poorer countries with international financial organizations has shown itself to be a rather more problematic issue. It is to be hoped that the member States of these organizations, especially those that have greater decisional powers, will succeed in reaching the necessary consensus in order to arrive at a rapid solution to this question on which the progress of many countries depends, with grave consequences for the economy and the living conditions of so many people.

Song of the Carpenter

The following is a serialisation of the 'Song of the Carpenter,' a novel inspired by Jesus and written down by the two Patricks. It is about the entire Life of Jesus and is full of spiritual teachings as well as a simply fantastic read.

If you cannot wait to read it all, then you can order it from the Sacred Heart House of Prayer. It costs £6.99.

*****

Mary and Joseph built a one storied house on a piece of land rented from another Jew who had settled in Goshen. His name was Absalom. He had been a merchant and had travelled in to Egypt for many years trading silks. He had brought his family up in the tradition of the Jews and the Egyptians took little notice of the little Jewish community that was forming in their midst. After years of being a trader, Absalom, could speak the language well and he knew how to treat these people; they had wanted to trade and he traded with them. He told Joseph and Mary that he loved this rich, fertile land of the Nile Delta. Notwithstanding that the people of Israel had escaped from this area many hundreds of years, it mattered little to Absalom; this Land of Goshen was his home now. His merchant friends, who were still young enough to be in the business, came to stay with him while they were in Egypt. He had become a wealthy man.

The land that he rented to Joseph and Mary was to the north of his own land, which was situated some thirty miles from Succoth in the Land of Goshen. It was a small plot, one hundred yards by one hundred yards and it allowed Joseph to build the small temporary house, awaiting Heaven's command to return home. It was flat and fertile and was just big enough to grow what they needed to keep themselves alive. They felt compelled to trade the gifts that they had received from the men from the East to purchase what they needed to begin their new home. It allowed them to buy seed, bricks and a few carpenters' tools for Joseph to take up his trade once more. Once he got started making furniture and began to sell it he soon built up a healthy clientele who came to him for all their needs. Absalom too, saw the fine workmanship of the carpenter and employed him on various projects within his own house.

After a year of careful planning and austerity, the small unit of land was soon green with millet, onion, mint and spelt. A few goats eked out an existence on the wild grasses that grew sparsely in the surrounding area. Joseph built a lattice extending out from the front door of the house to grow grapes to be made into wine. It was not the most palatable of wines but the land gave what nutriments it had.

Mary looked after the plot of land, tending it and watering it while Joseph worked with the wood. On the flat roof of the house she dried her fruits and grains in the sun. The baby, Jesus, grew and thrived. Joseph and Mary lived a poor but comfortable life.

A True Pilgrimage

Message

In the Pilgrimage Message, Tuesday 17 June 2003, that Jesus gave, He asked that we fast a day before the travel begins and, even then, eat little until the first prayer is said at the Shrine. This was a little sacrifice, I believe, to show Jesus I was serious about making a good pilgrimage.

Paray Le Monial

Paray Le Monial was the first Shrine to visit and, on arrival, we went to the Apparition Chapel to greet Jesus – before checking into our accommodation. We met Sr Margarite Marie who looks after the Chapel and she arranged for Fr John to celebrate Mass in English, solely for our group in the Apparition Chapel. He gave a talk on Saint Margaret Mary and Devotion to the Sacred Heart with us all gathered around the altar during Mass.

Our two nights at Paray were a beautiful time of prayer and Peace, visiting the Apparition Chapel, Saint Claude de la Colombiere Chapel, the Basilica and Saint John Adoration Chapel. We stayed at the ‘Sacred Heart House’ near the chapel, a lovely centre for pilgrims with a prayer room and a chapel, both with the Blessed Sacrament reserved.

La Salette

La Salette Sanctuary was the next Shrine to visit where Mary appeared to Maximin and Melanie in 1846. We were looked after by Father Patrick who showed us around the Shrine, presented an audio visual on the Message and gave a talk on the Message of Our Lady. He gave us so much of his time, offering Confessions and celebrating Mass each morning in English, solely for our group. La Salette is a Shrine of Reconciliation, sadly the “secret Message” to Melanie is not promoted here. Our two nights here gave time for personal prayers and reflection. We joined the candlelit procession in the evening.

Lourdes

Next up was our overnight stay in Lourdes, after a long drive. Here, I must say that we travelled by two, nine seater, modern minibuses with sixteen of a group. Jesus asked in the Message that we would have times of silence with Him as we travelled and to keep Him in our hearts. “...Be excited, My pilgrims, of being with Me for you are in My company and My Mother’s...” From the Pilgrimage Message.

This was so good a Teaching, to remember Jesus as we journeyed, having times of silence to seek His Presence. This also created a Peace and Presence in the bus and seemed to make any of the long journeys so smooth and pass quickly.

I will treasure my moments in front of the Grotto of Lourdes, in silence and awe at the Heavenly Presence.

The baths offer what Mary asked for “...go and drink at the spring and wash yourself there...” making a prayer of petition and thanksgiving. I found this an experience of repentance and inner spiritual cleansing.

Garabandal

Garabandal is the focal point of the pilgrimage.

“...I call you, My priests and My bishops, to go there within the Octave of My Son’s Heart. If many, many people go there - especially priests and bishops - then the Church will reinvestigate the cause for this place...” Saturday 16 March 1996, Message given by Mary to the two Patricks. The Pilgrimage is organised for us to be in Garabandal during the Octave of the Feast of the Sacred Heart each year.

Some of our group stayed at the guest house and hotel in Garabandal and the rest stayed in Soledad House of Prayer, nearby, in the village of Cosío.

We attended Mass each morning in Garabandal and spent time in prayer and silence at the Pines. It was good to see priests visiting and staying at Garabandal.

Father Ronaldo, the Parish Priest, was very welcoming again and invited Shaun to sing during Mass. We met other pilgrims here and there is a sense of oneness with them through our belief and faith in the Messages and Apparitions of Our Lady of Garabandal.

We all gathered at Soledad House for a vigil on the eve of the Feast of the Sacred Heart. We also had times of prayer here and, on the evening before departing, we came together in Soledad for a time of sharing. This was indeed a time of Grace and Blessing.

France

We travelled to Saint Maximillian House in France for an overnight stay. Even though the House is in need of renovation, I felt a strong Presence of Jesus here. You could feel His Welcome to the group. I remember we gathered in the Prayer Room to greet Jesus on arrival and the Presence was so strong as I sat on in silence.

Pellevoision

The Sanctuary of Pellevoision was our final Shrine to visit and, by no means, least. We were welcomed by Father Francois who joined us for the evening meal and outlined the programme.

He gave a presentation on Estelle Faguet who received fifteen Apparitions of Our Lady in 1876 and was miraculously healed from the point of death of tuberculosis. Fr Francois suggested that we visit the grotto where Estelle sent a letter to Our Lady asking for healing so she could work again to help feed her very poor family.

The next day we made a pilgrimage to the Grotto, praying the Rosary as we walked and each one placed our personal petition in the basket at the Grotto. This was a beautiful time sitting in silence in the Presence of Mary.

While here, I learned of a teaching of Our Lady to Estelle not to be anxious but to be “calm”, waiting, trusting. This teaching has come to mind for me since, helping me at times to ask Jesus for guidance or help – then to be “calm,” trusting Him and waiting for His guidance; not to go on my self-will or doing it only my way.

We were really blessed at the various Shrines, especially Paray Le Monial, La Salette, Garabandal and Pellevoisin where a priest would take time to welcome us and give of their time in kindness, hospitality and spirituality. Throughout our travels, with some long journeys, it was remarkable how everyone in the group got on so well. We became like a spiritual family in the Presence of Jesus and Mary. Indeed there was emotion and tears as we parted company. Everyone’s faith and kindness was an example to me. The memory of the Pilgrimage will stay with me.

Thank You, Jesus and Mary, for a true pilgrimage.

The Plight of Others

Rape as a weapon

Victimized

Madeleine Gavin’s documentary 'City of Joy', follows the beginnings of City of Joy, a centre established in 2011 in the eastern region of the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) to help those women who have suffered violence by the ongoing mining conflicts in the area. The centre was set up by the Panzi hospital founder Dr Denis Mukwege, Christine Schuler Deschryver and Eve Ensler. Schuler Deschryver is the director and works with staff to oversee day-to-day operations, while Mukwege serves as an adviser and Ensler helps to fundraise and raise awareness.

...Eastern DRC is rich in the four most commonly mined conflict minerals: coltan, tin, tungsten and gold. Once processed, these minerals are sold to companies all over the world to make consumer products such as phones, laptops, cars and appliances. Coltan, in particular, is the integral ingredient that allows smartphones and electronics to hold a charge. Some of the companies that use coltan, and thus benefit from these conflicts, are Apple, Nintendo, Sharp, Nikon, Sony, Canon, Toshiba, Lenovo and Samsung.

Unspeakable atrocities

The demand for these invaluable resources has led countless militia groups to vie for control of the mines and this proxy war has created unspeakable atrocities in the surrounding areas, with many of the victims being women and girls. It's almost impossible to accurately track the magnitude of this humanitarian disaster but a study published in the American Journal of Public Health estimated about forty-eight women are raped in the DRC every hour. At his Panzi hospital, Dr Mukwege has performed reconstructive surgery on over 40,000 women who have been brutalized by sexual violence as a result of militia taking over their villages.

The militia use rape as a weapon

Schuler Deschryver said the militia use "rape as a weapon" solely to "terrorize people". This conflict has been raging since 1996; while the war that sparked these events officially ended in July 2003, both Ensler and Schuler Deschryver have seen little meaningful, lasting change from the world powers and multinational corporations that benefit from the sale of these minerals.

"You know, I think this is where I become like a crazy person, because it's over 12 years later and Dr Mukwege, Christine and I have made the rounds to every person with power on the planet and it's still going on," said Ensler. "Nothing has changed. And then you start thinking like, OK, do the people of Congo matter to anyone? Do the women of Congo matter to anyone?"

... "I don't think they want it to change," said Schuler Deschryver. "They want to keep going on so they can just plunder Congo with no witnesses."

All part of this story

It's an endlessly frustrating situation, and the hope is that the wide release of City of Joy on Netflix will help people to realize how interconnected we all are – and how we should be demanding our own countries and corporations do better. "I think people are so surprised to find out how complicit we all are in these wars and in the rape," said Ensler. "Because the fact of the matter is, every time a village gets ransacked, and every time a rape is used to get people to flee their villages, it's so the village can be taken over because of the mines. And so we're all part of this story, whether we know it or not..."

Disturbing to think

It is disturbing to think that we, albeit unwittingly, are a part of the sufferings of people throughout the world. Jesus said on Thursday 19 May 2011, "...Look at your technology and see how it found its being; it came from the sacrifice of millions of lives, it was born from the wars of mankind. The roots of your technology go back into the weapons of war given through the inspirations of lucifer... You no longer look to your brothers and sisters and their needs..."

Sometimes our demand and wants of self cause others sufferings. Maybe if we all tried to live Jesus advice of 'need not greed', we could help in some small way, to fight back.

Injustices in the UK

Injustices in the UK

This year we have seen many injustices in the UK. People arrested for silently praying outside abortion clinics, thoughts and Christian views becoming a crime. People losing their jobs or being 'cancelled' because of their views and for opposing the indoctrination of children at school with the LGBT/trans agenda.

But the latest outrage came recently when a court ruled to keep the name of a teenager with a rare disease and her family anonymous so that they could not even fundraise to try to get her treatment in another country that were willing to help. She was only allowed to be known as ST. It seems like another way of being dehumanised.

Love has died

This following Message and Scripture quote reminds us of where we are in these times:

"My children, I Love you, I call you to come follow Me. Time is short, children, and still you have not recognised My Voice; still you have not recognised the times that you now live in. Open your eyes and see the Truth; your world is falling apart. Love has died; it has been changed into an unrecognisable love that this world believes is good.

Because I am not allowed within your society, faith and morals have disappeared and unlove reigns in favour of true Love. Look, children, look and see the Truth; mankind has become barbaric. You live in an evil generation which My Father shall be forced to come and cleanse..." Saturday 3 September 2005

"And because of the increase in lawlessness the love of many will grow cold." Matthew 24:12

Fighting to live

LifeSiteNews reported earlier in September: 'Lawyers for the hospital claimed in court that the young woman's desire to continue fighting to live was a "delusion" leaving her unfit to make choices about end-of-life medical care, despite two psychiatric experts testifying that she is of sound mind.'

Christian concern reported:

The family of ST has released the following statement:

"On Tuesday evening we lost our beautiful and courageous daughter, known to the world as ST. To us she has a real name. Even now, in the hour of our grief, we continue to be gagged by the court order from saying her name aloud.

"To her family she was everything and we will cherish and never forget the 19 years we had with her.

"The past year, however, has been one of struggle, even torture, for ST and for her family at the hands of the hospital and the Court of Protection.

"Mitochondrial depletion syndrome (MDS) is very rare, and the particular version ST had has only a few known cases in the world. The UK has no expertise in treating the condition but three hospitals in America and Canada had offered to treat ST. Because of the court proceedings, however, ST was blocked from going there and because of the gagging orders we could not fundraise to finance her treatment and transport.

"ST said she wanted 'to die trying to live'. This was her only chance, and that chance was denied to her."

Sadiksha Thirumalesh

On the 22 September, the family won the right in court to mention her name again. "Her name is Sadiksha Thirumalesh" stated her family outside of the court. They said they were deeply disturbed by the way they had been treated by the hospital trust and the courts.

They were gagged, brutally silenced and intimidated which prevented them from access to treatment abroad. During their ordeal over the past year, they were taken to court and a threat of imprisonment was hanging over their heads. "The ruling of Justice Mrs Roberts was cruel."

At the end of the statement, they thanked all the staff who had cared for Sadiksha and as they are committed Christians and believe in love, life and forgiveness, they said they forgave those whose only interest it was to allow her to die.

There is hope

This is just one example of the institutionalized unlove that is in our society today and while it is very difficult, we must still be the bearers of Love.

Jesus has said, in many Messages, that His Justice is on the earth and He will give His people a voice. We must continue to pray, prepare and die to self and have faith, He is with us and, as He said on Monday 11 September 2023, "Have faith, children, have faith in Me, your God. All is changing and the darkness begins to retreat slowly but, soon the web will break and shatter and this world will see the deceit of those in power... Prepare, children, for already the changes are taking place and, soon, Freedom will come to My people as they are given a voice that, once again, will be listened to..."

Letters to the HoP

Thank you

Dear all at the House of Prayer,
Thank you for all that you do in sending out the Newsletter and all the other great work that you do. I have neglected you for some time in sending little donations and you continue to send the Messages so, thank you for that.
Please find enclosed a cheque for

.... to assist with the printing and postage etc.

We are feeling smaller by the week and month as people turn away from the teaching of the Church. So, thank you again and keep going.

God Bless you all,
Sincerely,
Teresa

BUILD ME A HERMITAGE

..My Voice is a silent Voice and you must be silent within you to hear that Voice;
you must be willing to listen to the ways that are good.
You must change your lives totally..

...I would ask of you to practice silence within your hearts for Me.
I would ask of you to learn what silence is and how to recognise My Voice
within My Messages
so that I can Teach you.

...Learn the spiritual art of always being humble enough to love Me without seeing Me or feeling Me.

Learn to pick up the spiritual thread that links you and I.
Soak yourselves in silence,
steep yourselves within Me.
Be a silent vessel
wherein I can reside.
Build Me a Hermitage of Love
within your soul,
wherein I can Love you;
where you can see
the ways to die to self.

Love Me through being uncomfortable and offering it to Me.
Unite your real humility
with Me on the Cross of Love.
