

THIRTY YEARS!!!

An Invitation to Love Jesus Newsletter Messages of Love April 2024 Issue 335

Editorial

Front Cover

The image on our front cover is a little miracle that happened here at the House of Prayer several years ago. Patrick Rushe was painting a picture of the Sacred Heart. He could not get the Heart to look the way he wanted it to. He kept scraping the paint off the canvas and wiping his brush on the cloth and trying again. He began to get a little frustrated and was asking Jesus to help him to get it right. He wiped his paint brush, again, on the cloth and, when he looked down, there, on the cloth, was the perfect image of a Heart!
Only Jesus could have done that!

The Messages

Jesus reminds us that the Father of All is walking this earth, viewing how many of His children will return to Him and how many will refuse. He tells us, again, that all will be given a chance to return but, if we do not prepare now, taking that chance will be very difficult for us.

Jesus also speaks of the control that our governments are inflicting on us, that we are being forced to accept laws of sin but, not to worry, that our Freedom is at hand.

For us, Jesus Warns us that self hates His Truth and that we must break free of self in order to see the Truth. There is no short-cut. All must die to self. Jesus needs us to take on His Words so that we will be able to help His children when the time comes.

Thirty Years

We continue celebrating our 'Thirty Years' theme with a few more articles written by servants. This month, one is by a servant who was here from the beginning while the other is from a servant who joined us in recent years.

Other Articles

There is an article which will interest all who love the Sacred Heart of Jesus, entitled 'Saint Piedad of the Cross' who is the foundress of the order: 'The Salesian Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesús.'

You can read about the progress of the ongoing renovation work at the Saint Michael House of Prayer. Thank God, all is going well.

This month, the 'Plight of Others' covers the Victims of the Trans movement. It makes an interesting but sad read.

Beyond the Song

SonLight's 'Beyond the Song' event will be taking place Sunday 16 June. Please see back cover for more information.

The Messages of Love

as given to the two Patricks

Monday 1 April 2024

My children, have faith in the Words I speak and prepare. The change has begun and this world is blind. The Father of All walks the countries of this world and views how many of His children will be willing to return and at how many will refuse. This is why He will give all a chance so that no one will be lost who wishes to return. Trust Me and make ready. Trust.
I Love you.

Tuesday 2 April 2024

Children, I, your God, am with you and I call you to Me. You are in so much danger in this time when lucifer has been given so much freedom to control your governments. You force My people to obey your laws of sin; it would be better for you that you had not been born, for, by your actions, you carve a place for yourselves in the deepest part of hell. Those you were responsible for guiding there, with your false laws, will reel against you for all eternity. Wake up, now, and repent of your evil and fight against the laws you helped create. I will cleanse you, if, you but ask with a repentant heart. Trust Me, I am your God and you are My child, I do not want to lose any of My children. Trust Me.

I Love you.

Wednesday 3 April 2024

My children, My Love for you is great, and, so, I give these Words of Life to guide you through this 'Time of Great Peril'. Trust Me, children, and only listen to My Truth. My children recognise My Truth deep within their hearts, but, it is free will whether you listen to Me and be obedient to the Truth. Remember, self hates My Truth, for, self is of the world, and, as I have said, the world first hated Me and, so, will hate you, if you follow Me in Truth. This is why I say, only listen to those who are willing to guide you on the True Path. Trust Me, children, and be obedient to My Law. Trust Me.
I Love you.

Thursday 4 April 2024

Children of Love, I Love you. Come to Me often in prayer and let Me Love you; let Me show you the Path of Truth that I call all My children to follow. Come to Me and let My Love be your guide. Trust Me, children. I Love you.

Friday 5 April 2024

Love is what you seek when you are a follower of Me, your God. I am Love and Love is the only thing that will bring you closer to Me. Trust in Me, your God, trust is gained through dying to self, for, self will never allow trust to enter. Believe, I am guiding you through these, My Words of Love, to this generation and the generations to come. I will shine out to this world through My Houses of Prayer for they are the seeds of the new orders that I create for the generations to come. Priests, brothers and sisters of the Way of Truth will spread out to the four corners of this world, through these Houses I bring to life through My Prophets, Visionaries and Seers all over this world. Have faith, children, your God is with you, preparing the way before you. Trust Me, this time of darkness will come to an end and Peace will reign all over this earth. Trust Me. I Love you.

Monday 8 April 2024

Have faith in Me, your God, and do not let despair in, at what you see as My lack of action, in the events of this world. Trust Me, children,

I do more than you can possibly understand. It is, I, who hold the total destruction of this earth back, for, mankind has now given lucifer the power, in free will, to do so. I will soon show you. I will release My Power and this world will see.

Trust Me.
I Love you.

Wednesday 10 April 2024

Come to Me often, children, spend time with Me in prayer and get to know Me. Trust Me, children. I Love you.

Thursday 11 April 2024

My children, listen to My Words so that you be ready for the events that have already begun as a trickle. This earth is on the brink of great change and My own must be ready in order to understand, and, so, will be able to help those around them come to the safety of their God. Trust Me and prepare. I Love you.

Saturday 13 April 2024

My children, so many of you read My Words with complacent hearts. You read but you do not change or prepare. You do not realise what is ahead; your Creator is about to reclaim His Creation from the evil of mankind. This is a 'Time of Great Peril', a time where, only those who have the Light of their God in their hearts, will be the only ones to survive. This is the time of Revelation; a time when the faith of all will be tested. This earth will convulse and spew forth many disasters and much land will be swept from this earth and only My remnant will walk in Peace, free in the knowledge that the Hand of their God is at work.

Wake up, children, and prepare, die to self, fight the sin in your life. You are all but out of time, the last grains fall from the glass of time. The Father of All is about to speak, He has walked among you and looked on your works and listened to the nations of this world and is about to call Judgement down upon what mankind has become. Never before have people become so evil.

Prepare, My children, prepare.
I Love you.

Monday 15 April 2024

Already, the fall has begun. The countries of this world are blinded by the lies of lucifer and begin to rail against one another in their blindness. These leaders are but puppets, controlled by demons of hell.

Prepare, children, prepare! Great change is on your doorstep. If you are not prepared, then you, too, shall fall into confusion and fear, but, if you are prepared, you will understand the Justice of your God is at work as I tear the shield of lies away from those that have deceived the people who they were supposed to guide and look after. Dark days are ahead for those who do not understand, but, you, My remnant, will see and understand, the Power of your God walks this earth.

I, your Jesus, ask this of you.

Prepare.
I Love you.

Tuesday 16 April 2024

Have faith, children! It is not long now, to the change, when all will lose their power to deceive. I have told you that mankind thinks he is in control for he has forgotten his God. He no longer counts Me as being a threat to his power.

I have told you; I will bring this world to its knees. There is no power on this earth that will be able to explain the events that take place. No scientist will be able to explain, for, I will show mankind, how little he truly knows and understands. Trust Me, My people, and believe in Me, your God, and prepare.

Trust Me.
I Love you.

Wednesday 17 April 2024

My children, My Love for you is great, yet, I am a rejected God, forgotten by so many of those who say they follow Me. They are but liars, only deceiving themselves. Remember, I see all, no truth, or, no lie, can be hidden from Me. There are so many nonbelievers who sit in front of Me and all I hear from them is lip service, they do not believe; they use Me for their own gains. So many are walking the path to hell.

I need your help, children, to turn the tide and help those in need. I will open My Power, once again, to this world and many will return with your help.

Trust Me, children, I Love you.

Friday 19 April 2024

Children, I am with you and I say, do not fear the events that now take place, in this time of great darkness. Rather, believe in what I am about to show you. Yes, I will bring this world to its knees for the evil of man has become so great, lucifer has been freely given the power to destroy all life.

Trust Me, children, and do as I say, for, this world is out of time and I am your only safe Refuge. Now, is the time you must turn to Me and believe in the Words I speak. Trust Me.

My Houses are in need of your sacrifice, these are the foundation stones of the refuges that you have built through your prayers, your giving, and, your sacrifices.

Trust Me and make haste for I am about to ignite what you have built for Me. Trust Me and prepare.

I Love you.

Sunday 21 April 2024

My children, My remnant, it has begun. I begin to reclaim what has been stolen from Me. I will now give you, who have stayed faithful, a voice and, We, together, will gather the harvest, along with the darnel, for I will cleanse My fields of the blight that has destroyed the greatest part of those who could have loved Me in Truth.

I will destroy the plague of lies that now totally surrounds this earth. I will put an end to those who think they rule this earth. All, children, will now change and My remnant will be the only ones who are left to spread the true meaning of Love, My Love.

Prepare.

I Love you.

Monday 22 April 2024

My children, I Love you and call you close in these Words of Truth. Prepare, children, for the Father of All is about to speak the Words of Justice that will call a Great Chastisement down upon this earth.

Mankind will pay for what they have done in free will. The evil of this generation has never been surpassed in all the history of this earth. You murder the innocent, within your hospitals, and, call it, choice. Your hospitals have become places where those who think they are in power, decide whether you live or die. They have become evil places where the demons of hell are given freedom. Life is judged on age, and, how much money, and, time, it will take to heal a person.

Prepare, mankind, the Judgement of your Father is at hand! It is time to repent or you will be swept away in the 'Great Cleansing'.

Prepare.

I Love you.

Tuesday 23 April 2024

Children, listen to these, My Words of Truth. Look: can you not see My Words being fulfilled? Already, so many of My Words have come to pass. I Warn and Warn you, that you stand on the brink of a great change, that mankind will not understand. Only those who have been willing to listen, and, have tried to follow Me, in Truth, will understand. This is why I say, prepare. The Father of All will speak and this world will change. Trust Me, you have only days of your time left.

Prepare.
I Love you.

Wednesday 24 April 2024

My children, read the signs of your times and see the Truth of what is happening. I cannot convince you of the urgency of this time. The Father has walked this earth and has looked at all mankind and has seen what man has done in the name of progress. Never, has a generation allowed themselves to become so evil.
Most of this generation has accepted the lies of lucifer and most will not return to the Truth, but, for the sake of a few, I will give this generation a chance to return and then I will renew all Creation, but, first, I will cleanse this generation's mark, its stain of sin so that all can be renewed in Truth.
You, My remnant, have nothing to fear, for, this cleansing is sent by your God, to sift the good from the bad. So, all that will be left, will be those, who are willing to accept the Law of Love.
Trust Me and prepare.
Trust. I Love you.

Thursday 25 April 2024

Children, have faith in Me and realise I am trying to help you prepare for the events that are now beginning on this earth. Trust Me and let Me guide you through these Words of Love. The most important thing you can do, in this time, is die to self, for, it is the sin in your lives that prevents you from seeing the Truth of what is truly happening around you in this world. Trust Me and make haste. The more you prepare, the more you will be able to understand what I do.
Prepare, children.
I Love you.

Friday 26 April 2024

My children, I call you to prayer. Prayer is how you get to know Me. At the beginning, prayer will be boring and tedious for self will fight against spending time with Me, but, the more you persevere, then you will begin to enjoy your time in prayer and will look forward to these quiet times spent with Me.
This is why I say, get to know Me for I am to be found in prayer, if you are willing to persevere. Trust Me, children, die to self, it is self that stands between you and getting to know Me.
Trust Me.
I Love you.

Saturday 27 April 2024

My children, I, your God, am with you. I walk this earth, I visit your towns, your cities, your communities, your houses. I walk, I look at the lonely, the rich, the poor, the sinner and the holy. I see so few who walk the Path of Truth.

All, but a few, now walk the path lucifer has placed before the peoples of this world. Nearly all now, look to their own needs and do not think of the needs of those around them.

I tell you the Truth, soon, I shall speak and this world will answer, and, all My Creation shall rebel against the evil mankind has released in their free will.

Trust Me, My remnant, I will look after My own, but, those who refuse to repent, will undergo a chastisement that has never, nor, will be, experienced again. Trust and prepare for it is now time to show this world how little they truly understand.

Trust Me, children.

I Love you.

Sunday 28 April 2024

Have faith in Me, your God, and walk this Path I place before you, for, times are truly changing and so few are ready for what now befalls this world.

My remnant, I speak to you, My beloved children, and I say, prepare, for, already, many things have begun and mankind has not recognised the Work of his God. I will show you, My people, that your perseverance has not been in vain.

Prepare, for, the Power of your God is about to touch you and you shall recognise the Truth and faith will blossom within your hearts and you shall become My Hands, My Feet and My Lips and, We, together, shall reclaim many souls that are walking the path of darkness.

My remnant will swell in numbers and My people shall know joy, once again, for the understanding will be given to all My remnant and they will rejoice in the Glory of their God.

Prepare, My little ones, for I am about to Speak.

I Love you.

Monday 29 April 2024

My children, listen to My Words that I give, to help guide you, in this time of great peril. Trust Me, children, and believe I will guide you through to safe refuge. So much evil abounds in this time, the demons have control of the greatest part of your society, your governments are overrun. The media are now the puppets of lucifer; they bow to his every whim, as they pump out the lies they are given.

Do not trust anything you are being told, through your news channels for they are controlled by the liars who are in power. This, is coming to an end, for, I will reveal the Truth and all will be seen as it really is. The people will see how they have been controlled through the lies of those in power. Children, you do not realise what is ahead or you would run to My Protection now.

Trust Me and prepare.

I Love you.

Does your heart still burn within you...?

This is part of the Message Jesus gave on last year's Feast of the Sacred Heart:

Friday 16 June 2023 Feast of the Sacred Heart

My children, on this Day of My Heart, I ask a question of each one of you who follow Me. Answer Me truthfully in your hearts.

Does your heart still burn within you when you hear My Words? Whether it be My Scripture or My Messages?

When your heart burns at the mere mention of My Name then you are on your way to the Kingdom. If it does not then, where are you going if not to Me?

For the heart to burn, you must love Me with a sincere heart, willing to lay down your very life for Me. I hear your protests telling Me that you do love Me but I say that you do not pray; you pray as the pagans do:

5 "And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Assuredly, I say to you, they have their reward.

6 But you, when you pray, go into your room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly... Matthew 6:5-7

...I call you, in these days, to pray with a sincere heart; a heart that does not pray when they have hatred for a brother, or a heart that is full of malice. Pray with your heart and not with the things in your head that lead to another's destruction; pray with love for Me in your heart, with a willingness to change the way you live your life...

I am asking that My followers love Me in Truth. I am asking for your whole heart, your whole mind and your whole strength in loving Me. Learn in your prayer by praying with a sincere act of the will; I will Teach you but you must come to Me loving Me. My own Heart burns when you pray in sincerity for then I know that you love Me and are willing to be taught the Ways of Heaven by My Spirit.

All these things I tell you in Truth so that you may be prepared for what is to come. When your heart burns when you hear My Word at all times, then you know that you are being taught.

There is yet a Fire in Me and how I wish it were already lit. That Fire is your sincere love for Me.

APPEAL

Thursday 29 February 2024

Help Me prepare My Houses, My children. They are in need and I ask for your help in preparing them.

Trust Me, children, they are about to ignite and this world will see them and flock to their Light. It is your prayer, your sacrifice, your giving, that powers My Houses to be made ready for what they will become.

Trust Me and help with this work.

I Love you.

The understanding I was given of this Message, was that, the more we offer up for the Houses of Prayer, in things like prayer and sacrifice, the stronger they become spiritually. Three of the Houses of Prayer in Europe are in urgent need of new roofs. These are: Saint Maximilian House of Prayer, France; Saint Nikolaus House of Prayer in Germany and Virgin Most Pure House of Prayer in Slovenia.

Virgin Most Pure, lost part of its roof in freak storms over the last few years and has had to have temporary repairs but all these are in desperate need of new roofs.

We have asked roofers in those countries for estimates to have these renewed or repaired and they have given these.

The French House was quoted at €32,000, while the German House was quoted at €96,000. The Slovenian roof was quoted at €45,000. So, as you see, the Houses are in great need.

We ask for your prayer and sacrifice for, as Jesus says, it is prayer, sacrifice and giving, that builds the Houses; not only physically but, spiritually, in order to do whatever He has planned for them.

By the sounds of what He is saying, the Houses are about to be seen by this world. Remember, don't feel under pressure to give money for, prayer and sacrifice are also needed in this work. Some of us can pray, some of us can offer little sacrifices, some of us can afford to help financially and, some of us can offer more than one type of offering.

We thank you for whatever help you can give, be it prayer, sacrifices or financial help; all are equally important.

We asked that Jesus Bless both you and your families in these days of great darkness with His protection.

Thank you, in the Name of Jesus and Mary.

The two Patricks

WE CONTINUE TO APPEAL FOR THE HELP NEEDED TO GET THESE ESSENTIAL NEW ROOFS/REPAIRS WHICH ARE URGENTLY NEEDED. IF YOU ARE ABLE TO DONATE TO OUR APPEAL, PLEASE INCLUDE A NOTE STATING "FOR ROOF APPEAL." TO DATE WE HAVE RECEIVED £5,600 FOR THIS APPEAL. THANK YOU, EVERYONE, FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

THE HOUSES OF PRAYER

Pope Saint John Paul II Youth House, Belmullet

What the House is for Jesus asked for a House in the West of Ireland near the town of Belmullet in County Mayo. As we can see from the Message, it is for the youth. Jesus wants to show them that He has not forgotten them. This House is near a lake and also, quite a few beaches. He desires that we take the young people to this House and show them that He has not forgotten them. It is to be a place of activities such as walking, cycling, surfing, kayaking, swimming, kiting, etc and, where they will get to know Him.

What Jesus said

"...My young people know Me little; they have been neglected by My Church, they have been left to run wild. I intend to show them, through this House, that I am Alive and that I Love them. Many pray to Me for their young: In this House, I answer many prayers. I ask of your help in this.

This House will be where My young shall know My Love. I ask that a few, simple prayers be said with them before and after their activities there..." Wednesday 7 December 2011

Finished

This House is finished. Sometimes there are groups of young people taken down there where they can partake in watersports and different activities. Hopefully, in the future, we will be able to do this more often when time and manpower allow.

The Sacred Heart House of Prayer first opened in February 1994, thirty blessed years ago. Some of the servants have written about their journey to the Sacred Heart House of Prayer. We will print these throughout our Newsletters this year. Here are a few more:

WHAT A PRIVILEGE
IT IS TO BE THERE

Thank You, Jesus, for Your Messages of Love and Your Houses of Prayer!

I first came to the House of Prayer in about 2009, when I was sixteen years old. I was overwhelmed by the amazing Plans Jesus had revealed through His Messages to the two Patricks and it was great to see them unfold within His servants of Love and His Houses. I felt called to become a Habit Member and, in 2017, I took on the Way of the Sacred Heart. It's an ongoing journey, I often feel unworthy, like I'm going one step forward and two steps back but, in spite of my shortcomings, Jesus has me in His Heart and what a privilege it is to be there.

I got to travel abroad

I have so many things to be grateful for. Jesus, through the House of Prayer, has shaped me as a person and helped me grow into who I am today. It was through the House that I got to travel abroad for the first time without my family. I spent a month with Bridie, manning in the Houses of Prayer in Germany (Saint Nikolaus House of Prayer) and in Poland (Saint Stanislaus House of Prayer). I also got the opportunity to go to Saint Michael and the Heavenly Hosts House of Prayer in London, Virgin Most Pure House of Prayer in Slovenia, Saint Maximillian House of Prayer in France, Soledad House of Prayer in Cosío, Spain, where I got to go to the Shrine at Garabandal! I learned so many things about other cultures, got to see the world and had the opportunity to learn life lessons that I wouldn't have otherwise.

The Gathering Place

Having had the chance to work in the Gathering Place at the House of Prayer, from a young age, Jesus had opened my eyes to the world of alcohol and its influence on people, especially the young. Through serving soup, tea and coffee to people as they were leaving the nightclubs and bars, I had a lot of good craic, but also saw the dangers of over consumption and how vulnerable it left people. This was good for me to learn as I hadn't begun drinking yet and it helped me to aim to be more temperate whenever I did start drinking alcohol. I quickly got over my shyness and became a more sociable person through my stints in the Gathering Place as I got to meet all sorts of people there.

Truth about abortion

Jesus has given me a great foundation to grow up with, going through different stages of my life armed with prayer and a deeper understanding of Spiritual Life. I was able to form many faith based friendships when I left home for University. Having a real thirst for Jesus, I attended Daily Mass and went to prayer meetings and Pro-Life outreaches throughout my three years at college. It was through the House of Prayer that I learned the Truth about abortion and that spurred me on to participate in the fight against abortion. It was through this that I met many lifelong friends who have the same values as I do. One friend later became my husband and I thank Jesus for him, because it was Him who brought us together, as we met protecting the unborn.

Jesus brought prayer alive

My father, who is also a Habit member, and, my whole family, grew in Faith and in love of Jesus because of the House of Prayer. Our family unit became stronger and Jesus brought prayer alive in our home, encouraging us to be less worldly and more focused on Him. We learned how to fast and each of us deepened in our individual journeys towards Him. We have seen many improvements in our family life. God has moved in miraculous ways. In one instance, my younger brother had a great conversion and is now on his first step of seminary discernment for the Diocesan Priesthood. The Houses of Prayer have been influential in his discernment and his journey. Praise God!

SonLight

For the past five years, I have been a member of SonLight, the music ministry which Jesus has called for in His Messages of Love. I love being able to serve Jesus in this way and I see it as a great privilege, even though it involves sacrifice, it is so cool to be able to see Jesus touch hearts through song. Jesus allows us to go to places in His Name and represent Him in places where He, His House of Prayer or His Messages of Love wouldn't necessarily be invited to. I couldn't begin to describe the different ways in which I've witnessed Him move.

A refuge

In recent years, Jesus has protected us in His House of Prayer and had given us a refuge when other churches and chapels closed down during the covid lockdowns. Jesus asked for His Prayer Room to remain opened and we have had Him Present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity, in the Tabernacle there, open and willing to be loved by us. He has given us the Truth in His Messages of Love, as the world becomes more and more confusing, He remains steadfast, unchanging and calls us to look deeper into His Scriptures and into His Holy Catholic Church to find answers to all our cares and worries.

His Little Army of Love

To conclude, I don't think I have even begun to scratch the surface of the ways in which Jesus has Blessed us through His House of Prayer. He has drawn together a family, His Little Army of Love, who pray, love and stick together in this fight for the Lord against ourselves and the evils of the world.

Thank You, Jesus!

-ooOoo-

I AM SO THANKFUL

I have been a part of the House of Prayer since its opening in 1994. The Messages of Love first spoke to me when I realised exactly how much Jesus Loves me and how much He wants that very personal relationship with me. I had always put Jesus in a box and could never really accept that He wanted to be involved with all aspects of my life.

Excitement and purpose

I can clearly remember the House of Prayer opening and the sense of excitement and purpose we all felt in beginning this mission for Jesus, through the Messages of Love. We all eagerly awaited Messages and, at that time, a lot of them were giving us Instructions for how Jesus wanted us to do things in His House. They were exciting and challenging times back then as we tried, and a lot of times failed, to follow Jesus' guidance and Instruction. Not long after the House opened, Jesus gave us Messages concerning His Plan for us to be servants of the Way of the Sacred Heart and that we were to wear a Habit of Humility. We were all surprised and, to be honest, a little taken aback by this development but we all had great trust in the Messages and we willingly followed Jesus' Wishes.

Nothing is impossible

Back then it felt as if Jesus' Coming was imminent and I can remember commenting that I would give it a year or so to see what happened. Well, here I am, thirty years later, and I am so thankful that I stayed on this journey. There have been happy, sad and difficult times along the way, but all of these trials have, and continue to, strengthen and teach me so much about Jesus and His personal Love for all of us.

It would be impossible to document all the things that have happened here that have shown us that Jesus is truly with us and that with Him nothing is impossible. We just need to trust completely in Him and always keep Him with us.

Simplicity of Jesus

Through my commitment to the Way of the Sacred Heart, I have learned the actual simplicity of Jesus and that most times we complicate our lives. Jesus simply wants that personal relationship and our continual willingness to live in His Truth. He continually instructs us all on the importance of dying to self so that the scales can fall from our eyes. Trusting Jesus is the most important thing and even when it seems our prayers are not being answered and our life is not going as we wish, we need to remember that when we let Jesus take control, He will never let us down. This has been proven to us, on countless occasions, throughout my time here in the House.

Testimony to the Presence of Jesus and the Messages of Love is that the House of Prayer, which He set up, is still here thirty years later. All the servants here have nothing, materially, and yet Jesus has given so much. Thank You, Jesus, for Your Invitation to Love You.

Saint Piedad of the Cross

Encounter with Christ

Piedad de la Cruz Ortiz Real, was born in Bocairente (Valencia) Spain, November 12, 1842, and was baptized the following day with the name of Tomasa. She was the fifth of eight siblings.

At school she was distinguished for piety, constancy and talent in music, embroidery and in acting.

At ten she had her First Holy Communion. Looking back as she herself narrates her feelings: “When I received for the first time the Holy Communion, I was annihilated, and as I experienced Jesus calling me to religious life.” This encounter with Christ in the Eucharist marked her forever. Tomasa desired the Lord and lived for him. From this day onwards she devoted her life to Jesus and His Most Sacred Heart.

She was a virgin, who for love of God, zealously devoted herself to the education and catechesis of the poor and founded the Congregation of the Salesian Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

She completed her human and spiritual education at Colegio de Loreto de las Religiosas de la Sagrada Familia de Burdeos-Valencia. She wanted to enrol at that High School but her father obliged her to come back home. In spite of that, during that time she spent her days doing good to the children, the poor, the older and the sick people from her village, leading, at the same time, a life of piety and deep praying,

An extraordinary experience

Some years later, she joined the Carmelitas enclosed convent in Valencia. However, due to sickness she returned home to her family. Confused by these events, she asked God to show her more clearly what He wanted from her life and where. "Yours, my Jesus, Yours I want to be but tell me where."

Later, and with the conviction that God was calling her to follow Him, she went to Barcelona. There, in the middle of her constant vocational search, she had an extraordinary experience, in which the Sacred Heart of Jesus told her: "Look at how men left Me with their ingratitude. Can you help Me carry this burden?" And she answered: "Lord, if you need a victim and You want me, here I am with You, Lord Jesus." Jesus told her: "found, (a new order) my daughter, and I will always have mercy on you and your Congregation".

This experience left a definite trace in her vocation. There were no more doubts: God was asking her to create a new religious institution...

Congregation was born

She asked for help from Bishop Bryand and Livermore, who sent her and her friend Alfonsa, to the Convent "Visitación de las Salesas Reales" in Orihuela to take a one month religious training course and to project a new Foundation, taking Francisco de Sales as their spiritual guide. It was here where the Holy Spirit enlightened her intensely and, finally, on 8 September 1890, a new Congregation was born: The Salesian Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesús.

Piedad de la Cruz lived poorly. In this same poverty she died on 26 February 1916. On 21 March 2004, Pope John Paul II beatified her in Rome.

My personal experience

The Salesian sisters still exist to this day and have gone from strength to strength. Many holy women and men have now become priests through their order. Many of these devoted their lives to missionary work or education. This is where my personal experience of the Salesians comes in. I am currently studying a diploma in Youth Ministry in Maynooth. The particular course that I am studying is led by the Salesian order which I didn't know until recently was an order of the Sacred Heart, just like us at the House of Prayer.

Strong foundation

Sometimes I would be shy and quite introverted and I never really saw myself as academic so, when I decided to take the plunge to do such an academic qualification, it was quite a big deal for me.

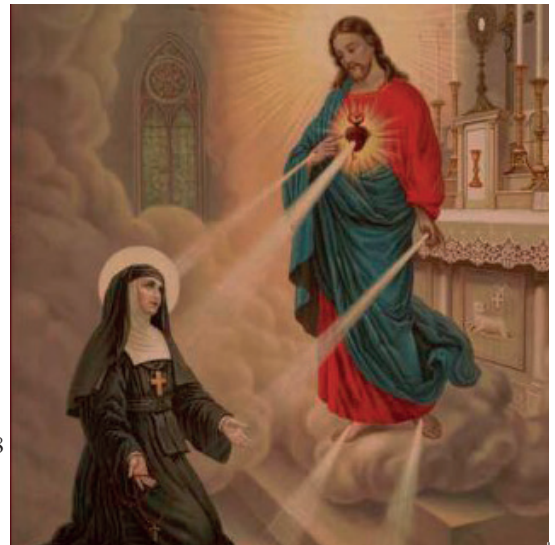

Salesian nuns and priests

I was quite hesitant, even after praying about it many times. However now, having started and completed my first year, I can say that I have always felt comfortable in my surroundings and I have seen the way that the Salesian nuns and priests that developed the course have stuck to the true teachings of the Church and have not tried to water them down. This was one of my biggest fears when starting out on the course initially. What version of today's 'modern church' will I get? I believe this has been a Gift from Jesus and the fact that I now know that they are so incredibly devoted to Jesus' Most Sacred Heart, just as we are in the House of Prayer, is both comforting and a confirmation to me. We both rely on Him as the strong Foundation of our Orders. For me this is a subtle sign that I needed to convince me that I was right to embark on this path for the glory of Jesus alone. We are simply vessels but I am passionate about introducing our faith to the youth in our society who maybe haven't been introduced much or even at all by their parents through no fault of their own.

Youth ministry movement

The recurring theme that keeps coming back from our retreats is that it is "something they never knew they needed" and the young people always ask when we are coming back. For this I have foundress Saint Piedad of the cross to thank for without her, and Jesus' help, this Salesian order of holy men and women just wouldn't exist and this youth ministry movement that I am privileged to be part of may never have been born.

Uphold Christ's Church

Saint Francis of Assisi

When reading the English omnibus of the sources for the life of Saint Francis of Assisi (edited by Marion A. Habig, 1973) this certain passage stood out to me. The chapter was based on Saint Francis presenting the rule of his order to the Pope at that time, Pope Innocent III.

"When he saw that the number of friars was slowly increasing, Francis wrote a short, simple, rule of life for himself and his companions. This was based on an unshakable foundation, the following of the Gospel, and to this he added a limited number of other prescriptions, such as seemed necessary for their life in common... When he appeared before the Supreme Pontiff, Francis told him of his plans, imploring him humbly and insistently to approve the rule for him. The pope, Innocent III, was famous for his learning; and when he saw Francis' wonderful purity of heart, together with his determination, and the fiery eagerness of his will, he felt inclined to give his approval. However, the whole idea seemed so new to some of the cardinals, who thought that the rule was too difficult for any human being, that he hesitated to do what Francis asked. One of the cardinals was His Eminence John of St. Paul, Bishop of Santa Sabina, a man who loved holiness and was dedicated to Christ's poor. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, he addressed the pope and his confreres saying, "We must be careful. If we refuse this beggarman's request because it is new or too difficult, we may be sinning against Christ's Gospel, because he is only asking us to approve a form of Gospel life. Anyone who says that a vow to live according to the perfection of the Gospel contains something new or unreasonable or too difficult to be observed, is guilty of blasphemy against Christ, the Author of the Gospel." At that, the successor of St. Peter turned to St. Francis and told him, "My son, pray to Christ that he may show us his will through you. When we are sure of that, we can grant your request without fear."

Devoted response

The response of His Eminence John of St. Paul, Bishop of Santa Sabina is a beautiful and devoted response that gave me joy when reading. It made me think of many of the clergy's opinion on the Gospel teachings today and how they wish to change the Truth to suit our sin and justify our actions. It is clear there was still doubt, even in Saint Francis' time, of just how literally the Gospel could be lived but this is what Saint Francis did, he lived the Gospel Teachings, literally, and revolutionised the Church with Christ! We, too, can use this response to break through the lies and fear surrounding the teachings of the Gospel! We, too, can be like Saint Francis and hold onto the Truth no matter what opposition comes against us. Like this next passage describes in the events after the Bishop of Santa Sabina's response, we, too, can put our back into it and help uphold Christ's True Church as His Little Army of Love.

Uphold Christ's Church

When Francis was advised to pray to Christ for their decision, Francis did so immediately and, through his words, inspired through this prayer, the pope was reminded of a vision he had a short time before...

'He had seen a vision from heaven and by divine inspiration he now testified that it would be fulfilled in Francis. As he himself described it, he had a dream in which he saw the Lateran basilica which was threatening to fall being held up by a poor beggarman who put his back to it. "This is certainly the man," he added. "By his work and teaching, he will uphold Christ's Church." As a result of his vision the pope was filled with reverence for Francis and granted his request unconditionally.'

The glory of God

Jesus calls us continually to prepare, to read His Word and listen to His guidance. The Church, in the physical form, may be seen to belong to the pope, or the diocese or to each cardinal, bishop, parish priest, religious or lay person in charge of their area but ultimately the Church is Christ's Body and Christ's Teachings apply! In a world where we are made to feel outcast or in the wrong for wanting and trying to follow the Gospel Teachings let us remember to be courageous with Jesus and Saint Francis and stand with the Truth! Let us love and serve the Church and all that Jesus taught it to be throughout history with His devoted doctors of the Church and Saints! Let us not heed the lies that have invaded His Church! Even though the lies may come from those in power, higher education or position, remember it was Saint Francis, described as a poor beggarman, that revolutionised the Church in his time because of the love of God he let exude from his very being, into every prayer and action he made, all resulting in the glory of God.

Tuesday 26 March 2024

My children, I, your God, speak to you in these Words and I ask you: are you going to be obedient to My Law, My Truth, or, the liars who have invaded My Church?

I tell you the Truth that there are many cardinals, bishops, priests, sisters and brothers, who are walking the path to hell and are taking those who listen to them, with them. Be Warned! You cannot listen to a leader who only leads his people to darkness.

I hear so many say that you must be obedient to Pope, cardinal, bishop, priest; this is true, if they speak My Truth, but, all I hear are the lies that spew from the mouths of those who lead My Church, those who speak the Truth are being silenced by the liars.

Remember, children, I was Crucified for rejecting the liars who led My Father's Church. They, too, spewed lies and were the servants of lucifer and, so, sought My Death, they crucified Me.

Look at the Truth, children, and decide who you are going to follow, Me and My True Church, or, those who say they are the law in My Church but only walk the path to hell. I am the Law: follow Me and Eternal Life will be yours. Trust Me. I Love you.

Disrespect for Jesus

I am left unwanted within My Own House

More and more recently I have seen the terrible disrespect for Jesus within His Churches and, indeed, many times have become a part of it. I came across a Message recently where Jesus was pointing out the disrespect we have for Him. He said:

“...Where is your respect for Me? Do you not ignore Me? Do you not parade yourselves in your splendour, while I am left unwanted within My Own House? Look, children, where has the silence gone?

Listen, hear the many conversations that go on before, during and after the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. There is no time to be with Me. Look, children, even if one tries to spend time with Me, their thoughts are taken with all the noise around them and I am left alone once again..." Sunday 5 December 1999

And again:

"...Look within the walls of My Church. Do you see respect? The greatest majority of My children sit in conversation with each other before, during, and after Mass. It is like a market place. Where is the silence and respect and the kneeling before your King? I am forgotten within the walls of My own House..." Friday 20 September 2002

A symptom of our times

I believe this noise is a symptom of what is inside us and the general lack of belief that is within our hearts. I say we, because even the very best of us can become involved in conversation in the Church. It is a symptom of our times, a symptom of unbelief.

On Thursday 19 May 2011, during one of his conversations with Jesus, Patrick said:

"...I can remember when you went into a church it was a totally silent place, a place of awe and respect but now, when you go into a church, people talk before Mass, during Mass and after Mass. When I was a child you would have got a thick ear for talking in the church. The respect for Jesus is gone within His own House..." In truth, if we really fully believed that Jesus was Present in that Church, lovingly waiting in His prison Tabernacle, would we talk? Would we carry on our conversations? Why do our hearts not desire to be quiet with Him and Him alone before, during and after the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass?

Silence and solitude

A Church should be a silent place, a place where we can find God. Jesus speaks so much through the Messages about silence and how beneficial it is to the soul.

On Sunday 9 July 2006, Jesus said: "...This is dying to self; this is the way of solitude. As you sit now in this quiet room, My servant, and you experience this quietness, you only realise a small part of it. Silence and solitude bring you close to Me in a way that few have known. Silence and solitude are a way to Me in themselves; they bring light and beauty to the soul, they bring the soul away from the body to experience the Ways of the Spirit, the ways of contemplation..."

Jesus also speaks of how, through silence, we can build a place in our hearts, only for Him.

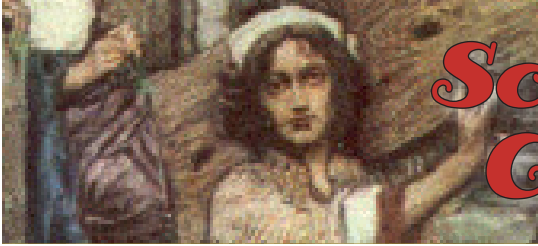

"...Soak yourselves in silence, steep yourselves within Me. Be a silent vessel wherein I can reside. Build Me a Hermitage of Love within your soul, wherein I can Love you; where you can see the ways to die to self..." Wednesday 30 July 2003

Let our silence speak volumes

The way of silence is indeed very desirable for those of us who want a personal relationship with Jesus. It is worth fighting for. Only in the doing of it can we realise the spiritual benefits.

Next time we are partaking of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, let us remember Jesus' Words. Let our silence speak volumes to those around us who have forgotten or never been taught. And remember, through much perseverance in the silent loving of Him, through the noise around us, much can be gained.

Song of the Carpenter

The following is a serialisation of the 'Song of the Carpenter,' a novel inspired by Jesus and written down by the two Patricks. It is about the Life of Jesus and is full of spiritual teachings as well as a simply fantastic read.

If you cannot wait to read it all, then you can order it from the Sacred Heart House of Prayer. It costs £6.99.

They would not remember the Temple that he had given them. Caesarea was beautiful the way he had designed it in honour of Caesar and of course to curry his favour. His architecture would be forgotten or at least not recognised. How could he convince them that a king needed to be cruel in order to better serve his people? 'I am sure I could come up with some little plan to help them to mourn me'. Herod laughed and his laugh echoed around the chamber. All who heard it wondered what he was planning now.

The days rolled into weeks and the weeks in turn rolled into months. Mary and Joseph continued to live in their exile in Egypt, always waiting for Gabriel's promise that he would return to tell them that it was safe to go to Israel again; this they wanted more than anything; they longed for that day. But they knew that God was watching over them for they had many proofs of his love. They were sitting outside in the evening coolness in the shade of the Myrtle tree. Jesus was asleep on Mary's lap. The sun had burned its fiery path to the west of the world, burnishing it with the red gold of sunset. Its wake was like a path, a burning trail in many long streaks, as though to tell where it had come from and where it was going. They were discussing the events of the day and were enjoying the rest after the days work.

"Will our house still be in Nazareth, Joseph?" Mary asked.

"I hope so, my love. I asked the Rabbi to watch over it while we went to Bethlehem for the census, although that's two years ago now. Anyway he may have rented it out for its upkeep. I think that someone actually living in it will go better for it than it being empty. I am sure he does not know what to think."

"And my mother too. She surely must have heard what happened in Bethlehem after we left." Mary shuddered remembering what the people had told them when they went to Jerusalem for her purification. "If she realises why it was done then she might add things up wrongly and presume we are dead. All those innocent children, Joseph, I shudder to think what might have happened had you not listened to Gabriel's warning." A tear fell silently down her face. She was praying in her heart again for all those who had to suffer on their account. She had prayed every day for them since she had been to Jerusalem. She looked down at Jesus and a love welled up inside her. She kissed his sleeping face.

Joseph said, "Yes, so innocent. What could Herod have against poor innocent little ones? By the way, when I went to see Absalom today he told me that his friend, Ishmael, the merchant had come to see him for he had been selling and buying in Memphis. The rumour is that Herod is dying. They say that he cannot last much longer. He pretends not to be ill but every one can see it. Mary, it may be that soon we can go home." "Oh that is good news, Joseph, but I will continue to pray for him that he may yet see the light of God before he dies."

"He is a cruel man, Mary, and his exploits are known far and wide but you are right. We must pray for him to God to ask for his mercy. The Lord our God is merciful to those who ask. We will ask for Herod."

"Think, Joseph, of the life that we have here and all that has happened to us, if we did not have God with us we could never have done it alone. Many people believe that they must do what they must alone and they do not know the benefits of God close. If we do what God wants us to do; if we obey his commandments and the promptings within our souls, then we cannot go wrong. It is he and he alone that must guide our lives. But we must lose the stubbornness of holding on to things that do not matter. I am convinced, more and more every day, that we must be prepared to give up at a moments notice everything that would hinder God in his work. Our own people Israel; look at how they disobeyed God for forty years in the desert. I wonder what would have happened if they had obeyed. Would they have reached the Land of Canaan sooner? I think when we obey God then things happen sooner."

Joseph looked at his wife, "Yes, my love. I have always believed that obedience to Yahweh is the way to live life. He has done marvellous things for us. I admit that sometimes it is not easy but when we put away our own will then it becomes easier somehow. Before I had the dream where Gabriel told me that it was alright to take you for my wife, I was stubborn in my pride and I thought that my life had been ruined but since I have accepted God's plan then I am happy, more so than I could ever have believed possible."

Mary smiled at Joseph; her heart was overflowing with both sadness and with joy. The sadness of the innocent children of Bethlehem still lingered within her heart and the joy of the life that they had together. It was not an easy life being exiled from those that you loved and the land you were born in but it was worth it knowing that God's hand was touching you and holding you up.

"Look at the sun, Joseph. Is it not a beautiful sight?"

Joseph turned to look. The sun was a great fireball that was just about halfway below the horizon. It looked as though it had burned itself out. Its orange body could be looked at and it seemed to cast long fingers of light as if in defiance to the shadows that followed it. They watched it until it set. They knew that God had placed the sun in the heavens to give them light and he and he alone would bring it back tomorrow. He would give them light to see their way. But now the dark had come and there was rest to be had. God had created the darkness so that we might rest in it to be refreshed enough to work and toil for our daily bread. God is good.

A glimpse of Jesus' Plans

Work at Saint Michael's

Another month has passed by and the work at Saint Michael's has continued in great strides through the sheer hard work of all the builders involved and all the spiritual backup through prayers. The extension roof has been tiled completely and velux windows have been installed.

The steel beams were put in with a lot of effort and many prayers from us Habit members as we saw the difficulties and struggle in this part of the work with six men all working to lift the steel beams into the correct position. The original kitchen wall was then knocked down and a large open-plan area has now emerged for the new kitchen and sitting area. The walls of the new extension are now plastered, ready for skimming.

The electrician has prepared and wired up the whole room for sockets and light fittings. A stud wall has been created at the back of this room and we have a room for storage on one side and a room on the other side where the bathroom will be.

Little sacrifices to offer

Outside, at the back of the garden area, a large tree has been removed. The shed has been demolished and the back wall was taken down. This wall has now been rebuilt and rendered ready for painting. The rest of the garden space has been prepared for patio tiles to be put down. New fence panels have been bought and are almost ready to be installed on either side.

There has been a lot of dust to contend with and as the boiler is now disconnected ready to be moved, we have plenty of little sacrifices to offer for Jesus' Work to continue. We have adapted well to all the changes and even with the drilling noise at times we have found a quieter area to say the prayers when it is too noisy in the Prayer Room.

Jesus is working at full pace

It is wonderful to watch the transformation of Saint Michael's and see a glimpse of Jesus' Plans coming to fruition. It seems Jesus is working at full pace to make sure all His Houses are ready. Please continue to keep Saint Michael's, the workers and all Jesus' Houses that need completing in your prayers.

We are excited to see what Jesus will do next and hope we can please Him with the little efforts we can offer Him.

God Bless you!

When you say to your brother or sister, "God Bless you," I take these words as truth and I place a Blessing, a Grace, upon that person to guide them away from harm. So, understand that you may be responsible for saving countless souls by your little prayer of love; "God Bless you" for it has guided them away from the danger of sin.

Now you see the importance of prayer, children, if a simple little prayer such as this can save a soul from being lost to the fires of hell then what will My Mother's Rosary or the Sacrifice of the Mass said for someone do?

Trust in Me, children, and become My spiritual weapons, My soldiers of Love.

Trust in Me and We, together, will begin to force the tide of darkness back from My people. Saturday 5 December 2015

The Plight of Others

VICTIMS OF THE TRANS MOVEMENT

Infiltrated

'Trans' ideology has infiltrated into most of the world with the exception of a few countries, helped along by modern technology to such an extent that the Roman Catholic Church herself now freely promotes it.

On Monday 22 January 2024, Jesus said:

"...The two greatest sins that call the wrath of your God down upon you are abortion and the act of homosexuality for both go against creation and are about the destruction of life..." Monday 22 January 2024

The following month, He spoke again on Friday 23 February 2024. He said:

"...Wake up, children, and see the Truth. Sin is still sin; it cannot be promoted as Truth and it cannot be blessed. All I see that comes from the halls of My Church, is a promotion of sin; the acceptance of abortion and the sin of homosexuality. These are the two greatest sins of this generation and are being accepted by those in power within My Church..." Friday 23 February 2024

The history of homosexuality

Many of us are aware of the history of abortion within society, however not so many are aware of the history of homosexuality within our modern society. This ideology took root in America, rapidly spreading into every state. It began with two academics: Alfred Kinsey and John Money. Kinsey was a trained biologist. He was a sex researcher, a social reformer whose aim was to rid society of its Christian values – with all the 'restrictions' he believed that Christianity imposed. Kinsey promoted the theory that we are all sexual creatures from cradle to grave. He wrote many articles to support his theories and in the name of 'science' he experimented on children – even babies of a few months old. He based his fraudulent 'conclusions' on data that he often collected from convicted sex offenders and child molesters, performing horrific experiments which he concealed – because they were both illegal and immoral.

Kinsey

Kinsey for many, was hailed as a genius, a trailblazer and indeed the founder of the sexual revolution. The research that he pioneered continues today at the Kinsey Institute at Indiana University. Although he was deluded, his ideology took root throughout American academia. Monuments were erected in his honour, students were indoctrinated with a new gospel – according to Dr. Kinsey. In 2004, he even had a film made about his life which starred Laim Neeson.

Dr. John Money

In essence, he indeed blazed the trail for the gender ideology that followed. The second trail blazer was Dr. John Money who earned his PHD as a psychologist at Harvard University. He studied “sexual identity and psychology of gender.” In 1966, Dr. Money opened the world’s first “Gender Identity Clinic” in Baltimore. This doctor began to experiment on intersex babies (i.e.: children born with undefined reproductive organs.) Dr. Money took it upon himself to ‘assign’ a sex to each of these babies, declaring that they would all have to be assigned a sex before the age of two and a half, so that the necessary operations were done on the children removing the unnecessary ‘excess’ while constructing whatever he deemed as relevant. He made no attempt to ascertain the correct sex to the children, stating that he could turn boy into girl and girl into boy and that they could be socialised as such with no ill effects, that gender is a social construct.

These children were used as lab rats. While Dr Money was given much acclaim by academia, media, governments and he published many papers, spoke at conferences to scientists and students everywhere declaring “nurture over nature.” In essence, this doctor played “God” with families throughout America.

Bruce and Brian

Meanwhile, in Canada a very young married couple named Reimer had just become the proud parents of identical twin boys whom they named Bruce and Brian. When the boys were eight months old, due to an often self resolving medical condition called ‘Phimosis’, doctors decided that they should be circumcised and so the twins were taken to a hospital in Canada for the operation to proceed.

Unusually, it was decided to use an electronic device for this and so the device was set up, while Bruce was placed on the table and prepared. Unfortunately the equipment was set up incorrectly and malfunctioned, resulting in baby Bruce being burned beyond repair – his penis was completely destroyed. The young couple were completely traumatised. They took the other boy home – without any procedure.

“The perfect solution”

Over the next four months they tried everywhere to obtain help for Bruce but to no avail. They were told that nothing could be done for their baby boy. Eventually, they were introduced to Dr. Money, who of course offered them “the perfect solution.” He would transition Bruce into a girl. They were instructed never to tell Bruce that he had been born a boy. To the distraught parents, this seemed like the only solution. On interview years later they said that for them at that time, Dr. Money was almost god-like convincing them that he was competent to make the change. Of course it was the perfect opportunity for this unscrupulous doctor – who wasted no time on transitioning baby Bruce into baby Brenda.

Deception

The decision meant a whole series of deception, by the doctors, the parents and other authorities, deceiving Bruce, his brother Brian, their teachers, neighbours etc. Moreover, Dr. Money received much acclaim, he gave lectures, published writings, attended interviews on TV expounding his theory “nurture over nature.” He did keep the family involved anonymously claiming it was necessary for a success. His ‘nurture over nature’ became the catalyst for the ‘trans’ movement. Meanwhile, Bruce (now Brenda), had a miserable childhood because, by nature, he wanted to do all the ‘things’ that boys wanted, he was always playing with his brother’s boy toys and never wanted to wear the dresses bought for him. Both Bruce and Brian were unhappy at school for different reasons. Both boys knew that there was something wrong but they didn’t know what, despite the parents best efforts to socialise them in the deception.

Furthermore, it was revealed that on their annual visits to Dr. Money’s clinic, he had been forcing the boys to sexually experiment with each other.

Never retracted his theory

Eventually, the parents were persuaded by a professional to tell the boys the truth, which they did. This resulted in Brenda (Bruce) transitioning back into a boy. This time he choose to call himself David because he had read the story of David and Goliath, he saw himself as David and Goliath was the massive deception perpetrated upon him his whole life.

Moreover, his brother Brian also had suffered terribly, having been told that his identical twin was his sister, who became again his brother, not to mention all the other abuse that he had suffered as a child. Brian died from an overdose of drugs, he indeed had a very sad ending to a sad life. After the death of his brother, David (Bruce) got into his car, drove to a very secluded spot and proceeded to blow his brains out with a sawn off shotgun. As for Dr. Money, he never retracted his theory – which is still being taught by educators worldwide today. Indeed, it is the basis for the ‘trans’ movement of today. He continued to promote and deceive with his Godless theories even after the death of the twins.

Pray and sacrifice

David Reimer’s last words in a television interview were these: “I’ve lived through it!! Is it going to take somebody killing themselves, shooting themselves in the head for people to listen?”

In conclusion, we should pray and sacrifice for the souls involved in the trans movement, past and present, because that is the love that Jesus requires of us.

On Monday 29 January 2024, Jesus said this:

“...Remember, I Died for every person on this earth, no matter what they have done. I Died for My enemies; this is the way of Love. Love does not pick and choose who to Love. Love simply Loves all, equally...” Monday 29 January 2024

Wisdom

John Paul II

APOSTOLIC LETTER: NOVO MILLENNIO INEUNTE
Of his Holiness Pope John Paul II to the bishops, clergy and lay faithful at the close of the Great Jubilee of the year 2000

Holiness

30. First of all, I have no hesitation in saying that all pastoral initiatives must be set in relation to holiness. Was this not the ultimate meaning of the Jubilee indulgence, as a special grace offered by Christ so that the life of every baptized person could be purified and deeply renewed?

It is my hope that, among those who have taken part in the Jubilee, many will have benefited from this grace, in full awareness of its demands. Once the Jubilee is over, we resume our normal path, but knowing that stressing holiness remains more than ever an urgent pastoral task.

It is necessary therefore to rediscover the full practical significance of Chapter 5 of the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium, dedicated to the "universal call to holiness". The Council Fathers laid such stress on this point, not just to embellish ecclesiology with a kind of spiritual veneer, but to make the call to holiness an intrinsic and essential aspect of their teaching on the Church. The rediscovery of the Church as "mystery", or as a people "gathered together by the unity of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit", was bound to bring with it a rediscovery of the Church's "holiness", understood in the basic sense of belonging to him who is in essence the Holy One, the "thrice Holy" (cf. Is 6:3). To profess the Church as holy means to point to her as the Bride of Christ, for whom he gave himself precisely in order to make her holy (cf. Eph 5:25-26). This as it were objective gift of holiness is offered to all the baptized.

But the gift in turn becomes a task, which must shape the whole of Christian life: "This is the will of God, your sanctification" (1 Th 4:3). It is a duty which concerns not only certain Christians: "All the Christian faithful, of whatever state or rank, are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity".

31. At first glance, it might seem almost impractical to recall this elementary truth as the foundation of the pastoral planning in which we are involved at the start of the new millennium. Can holiness ever be "planned"? What might the word "holiness" mean in the context of a pastoral plan?

In fact, to place pastoral planning under the heading of holiness is a choice filled with consequences. It implies the conviction that, since Baptism is a true entry into the holiness of God through incorporation into Christ and the indwelling of his Spirit, it would be a contradiction to settle for a life of mediocrity, marked by a minimalist ethic and a shallow religiosity. To ask catechumens: "Do you wish to receive Baptism?" means at the same time to ask them: "Do you wish to become holy?" It means to set before them the radical nature of the Sermon on the Mount: "Be perfect as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Mt 5:48).

As the Council itself explained, this ideal of perfection must not be misunderstood as if it involved some kind of extraordinary existence, possible only for a few "uncommon heroes" of holiness.

The ways of holiness are many, according to the vocation of each individual. I thank the Lord that in these years he has enabled me to beatify and canonize a large number of Christians, and among them many lay people who attained holiness in the most ordinary circumstances of life. The time has come to re-propose wholeheartedly to everyone this high standard of ordinary Christian living: the whole life of the Christian community and of Christian families must lead in this direction. It is also clear however that the paths to holiness are personal and call for a genuine "training in holiness", adapted to people's needs. This training must integrate the resources offered to everyone with both the traditional forms of individual and group assistance, as well as the more recent forms of support offered in associations and movements recognized by the Church.

Letters to the HoP

Our Lord's Messages

Dear member House of Prayer,
Thank you for books about our Lord's Messages. You are wonderful people for doing such great work. May the good Lord reward and Bless you always. Thank you for including me in your prayers...

God Bless you all,
Mary.

I hear the urgency in Jesus' Voice

Dear all servants of the House, it was good to hear about the needs of the Houses in Europe which Jesus requested long ago, even though, sad to realise, that they are needing so much work done and especially the roofs.

Because I stayed as a volunteer at the Houses in France, Poland, Belgium and Slovenia some time ago, I can visualise all of them and remember the work that was going on then on the roof in Poland. Clearly, these are all vital projects which cost a lot and, although as a pensioner, I can donate very little, I pray that the necessary money will come from those who can provide it.

I hear the urgency in Jesus' Voice every time He talks about His Houses. Perhaps one day I will be able to go again to help man one of these Houses; it was always interesting and a great learning experience and very good to meet some of the people who lived nearby. I hope to join you all in June, meanwhile thanks for the extra Oils you sent. Jesus has given several more healings with them.

With love,
Paddy
