

JOHN PAUL II,
WE LOVE
YOU!!

This month's Newsletter

EDITORIAL NOTICES

Thank you

We want to thank you so much for all your prayers and donations towards the new John Paul the Second Youth House. Amazingly, all the money required to purchase this new House came in! Praise You, Jesus! We hope to publish a photo of this House next month and tell you more about it.

Pope John Paul

As you will read in this Newsletter, we have looked at the life of Pope John Paul, whom this new House is named after. He did so much work for the young people. In his early years as a priest, he formed a little prayer group who helped the blind and the sick. He took groups of young people to the lakes and mountains in Poland where they joined him for Mass as well as having fun kayaking and hiking.

Example

When he was Pope he established things for young people like World Youth Day. I can't think of a better person for the patron of this House, nor of a better example of someone leading young people to Jesus!

Continue

I really think Jesus wants us to continue to bring to the world John Paul's love for young people, to offer them a chance to know Jesus, to show them that He is Love and Someone worth finding out more about! "...My young people know Me little; they have been neglected by My Church, they have been left to run wild. I intend to show them, through this House, that I am Alive and that I Love them. ...This House will be where My young shall know My Love. I ask that a few, simple prayers be said with them before and after their activities there. ...I wish My young to know Me as a God of Love..." Wednesday 7 December 2011

Our Guiding Light

We live in very perilous times but Jesus promised us that He would not leave us orphans. That is why He helps us by giving us Warnings to guide us in the darkness of this world. He is our guiding Light and our sure hope if we cling to Him.

Path of Truth

In the Messages this month He talks about walking the Path of Truth, to die to the sin within us so that we can be reborn in Him.

Our anchor that we have been using to fight the sin within us helps us to walk the Path that Jesus talks about.

Crucifixes on our doors

Just as it was in the days of old, so shall it be today. God asked the people of Israel to put the blood of the lamb upon their doors and porches so that the Angels would see it and the Wrath of God would pass over their houses.

Jesus asked us to put Crucifixes upon our doors and burn Blessed candles in 1995 and He has now inspired the Patricks to republish these Messages.

Gendercide

Gendercide is the practice of killing a baby if you don't like its sex. This practice occurs regularly in third world countries like India and China but it has been discovered to be happening here in Britain also. This practice seems to be growing rapidly.

The Messages of Love

We asked Jesus about the situation of the new House He wants in Belmullet and this is what He said:

Sunday 12 February 2012

Patrick:

Jesus, I love You. We find ourselves in this situation again. In less than three weeks, we will go to sign for Your House for the young people that You have asked for. Will You help us, Jesus?

Jesus:

My children, I Love you. I give you My Heart. I call to you, My little ones, to help Me at this time. I call you to help Me. Time moves on like a soldier, ever marching. Time moves and soon, you will see My Words come to fruition. I call you to help in this time before they make abortion legal in your country (Ireland). I wish to save My little ones: I wish to give them My Words so that they will know Me. They run around this world thinking that I do not exist. Changes are afoot that will throw them further into confusion; further away from Me. Help Me.

Friday 3 February 2012

I Love you, My children, I, your God, Love you and I give you these Words through My Love. They are your guide, your Warning for the times to come. I do not leave you orphans: I send My Prophets into the world to tell you the Truth of what is about to take place as I did of old. I am Warning this world to turn away from its evil ways and return to Me for I cannot allow My creation to be polluted in the way that it is.

You murder your children within their mother's womb; you murder them without. I can see what is happening, creation, and you are about to overstep the bounds of free will. When this happens I shall release My Army and it shall destroy all that you have created in your selfishness and greed. Look at yourselves! You think that you will live forever. But, I tell you, your lives are so short they are but a heartbeat in time. Turn away from your evil ways and come, follow Me for I will wash you clean in the Blood of My Sacrifice on Calvary. There is little time left to you now, children, your scientists are about to break the Gift that has been given. Once the Gift of free will is shattered, everything that you know and understand will change upon this earth for I will not allow science - that is but a child<sup>1</sup> - to destroy all that I have created in Love. Science is ruled by satan and it is he that pushes you along the path of destruction. You blind and foolish children! Do you not realise what you are doing?

Be Warned, be Warned, be Warned, your God is watching! Come back to Me, I Love you.

<sup>1</sup> Jesus is saying that they have the knowledge of a child.

Come, My little children, let

AN INVITATION TO LOVE JESUS NEWSLETTER
MESSAGES OF LOVE FEBRUARY 2012 ISSUE 190

Me Teach you the Truth. Let Me show you the Path that I speak of within My Words.

Allow Me to open your eyes to the Truth.

Allow Me in, My children, allow Me in and I will show you the True Path of Salvation that will lead you into the Kingdom of Our Father.

Do not allow this world to blind you any longer but come walk this Path with Me. I have many splendours to show you.

You walk through this life unseeing, whereas, you could be living your lives to the full in Me. So many things have been lost in these past centuries; things that I gave to My Church but, through the greed of man, they have been lost: these I mean to restore. I gave you My Name so that you could do greater things than I did when I was upon this earth.

What miracles are seen within My Church?

All I see are greedy men and women who refuse to teach My Truth, who refuse to let My people have the freedom of Truth. No longer, children! No longer, will this be allowed! Soon, I shall send My two and you shall see the Truth that has been hidden for so long.

Wake up, creation, for My Army rises and this earth is about to change. satan has been allowed to sift this earth for a hundred years and he has failed to break

My children. he has given this earth the power of wealth and destruction yet, still, My Remnant remains faithful.

Now, I shall show this world through My faithful that I, Jesus, Son of the Living God, am not a dead God but I am Alive in My people and I will show this earth the power that they believe is dead.

Creation belongs to Me for I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Creator.

I am Life Eternal and what I say goes, in all creation.

I, alone, have the Power to create, and, to destroy.

Now, creation, you shall see the Power of your God and you shall beg for mercy for you have followed the ways of lucifer: you have slandered My Church; you have slandered your God and you have slandered My Truth. Your time has ended and your father, the father of lies, shall be cast into the pit for a thousand years. There he shall be chained with those who have followed him.

I say repent, repent of your evil ways now for I give you a 'Time of Repentance:' I give you a 'Time of Truth.' I shall send out My Army and, if you listen, you shall be washed clean in the Blood of the Lamb and you shall live with Me for all eternity and you shall know Love and Peace. But, if you do not listen to My witnesses, you shall be cast into the pit with the father of lies.

Be Warned, My children, I, your God, am about to strike this earth with My Truth and that that you perceive as truth shall shatter before your eyes.

My Commandments are Truth, My Scripture is Truth and all that I have said through My Prophets is Truth. I sent My Mother to Warn you and you have not heeded the Warnings; now, you shall reap what you have sown.

The lie has ended and this earth will know its God.

Thursday 9 February 2012

Come, beloved children of My Heart, and seek My Truth. Do not allow yourselves to be deceived by this world. Do not allow lucifer to control you. I have spoken many Words of Truth to you over these past years through these two Witnesses of Mine. They witness to My Truth through these Words that I give to them. Open your hearts now, My children, and allow these Words to penetrate for there is little time left to you and this you have not recognised. You do not read the signs of your times. You do not see for you look with blinkered eyes. You only see and perceive what you wish to in your blindness.

This world is heading into its own destruction because of the burden of sin.

My children, allow Me to show you the Truth. Allow Me to Teach you the Path that leads to the Kingdom of your Father. I am waiting for you to respond to Me and it is only through dying to self that you will be able to perceive the Truth of these Words of Mine. If you are not willing to die to yourselves then you will walk in blindness and walk freely into the traps of lucifer.

Do not just read these Words but live them in your everyday lives for the day is coming when you will need them in order to find the Path of Truth. lucifer has gathered his army and, yes, children, the one that you call the antichrist walks this earth and is about to strike an incredible blow to My Truth. he shall try to distort all that you know in order to destroy My Church. The battle is about to begin and you are not prepared.

Very few have decided to walk this Path with Me, very few are willing to give of themselves in order that My Truth be delivered to My children.

Come, now, My beloved children, and walk this Path of Truth with Me.

Allow Me to take the scales from your eyes so that you may see.

Allow Me into your souls so that you may become My Hands, My Feet and My Lips.

I need you, My beloved children, I need you in this Army of Love and I am calling out for volunteers who are willing to give of themselves in order that My Truth be spread to the four corners of this earth.

I tell you, My children, My Houses of Prayer are about to ignite and you shall see the Truth that they carry; this world will know, once again, that their God exists. Be prepared, My children, be prepared for My Army rises.

Come now and take on these Words for, I tell you again, there is little time left and you walk in complacency as so many in this world. Read the signs of your times, children, open your eyes and perceive the Truth. Allow Me to penetrate your hearts and open your eyes. I Love you, My beloved children, I Love you.

Tuesday 14 February 2012

Look now and see the Truth of My Ways, My children, for I have given many Words to you and, if you read back over them, they are clear Words, Words of Truth. They are Words that will guide you through the darkness of these times. They are the Words that will renew My Church and breathe New Life into My people.

You, My people, are about to experience marvellous times, when you shall see the Truth reborn and the destruction of all that is unclean. Yes, they will be perilous times for the human body but glorious times for the human soul.

You must begin to look at the importance of the soul, My children, for you waste too much time thinking about the body. It is the desire of the flesh to follow lucifer; it is the desire of the soul to follow Me, children. Look around this world: you can see how many follow the desires of the body. Look at your televisions; satan has put these into your homes in order to cloud your minds with the desires of the body. Look at the programmes you watch; look at the advertisements you watch. You would laugh at someone in one of these programmes who would allow themselves to sit in front of a television screen and be brainwashed, yet, that is exactly what you are doing to yourselves! You are sitting in front of your television screens and allowing lucifer to brainwash you with the desires of greed, sex and lust for all sorts of materials that you do not need.

Look at the Truth, My children, you are foolish, you think you are adults, yet, you cannot see; you are blind and foolish children who are in a great battle that you are losing. Yet, you refuse help for you refuse to see the truth of your situation. Soon, children, and very soon, I shall be forced to step into this battle and end it for lucifer is about to give man the power to destroy all creation and this, I cannot allow.

Wake up, My children, and see what I am saying, your lives are so short. Can you not see this? Can you not see that they are only preparation for your true lives that begin at the death of the flesh?

I am Coming, children. I am Coming soon to claim My own. Pray that you are one of these. I Love you.

Tuesday 14 February 2012

Look and see, My Ways are good, children. They will lead you to Everlasting Life; they will give you joy upon this earth and they will give you the Peace that surpasses all understanding which so very few find in this time. I am the Peace, children, I am the Joy, when you find Me, you will find all things for I am all things to all men.

I am about to change My creation once again as I did in the time of Noah. You shall see new marvels and have new understandings and the things that were will be no more and new things shall be created in their place and this earth shall have peace for a time until the memories of man become clouded with self once again and so, they will begin to forget Me, once again, as you have in your time, as did the people in Noah's time and as they did when I walked this earth.

A new time is coming, children, a new time of joy and love when this earth shall flourish and no evil shall be seen for a time.

Pray much that you are a part of this time for it shall be a time of plenty upon this earth. Pray that you do not be lost in the darkness for it grows every day. The only way to survive its spreading is to repent and turn away from the evil ways of this world and come, follow Me in truth.

Read the Words of My Scripture and allow My Spirit to Teach you of its Ways, its meanings. Do not listen to the scholars, doctors and theologians for they are blind and believe that they must study in the way of the world to understand My Work and so they distort it. They are so blind that they cannot even see the words that are in front of their eyes. They cannot see that I thanked My Father for not revealing the Word to the learned and wise but to mere children.

The scholars believe that they must become learned and wise in order to understand. Yet, I have said that you must become like little children with a simple love, a simple faith, a simple understanding for, My Ways are simple, kind and loving. They are not complicated, they do not need scholars to translate them.

Look at My Apostles, they were but simple men, they were not scholars, they simply believed and, in their humble belief, they understood. This is what you must do, My children, in order to understand the Way of Truth. You must be humble of spirit and humble of body, take control of self and do not allow it to control you any longer.

Read My Scriptures, read My Word and allow Me to speak to you in the silence of your hearts. Allow Me to show you the understanding of Truth for this is the only way My Scripture can be understood. It is the Living Word. It is I, Jesus, the Son of the Living God.

I am the Word: I am what comes from My Father's Mouth. My Spirit is the understanding of Truth for We are One and the same yet, We are Three. This you cannot understand by the thinking of this world. It is only when you enter the spirit world that you shall fully understand this for you shall merge and become One with your God. Yet, you shall be your own person for Love is One, children, Love cannot be separated and, We that Love, think alike, so We are One.

This is why I say, children, I have no hands but your hands, no feet but your feet and no lips but your lips. You must become One with Me so that I can go out into this world and minister to My children through you and you may ask anything in My Name and it shall be granted and this world shall see the Truth of their God. This has been lost in your time because of men's greed for wealth and knowledge.

Look at My early Church: did My Apostles want for anything? They simply asked and it was given. They healed in My Name and raised the dead in My Name and converted thousands to the Way of Truth in My Name.

Yet, in your time, My apostles scatter the flock. They cannot hold them for My children do not recognise My Truth and so are thrown into confusion by those who have said that they will follow Me in truth. When I Come, I will shatter the old and renew all that once was and is no more. You shall hear My Words spoken in truth, from the greatest to the least and from the least to the greatest. The young shall listen to the old and the old shall listen to the young and all shall marvel at the Truth of My Ways.

Come, My beloved children, and listen to My Words. Allow Me to show you the Truth; allow Me to enter the temple of your hearts; allow Me into this world through you for We, together, shall heal the sick and raise the dead and breathe New Life into the downhearted.

The Revolution of Love begins, children. Look to the West for My Prophets arise and My Truth is being breathed forth into this world.

I Love you, My children, I Love you and I am Coming to breathe New Life through those who have given themselves to Me. Feel the joy, feel the excitement of these Words for the Revolution begins. I Love you.

Tuesday 14 February 2012

My children, look and see what I am saying in these Words, do not just read them but study them. Take them into your hearts and live them for I am in need. I am a Beggar on bended Knee in front of you and I am begging you for your heart.

Give Me your heart, My child, so that I may enter and We, together, shall begin the Work of Salvation. We, together, shall bring those that are in darkness into the Light and they, too, shall become workers in My vineyard and so My Army will build rapidly.

Remember, it only takes one spark to begin a forest fire, it only takes one of My children to begin to live My Words and the great Rebellion of Love will begin. I have spoken of this within My Scripture: the Great Battle of the end times is about to begin and I call My "Soldiers of the Light" out of the darkness. My Army will be made up of the broken, the lame, the weak, the downhearted, those who believe that they are nothing in the sight of man.

Hear My War Cry; hear the Name of My Father, the Great I AM: it is for the Love of Him that We do this Work. It is to His Glory that We offer all hardship, all weakness, all strength and all love.

Come, My beloved children, follow in My Footsteps and We, together, shall march forward and no nation shall stand against Us. We shall sweep the darkness aside, the men of power shall fall from their thrones and peace will reign once again upon this earth. Come NOW, come NOW, My beloved, for I am calling out to you for there is little time left. Come hear My Words. I Love you.

Wednesday 15 February 2012

I Love you, My children, and I am calling, ever calling for there is so little time left and so few have answered My call. I am a weary God for I must watch so many of My children entering the gates of hell, never to return to Me. So many travel the path of sin and refuse to look at Me and My Ways. No matter how I inspire them, they ignore Me in favour of the ways of this world. Sin has become their refuge, darkness is their lot for they have listened to the father of lies and will not turn away from him.

So many, so many are being lost to the lies of lucifer. Wake up, My children, and see the truth of this world. See how it deceives you into thinking that there is no such thing as sin in your lives. It advertises sin freely now as an everyday accepted part of life.

Can you not see the great deception?

Can you not see how lucifer leads this world into accepting all sin as a normal part of life?

Look at the Truth, My little ones, before it is too late for so many who once followed Me are now blinded by the ways of lucifer. So many who accepted Me as their God have turned their backs on Me and now walk the path of darkness that leads to eternal death. This is why I am asking you, children, for your help in this Work of Salvation. Your brothers and sisters are dying, they are in great need and My Hands are bound by the Gift of free will that I give to all mankind. This is why I need you to accept Me in free will, children. If you accept me and are willing to die to yourselves to prove your acceptance, then, I can use you.

You are a temple of the Holy Spirit but I cannot enter the temple unless I am invited. If you travel the Path of self dying then you prove to Me that it is your will that I enter, you prove to Me that you are willing to abandon self for My Sake. When I enter your hearts, children, you will know perfect freedom, perfect peace and perfect love and you may ask anything in My Name and it will be given for all that you ask for will be to the Glory of Our Father.

Come, My beloved children, take on this Path of Truth and walk it so that freedom can be once again given to this world. The world has become so darkened by sin that no longer will it accept the Way of Truth easily. I need My followers to go out and show this world that I am Alive, show this world that you wield My Power and that I am not dead. Be My disciples, My apostles of Truth and go out to the four corners of this earth and heal the sick, raise the dead and cast out the unclean spirits. Go forth in My Name and make disciples of all nations for you truly will become My Hands, My Feet and My Lips if you are willing to walk this Path with Me. I Love you.

Thursday 16 February 2012

Come, My beloved children, and see the Truth of the Words that I speak. See what I am saying to you, see the Battle that is before you and do not allow yourselves to be deceived by lucifer. Learn to avoid his traps; learn to see the Truth through Me.

Look, My children, look at the Internet - see what it is: It is a trap of lucifer which is controlled by demons, it is to be avoided for, when you enter it, you are in great danger of falling into sin. For they will try to control you through it, they will try to influence you into things that you normally would not be influenced by. Yes, My children, you can use it for the good but you must be strong and avoid all temptation to look at and read things that will take you away from Me. Use it in My Name but do not abuse it for self's sake.

Look, children, look around you and see: the evil one fills your lives with things that take up your time and draw you away from Me, like the television and the Internet, these have been lucifer's gifts to this world. They fill self full of desires that are not of Me.

Come, My beloved children, begin to see the battle. Begin to fight for Me, begin to control self for, when self is controlled then you will be truly My servant and I shall be able to use you in your free will for the good of others. I say again and again that I have no hands but your hands, no feet but your feet and no lips but your lips; you must become My instrument and the only way that you can do this is by dying to self. You must live in the world but not be of it for, in truth, children, you are of My World; your world is the Kingdom of Our Father. I Love you.

Thursday 16 February 2012

Come to Me often in prayer so that I may fill your hearts with My Truth, so that I may show you the Path of Freedom that I wish you to travel for We are about to enter a time of great freedom, a time of great peace and a time of great joy where all will know love upon this earth, where the lion will lie down with the lamb and no weapon of war shall be needed. But, first, children, we have much Work to do for the harvest is great and the labourers are few. I am the Lord of the Harvest and I call out for the labourers to come to My vineyard for there is little time and much Work to be done. I Love you.

Friday 17 February 2012
Come, My beloved children, walk this Path of Love with Me. This Path leads to Our Father's Kingdom, the Kingdom of your God. Come, My beloved children, I stretch out My Hand to you in these Words, they are a lifeline to the Truth that I have already given to you within My Scriptures. See, they do not add to or take away from what I have already given; they are the Path that leads you back to the Footprints of My Word.

Come, now, My beloved children, and do not wait for there are so many of your brothers and sisters in danger. I need your help in this Work of Salvation. Come, My beloved children, for the harvest is great and there are so few who are willing to help Me and there are so many who are being lost. It is through your sacrifice and prayer that so many can be Saved for I cannot force them to believe but you can gain them many Graces through your giving and so they may see the Truth by your example, My children, they can turn away from the darkness of sin and so be Saved.

Be My Hands, My Feet and My Lips, show My people that you believe by the way that you live your lives. I do not ask you to become self-righteous preachers for this only drives My children further away; no, I ask you to show them that you love them by the way that you live your life.

If someone slaps you on one cheek, give them the other and love them.

If someone hates you and speaks all sorts of calumny against you: love them.

If someone steals from you: love them.

Speak ill of no one as I speak ill of no one. Teach with love, children, teach by example and teach with truth in your hearts. Come, My beloved children, follow Me and show this world that you are a follower of Mine by the way that you live your lives. Be an example of the Truth of your God. Show this world, through what you do, that I am Alive in you. Come, now, children, come now before it is too late. I Love you.

Friday 17 February 2012
Come, come, come, My children, run to Me, do not delay, do not waste time by the futile things of this world. I speak many Words to you for the time shortens rapidly and still few have listened. Come, I say, children, come quickly, run to Me for the evil one prepares to strike a wicked blow to My Church and so many will be lost. When he does, so many will be taken in by his lies and so few will be able to see through them. This is why I prepare you now, children.

I ask you to look at the Truth, to live the Truth so that you may see through the lies of satan. Come now, time is short and still I call. I call and I call for My children to listen to Me. I am your Father and I fear for My children who are in danger of being lost. Do not try to twist My Words that I speak; do not try to say that I would not speak in this way for what father would not cry out for the death of a child? Open your eyes, you blind and foolish generation and see what is happening around you! lucifer stalks your streets, he fills you full of lies and deceit; he blinds you to the Truth; you accept sin into your lives freely.

You are afraid to speak My Name in public; you look upon those who try to follow Me in truth with scorn. Yet, you would say that you are a follower of Mine? You are no different than the scribes and Pharisees that put Me on a Cross to Die at the hands of My enemies.

Do not call yourself a follower of Mine when you do not love. You are hypocrites, black hearted sepulchres who will not enter the Kingdom of your God and try to stop the rest of My children entering also. Your lives are short and, soon, you shall stand before Me and where will your great knowledge be then? Do you think that you will be able to deceive Me?

Look at the Truth. Throw away your knowledge for it stands for nothing except for blinding you to My Truth. I am a God of Truth, I am a God of Love, I am the Creator of All Things and you cannot hide from Me: you cannot lie to Me for I can see your thoughts, I know your feelings, I know all your secrets.

This day I Warn you: if you do not turn away from your evil ways and let My people enter My Kingdom, you will be struck down in My Justice, you shall be cast into the fires of hell and there you shall suffer the torment of what you have sown upon this earth in your lies.

Your pain shall be increased a thousandfold because of those that you have been responsible for deceiving and now are in the same place that you are.

hell is a real place created for the desires of lucifer: it is the opposite to My Kingdom, it is a place of darkness, a place of evil, a place of fire created by the rage of those who live there. Do not deny its existence for you will not be able to deny it, if, in your free will, you decide to go there through your sin.

Wake up, generation, and see the Truth of these Words for I am your God and I am stretching My Hand out to you to give you freedom before the Great and Terrible Day of Justice strikes this earth. You may think, in your wisdom, that it cannot happen, the same as those in the city of Hiroshima did not believe their city would be destroyed as they laid their heads down to sleep the night before. Look and see the Truth: look at the signs of your times. I am close, prepare. I Love you.

Sunday 19 February 2012

Look to the Truth, My children, and do not be afraid to follow in My Footsteps. I am calling each one of you to turn away from this world and its wickedness. Everywhere that you look in this world love is dying.

Never before has man wandered so far away from Me.

Never before has man allowed himself to become so blinded.

My children refuse to look at the Truth, they refuse to see My Ways and, rather, take on the ways of sin. Yes, I speak to YOU, My children. Many of you live in relationships that you call 'your partner.' I call it living in sin; living without your God.

I have given you a Way to live that keeps you safe and that keeps your children safe. When you live outside Marriage, the evil spirits can walk freely in and out of your lives. There is no barrier to stop them for you live in the laws of lucifer and not the Laws of your God. I placed My Laws upon this earth so that you could be safe, so that you could follow Me in truth and the Kingdom of your God would be your Home. When you walk blindly into sin, you will walk into the gates of hell and you shall justify your going there for sin blinds the soul to My Truth and so it becomes darkened, unwilling to turn away from sin.

I Love you, My children, see the truth of this life that you live; see that it is only a time of preparation, a time to decide whether you want to be in My Kingdom or the kingdom of lucifer. You decide this by the way that you live your lives on this earth. It is not by your words for words are freely given and freely taken away but your actions mark the road of truth: this is the road that you follow.

If you walk the Path of Truth, you will obey My Laws.

If you walk the path of darkness, then you will obey the laws of lucifer.

When you accept sin into your lives, you are freely accepting his laws.

When you fight against sin, you are freely accepting My Laws.

This is Truth, children. Many of you say that you follow Me, yet, you are following lucifer and, yes, when you die you will deny Me and blame Me and cast yourself away from Me for, in your blindness, you will not see My Truth for you will have lived a life of deceit.

Come, NOW, children, wake up from your blindness and turn away from sin. Read My Commandments, they are Truth:

1. I am the LORD, your God. You shall worship the Lord, your God, and Him only shall you serve.
  2. You shall not take the Name of the Lord, your God, in vain.
  3. Remember to keep holy the Sabbath Day.
  4. Honour your father and your mother.
  5. You shall not kill.
  6. You shall not commit adultery.
  7. You shall not steal.
  8. You shall not bear false witness against your neighbour.
  9. You shall not covet your neighbour's wife.
  10. You shall not covet your neighbour's goods.
- They are what I have given you in order that you not be blinded. You must fight against the desires of self for the desires of self will lead you on the wrong path and so into the kingdom of darkness.

I am the Truth, I am the Way, I am the Life and whatever I give is Light and it is Love. Prepare yourselves, My children, for My Kingdom - for the Kingdom of your Father. This is when your lives truly begin. When you enter My Kingdom you will see all in Truth and you shall understand the meaning of this life that you live. It is My Gift to you, it is the Gift of free will.

lucifer rebelled against Me and so was cast into the fires of hell. So, when I created you, mankind, I created you in love and would not bring you into My Kingdom without you making your own decision whether you wanted to be in My Kingdom or not. This is the Gift of free will that I give to you. You decide by your actions upon this earth where you wish to live.

Come, My beloved children, see the Truth and walk with Me for we have much Work to do in order to Save many of those who live in darkness. Come, My beloved, I call out to you in these Words for your help. I Love you. Prepare!

Sunday 19 February 2012

Come, now, children and see what I say in these Words. See how I guide you along the Path of Truth, the Path of self dying. In order to become a true servant of Love, you must die to self, you must die to the ways of this world. When the scales begin to fall from your eyes, you will begin to see My Truth, you will begin to see My Ways, you will begin to see My Laws and so you shall become My Hands, My Feet and My Lips and, We, together, shall walk into the darkness of this world and rip those that have been blinded by the lies of lucifer into the Light. For, I mean to give My children freedom, I mean to show My children the Truth. For one hundred years, lucifer has sifted mankind; for one hundred years, lucifer has been allowed to blind and distort My Truth but, NOW, children, it is ended and the Great Battle will begin.

Mankind, can you not see? The more that you are sifted, the stronger you become? But, so many who have entered My service have fallen to the lies of lucifer and so the enemy has infiltrated My Church and lead My people on the wrong path from within.

I am calling out to you to see the Words of Truth and renounce self. Come away from the lies of lucifer and come, follow Me. I Love you, My people, and I have told you I will not leave you orphans. So many who have lived and died upon this earth have not had a chance to live their lives in freedom, they have been unfairly blinded by the lies of those who walk within My Church. These I have taken to Myself for I judge in truth and no one will enter the gates of hell through trickery. I am calling out to you, My children, to free those who have been blinded and allow them to live freely upon this earth. Yes, I am calling to YOU to become a Soldier of the Light, a Soldier of Love, a Soldier of Truth.

Come, My beloved, listen to My calls and come, walk with Me for We have much Work to do and such little time to do it. I Love you. Prepare! I am Coming. I Love you.

Monday
20 February 2012

Come, look at Me, My children. Look at My Love for you. See how I give all of Myself so that you could have Eternal Life with Me in My Father's Kingdom. Come, do not turn away from Me; do not give up the true battle for Eternal Life. This world will tell you that I do not exist but, look, children, I am here; I am talking to you now as you read these Words; feel Me within your hearts, My Truth as it gushes forth giving New Life.

Come, do not reject Me for I have many Words to speak to you in the depths of your heart. I am calling to you, My child, through these Words so that you may have Eternal Life with Me in My Father's Kingdom. Come, beloved child of My Heart, and listen to My calls. I Love you.

Monday

Love is My Path, My children, Love is what I give you and Love is what I guide you with. Come, My beloved children, walk this Path with Me. Let this world see that you believe in Me and in My Truth. Walk in My Footsteps and We, together, shall breathe New Life into this world of darkness and mankind shall be renewed and the darkness of self shall be overcome. I do not take you upon a new Path but I simply bring you on the Path that I have already shown you. Yet, you have allowed yourselves to become blinded to its Truth.

Come now, My beloved children, and walk with Me. I call out to all My priests, nuns, brothers and laity alike: walk this Path with Me, walk this Path of Truth so that this world may see that I am Alive in you. Come, now, I await your response to Me. I Love you.

Wednesday
22 February 2012

Look to the Truth, My children, and see what I am telling you. Open your eyes and look around this world; read the signs of your times and come follow Me for I am calling out to you in these Words to take you away from the dangers of this world. I am calling out to all My children to see the Truth, to see My Ways, to see what is happening in this world, to see the danger that you are in.

So very few listen to Me, so very few care about their brothers and sisters, so very few are satisfied with their lives, so are drawn into the greed of this world and away from Me.

Come, My beloved children, take on these Words of Truth; take on these Words of Love and come follow Me out of the darkness and into the Light.

There you shall find Peace, there you shall find Love, there you shall find Truth, no more to be tortured by the uncertainty of what lies before you for you will find My Peace, My Love and My Joy.

When you begin to trust in your God, you will not worry what tomorrow may bring, you will simply have confidence that I will guide you on the right path. Look for Me in your hearts, children, for there I am to be found.

Sit with Me: sit with Me in silence. Feel Me: feel Me within your hearts.

I am like a gentle breeze there, calling to you to come follow Me.

I am the Way, the Truth and the Life and anyone who comes to Me shall have Eternal Life with Me in the Kingdom of Our Father.

I Love you, I Love you,

I Love you, My children. Come, I await your response to My call. I Love you.

Do not worry but allow Me to Teach you in this time; allow Me to show you the Path of Truth that lies before you; allow Me to make you strong. Go and do the things that I have asked of you and We, together, shall bind together a seal that will never be broken. Come, My beloved, I await your response to Me. I Love you.

Saturday
25 February 2012

Come, children of My Heart, and run to My calls. There is so little time left and so much work to be done and so few who are willing to help. Come, My beloved children, wake up NOW and see the Truth: see how your lives are being controlled by the lies of lucifer. See how your governments rage against one another in the lust for power.

Can you not see that the evil one pushes this earth ever closer to war because of the greed of mankind? Mankind, you have accepted the lies of lucifer and so, in free will, have given him the power to destroy this world.

But this I will not allow. I have promised man that I would look after him and this I will do but, first, I shall bring a great punishment upon this earth so that you can see and understand the error of your ways. You can say that I am a cruel God but look what you are doing: you are murdering your children within the womb. Is this not the cruellest of things that one can do?

You look upon the flesh, children, but I look upon the soul. I would destroy this earth to save one soul but this I will not do, rather, I shall chastise mankind so that he may see the Truth and come away from his evil ways and come follow Me for I am Meek and Humble of Heart. I do not see differences; all My children are equal in My sight.

But, first, We must take those who are in danger to safety - not in danger of the body, children, but in danger of losing their souls to the eternal fires of hell. I need you: I need your hands, your feet and your lips. I need you to become a temple of the Holy Spirit, a place where I may dwell and minister to My children through you.

Come, My beloved children, listen to Me; hear My calls; hear them as they become ever more urgent. There is so little time. Look back and see how many Warnings both I and My Mother have given. Look at how We have been ignored by mankind, dismissed by you and laughed at. Yet, My Love for you Burns ever brighter. I will not reject My children; I will not desert My children for My Love for you is eternal. Come, now, little ones. I Love you.

Patrick:

It is a while since I spoke of the Way of Truth. This is because I have been fighting with myself and my desires. I am coming to understand that I, and everyone else, have never truly been taught about what we should be doing on this earth. It is sad that those who are meant to be our teachers are as blind as we are. Yet, they cannot see that they are blind.

The soul is placed into the human body by God but the human body is tainted by the sin of Adam and so the human body desires much that it does not need. This is where free will comes into being. We, the soul, can fight against the desires of the body and follow in the Footsteps of our Master, Jesus, or we can give in to the desires of the flesh which are greed, lust, arrogance, anger, etc, etc, the list goes on and on. If we walk this path, we will end up in hell for it is a path of blindness and self-indulgence, a path of sin and darkness.

This is what Jesus is showing us in these Messages. He is Teaching us how to fight against self for, as no one is willing to see the Truth, the Master, Himself, must come and show us, once again, how to walk in His Footsteps.

The Way of Jesus is love and humility and self sacrifice. We must be unwilling to become great in the eyes of men. We must be unwilling to hurt others in order to get on in this world. The further that we walk this Path with Jesus, the more we begin to understand the Way of Truth. That it truly does not matter what others think of us; the only thing that truly matters is that God can see us in His Light, meaning that we are trying to die to self in order to follow Him and that we are not willing to walk in the darkness that self brings about.

The anchor is the first step onto the Path, it is the first denial of self. I can see how self cries, kicks and screams like a child in order that we give in. And, I also can see the deceit and twistedness of self. I do not eat after six as Jesus has asked of me but, over the months, I began to see that self was changing this into, rather than fasting, it was dieting to lose weight.

We have to be careful on this Journey, we have to be ever vigilant and be aware that self is our enemy, it is the part that accepts sin freely, it is the part that listens to the inspirations of lucifer and so into darkness. This may sound strange to many but, I have seen it for myself over these past months.

Self is always wanting but can never be satisfied. No matter what self obtains it will always be looking for more. I can understand what Jesus meant when He said that the scales will begin to fall from our eyes. By no means has the scales fell from my eyes but, I am beginning to see a little light. There are cracks appearing in the shell of self. I begin to see how we judge one another, both inwardly and outwardly; how we gossip about one another yet, we deny it to ourselves. We are always trying to get one over on another person but we are blind to these things because of the blindness that self brings about.

I thought I trusted Jesus but I can see now that I do not. I say "Jesus, I trust in You" but these are only words and are easy to say. It is through our actions that we trust in and follow Jesus, not through lip service. We must prove to Him that we believe in Him and His Ways and not in the ways of this world.

It is easy to go to Mass on a Sunday and tell Jesus that we love Him. It is more difficult to be humble in the sight of our God and others: if someone slaps us on one cheek, to turn the other, to love our enemies, to do good to those who persecute us and if someone steals our car to give them the money for the fuel: this is humility.

This sounds stupid in the ways of the world, what Jesus is asking of us but, nothing matters in this world but our God. And, as He said, He will look after us:

26 Behold the birds of the air for they neither sow, nor do they reap, nor gather into barns: and your Heavenly Father feedeth them. Are not you of much more value than they? Matthew 6:26 Douay-Rheims

This is the Truth: this is the way of self dying, these are the Footsteps of Jesus that in His own Words He said:

24 If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. Matthew 16:24, Douay-Rheims

Jesus, when He lived upon this earth, He gave everything up for the Love of His Father and became a wandering preacher who was willing to go as far as to give His Life on the Cross of Execution so that His children could have the freedom of the Kingdom of Our Father.

So, as you see, to give up a car to a thief is nothing in the sight of God. Love one another is Jesus' Command to all of us. There are no exceptions to this rule. Enemy, neighbour, stranger, family, friends, no matter what they have done or what they have said against us, if we are to be true followers of Jesus, we must forgive them and love them in the humility of our Jesus.

An example with the young

On Wednesday 13 April 2005, Jesus said: "...Your Holy Father (Pope John Paul II) set you an example with the young. Build Houses for them so that they may not lose the Truth in this dark world..."

Now we have the exciting prospect of the new John Paul the Second Youth House in Belmullet, Co. Mayo, Ireland!!

Taking a little glance at the life of John Paul, I can't think of a better person for the job as patron!!

The more I read about him, the more I love him! From his actions documented in biographies and his own writings, we can see that the youth were very important to him.

Talented

As a boy, Karol Józef Wojtyła was athletic, often playing football as goalkeeper. He grew up knowing pain, loss, suffering, persecution, hunger, poverty, hard work, invasion, war...

He was extremely talented and an intelligent student whose interests were in the theatre and arts.

At university he studied literature and twelve foreign languages, he worked as a volunteer librarian. He also performed with various theatrical groups and wrote plays.

Later, during his priesthood, his talents were used solely for God and the Salvation of mankind.

Underground

He started thinking about the priesthood after the death of his father, the third member of his immediate family who died. "At twenty, I had already lost all the people I loved." His mother had died in childbirth when he was eight and Edmund his brother, fourteen years his senior, died of scarlet fever.

He grew up during World War II, he studied to be a priest in an underground seminary and managed miraculously to escape from being 'taken' by German troops. Russia caused the Polish people to suffer when the Poles rose up against the Germans believing the Red Army would soon be at their side but Russia stood by and didn't intervene, allowing so many Polish casualties.

The 'bestiality' of the war
Having seen first hand the 'bestiality' of the war, many would think he had a right to resent Germany and Russia, he didn't! To prove it, Germany was one of the first places he visited! John Paul was a strong leader and shining example in Peace and Forgiveness.

Pope John Paul desired to visit Russia. Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev once said "The collapse of the Iron Curtain would have been impossible without John Paul II."

Poland was the first country to break free from the Soviet an impromptu Mass. He loved skiing, he was known as a daredevil skier! It was his favourite sport. He would sometimes go to the Chocholowska Valley where he would be towed up the hillside by horses or, more Union.

In February 2004, Pope John Paul II was nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize honouring his life's work in opposing Communist oppression and helping to reshape the world.

The 'little family'

In his late twenties he was a priest in Krakow, teaching ethics, where he started his own 'living flame of love.' We know from his biography in the Wikipedia that "he gathered a group of about twenty young people, who began to call themselves Rodzinka, the 'little family.' They met for prayer, philosophical discussion and to help the blind and sick! The group eventually grew to approximately two hundred participants and their activities expanded to include annual skiing and kayaking trips."

A daredevil skier

Each summer, he often travelled to the lakes and rivers of Poland, with a portable altar. He stopped overnight on river banks and sometimes tied two paddles to make a cross for often, he carried his skis on his shoulder and meditated on the Stations of the Cross on the way up then enjoyed the ski down. This makes me think that he brought Jesus into all the areas of his life, the good fun times as well as the uphill struggles, the highs and the lows.

Jesus "is eternally young"

From as early as 1965, in his forties, his writings reflect his desire to nourish the hearts of young people with the Love of God. He reminded us all that Jesus "is eternally young" and he gave the youth the torch to carry in Second Vatican Council to illuminate their future and the future of the world.

So much opposition

Many might think it was easy for John Paul to be holy as he was surrounded by holy people. But the actual fact was he faced so much more opposition than any of us will ever encounter.

He was criticised from the start for his views against the ordination of women and contraception, his support for the Second Vatican Council and its reform of the Liturgy and his stance on the sanctity of Marriage. I remember seeing footage of Ian Paisley heckling and denouncing Pope John Paul II as the antichrist while he was addressing the European Parliament in Strasbourg. Just after the Pope's speech started, Paisley - leader of the Democratic Unionist Party and also an MEP at the time - shouted, "I denounce you as the antichrist!" and held up a red poster reading "POPE JOHN PAUL II ANTI-CHRIST" in black letters. The Pope reacted with faint amusement and continued with his address after Paisley was ejected from the auditorium.

Many tried to kill him

As well as verbal opposition and criticism, he was the target for many fascists, communists and general madmen. He was shot at, stabbed and many tried to kill him.

On 13 May 1981, Pope John Paul II was shot and critically wounded by Mehmet Ali Ağca, an expert Turkish gunman who was a member of the militant fascist group Grey Wolves. The Pope was shot in the abdomen, perforating his colon and small intestine multiple times.

John Paul II lost consciousness en route to the hospital. He lost nearly three-quarters of his blood. He underwent five hours of surgery to treat his wounds.

He instructed the doctors not to remove his Brown Scapular during the operation when he briefly gained consciousness before being operated on. The Pope said Our Lady of Fátima helped keep him alive throughout this ordeal.

Two days after Christmas in 1983, John Paul II visited Ağca, the Turkish assassin who shot him, in prison. John Paul II and Ağca spoke privately for about twenty minutes. "What we talked about will have to remain a secret between him and me. I spoke to him as a brother whom I have pardoned and who has my complete trust."

What a shinning example of Jesus and living the Gospels!!!

Assassination attempt

On 12 May 1982, a second assassination attempt took place, in Fátima, Portugal. Father Juan María Fernández y Krohn, a Spanish priest, lunged at the Holy Father with a knife. He was stopped by security guards, although Stanisław Dziwisz later claimed that John Paul II had been injured during the attempt but managed to conceal the wound.

It appeared that John Paul embraced the opportunity to suffer in silence. Father Fernández objected to Pope John Paul II's support of the Second Vatican Council and was sentenced to six years in prison.

Plot to kill him

There was a big Al-Qaeda-funded Bojinka plot to kill him during World Youth Day 1995 celebrations in the Philippines. On 15 January 1995, a suicide bomber was planning to dress as a priest, while John Paul II passed in his motorcade on his way to the San Carlos Seminary in Makati City. The would-be-assassin intended to get close and detonate the bomb. The assassination was supposed to divert attention from the next phase of the operation. However, a chemical fire inadvertently started which alerted police to their whereabouts and all were arrested a week before the Pope's visit, confessing to the plot.

Shorten his days

This part of the Message of La Salette springs to mind: "...The Holy Father will suffer a great deal. I will be with him until the end and receive his sacrifice. The mischievous would attempt his life several times, to do him harm and shorten his days. Neither he nor his successors will see the triumph of the Church of God..."

The keep-fit Pope

John Paul was labelled the keep-fit Pope in an Irish Independent article in the 1980s because when he became Pope in 1978, he was still an avid sportsman. At the time, the fifty eight year old was extremely healthy and active, jogging in the Vatican gardens, weight training, swimming and hiking in the mountains.

Yet we can see a great decline in health after his pontification, this could have been caused by the public assassination attempts or it may well have been what was going on behind the scenes.

For a handful of believers

Look at this part in Song of the Carpenter (Book 2, Chapter 8) when Jesus was being tortured by spirits, taking a beating in a cave for what would become of His Body in the future:

"...He saw again the old man; so very old and tired and he was one with him. The beams of the house that Jesus was building now, and would finish with his sacrifice,

John Paul recognised the importance of that time of being a young adult – the transition from childhood to full maturity in Christ – and encouraged committed chaplains to be there to help them, intellectually and spiritually.

Tirelessly and constantly John Paul wanted to encourage young peoples' enthusiasm and exuberant energy, to use it to become "leading characters in evangelization and participants in the renewal of society" and for them to become rebellious against the civilization of selfishness!!!

He worked tirelessly and constantly in his eighty four years for God. He appeared to have used every available second of time to bring the world the Light of Christ. He even converted his car into an office so he could write while travelling!

Poland

In 2006, Jesus sent the Patricks to Poland to get a House of Prayer there because Pope John Paul II asked Him in Heaven:

"...No one has yet grasped the meaning of My Houses of Prayer. If they had, My House would have been inundated with offers to help. I tell you again that their setting up will be fraught with difficulty... To go to My country of Poland, is a sacrifice for, your Holy Father (John Paul II) has asked this of Me here in Heaven. His dedication to this country has led the way for its conversion back to Me. I give you the task of finishing that request with Me as your Head. You must carry a picture of him when you go to this country." Monday 23 January 2006

Dedicated lights

Just as the Patricks have been set the task of continuing John Paul's work of conversion, so also have we.

Young people need dedicated lights around them, who are available and there to show them the way, signposts leading them to Heaven. We all must follow the shining example of John Paul and play our part in this and the more we decrease in the dying to self - continuously building upon our 'anchors' and keeping the fire of Jesus in our hearts burning - the brighter Jesus will shine His Light through us!

As Jesus said, "...Your Holy Father (Pope John Paul II) set you an example with the young..." Now is the time to take on this example and allow the spirit of love for the youth, that exuded from John Paul, to live on in this world.

The following disturbing article was recently published in the Daily Telegraph. A doctor in Birmingham has admitted to agreeing to kill an unborn baby because the baby was a girl!!! The Daily Telegraph have also discovered that his abortion clinic is not the only one to offer killing females! What next? Brown-eyed babies? Skinny babies?...

Abortion investigation: Doctor admits procedure tantamount to 'female infanticide'

One of Britain's oldest abortion clinics is facing a police investigation after staff were caught falsifying paperwork and a doctor admitted that an abortion he was offering was tantamount to "female infanticide."

By Holly Watt, Claire Newell and Robert Winnett

Dr Raj Mohan filmed during consultation in which he agreed not to put down that a woman's real reason for wanting an abortion was the sex of the child

Because the baby was a girl

The Calthorpe Clinic has been exposed for illicitly completing abortion forms amid concerns that doctors are not properly consulting patients before agreeing to terminations. A doctor at the clinic in Edgbaston, Birmingham, was also secretly filmed offering to arrange an abortion for a woman who said she wanted to terminate her pregnancy because the baby was a girl.

"It's like female infanticide isn't it?" said Dr Raj Mohan before agreeing to conduct the procedure. So-called "sex-selection" terminations are illegal.

Two other abortion clinics

Andrew Lansley, the Health Secretary, passed a dossier of alleged malpractice at the clinic to detectives. He also referred concerns over "criminal" practices at two other abortion clinics to the police and General Medical Council.

Across the country

The Daily Telegraph has this week exposed how abortion clinics across the country are illegally offering to abort foetuses on the basis of gender. There are growing concerns about such practices taking place in Britain's abortion clinics. It is understood that the NHS watchdog that monitors the clinics, the Care Quality Commission (CQC), had already alerted the Health Secretary to concerns over the documentation being used by the Calthorpe Clinic.

Sex-selection abortions

The head of CQC, which also oversees care homes and hospitals, resigned following a Department of Health report that criticised the quango. The Telegraph carried out an investigation into sex-selection abortions after specific concerns were raised that the procedures were becoming increasingly common for cultural and

The doctor appeared happy to change the woman's reason for wanting an abortion when filling in forms social reasons.

They know better

In an article for this newspaper, Mr Lansley warns doctors that they will face the "full force" of the law if they break the 1967 Abortion Act. "Carrying out an abortion on the grounds of gender alone is in my view morally repugnant," he writes. "It is also illegal. Whatever an individual's opinion on abortion ... laws in this country are decided by Parliament, not by individual doctors. If some professionals disagree with the law as it stands they should argue their case for change. Simply flouting them in a belief that they know better is unacceptable."

Imprisonment

The Health Secretary added: "Anyone indulging in illegal activity must understand that they are running a great risk. The potential penalty for breaking abortion legislation is imprisonment. Doctors could be struck off. And we will not hesitate to pursue any evidence which comes into our hands."

"Don't want a girl"

Undercover reporters accompanied pregnant women to nine abortion clinics around the country. Three offered to arrange terminations for women who said they wanted to end their pregnancy because they were unhappy with the sex of the baby. When a woman who was twelve weeks pregnant had an appointment with a doctor at the Calthorpe Clinic, she explained that she wanted to terminate her pregnancy because she had discovered she was having a girl but her and her partner "don't want a girl."

I'll put too young

"Is that the reason?" asked the doctor, who introduced himself as Dr Raj. "That's not fair. It's like female infanticide isn't it?"

When the pregnant woman asked if he could put down a different reason for the termination, the doctor said: "That's right, yeah, because it's not a good reason anytime ... I'll put too young for pregnancy, yeah?"

Common in the Third World

The patient agreed, at which point Dr Mohan again said: "It's common in the Third World to have a female infanticide."

He then moved on to discuss the abortion process before asking the pregnant patient to book an appointment for the termination the following Monday or Tuesday.

Growing pressure

A nurse at the same clinic was also made aware that the reason for the abortion was because the patient "did not want a girl" but did not object to the procedure taking place.

The patient was not offered any counselling and there was no discussion of the wisdom of her requesting the sex-selection abortion. The disclosures are likely to lead to growing pressure for pregnant women considering an abortion to be offered independent counselling.

Counselling

Mr Lansley says the Government will carry out a consultation on the issue and stresses that women should have the opportunity for detailed discussions with professionals.

"We will not only uphold

The young woman who attended Calthorpe Clinic with The Daily Telegraph. She is happily pregnant that law but it is why — in discussion with all main parties — we are planning to consult on counselling arrangements for women seeking an abortion," he said.

"All women seeking an abortion should have the opportunity, if they so choose, to discuss at length and in detail with a professional their decision and the impact it may have."

Secretly recorded

The Calthorpe Clinic, which declined to comment on the disclosures, is the third abortion provider to be exposed by The Daily Telegraph for offering gender-specific terminations. It is one of the country's oldest abortion clinics, having been set up in the late 1960s.

Yesterday's Telegraph disclosed how doctors working at Pall Mall Medical in Manchester and the Chelsea and Westminster Hospital in London were secretly recorded offering similarly illegal abortions, leading to widespread concern.

Coerced or threatened

Dr Tony Falconer, president of the Royal College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, said: "Anecdotally, there are social and cultural reasons for preferring one gender over another and we need to know more about why these occur.

"The issues are complex. For instance, women may be coerced or threatened with violence into having an abortion. The priority would be to identify these women and to provide them with support."

The reality of eugenics

Anthony Ozimic, a spokesman for the Society for the Protection of Unborn Children, said: "This investigation confirms the reality of eugenics in modern British medicine, in which some innocent human beings are deemed too inconvenient to be allowed to live.

Easy access to abortion

"Sex-selective abortion is an inevitable consequence of easy access to abortion, a situation to which the pro-abortion lobby has no convincing answer."

However, Darinka Aleksic, the campaign coordinator of Abortion Rights, said the criminal practice of a minority should not be used to impose tighter restrictions.

"It is absolutely vital that abortion providers adhere stringently to both legal requirements and professional guidelines, so that the public has confidence in the system," she said.

"But the fact is, abortion is heavily regulated and strictly licensed in this country."

Events Celebrated

EVE OF SAINT BRIGID Tuesday 31 January

On the eve of Saint Brigid, around 8pm, we had a small gathering of people who sat together and made Saint Brigid's crosses. We shared stories about her while weaving the crosses, in this way, passing on the tradition of the faith. The crosses were then taken to the chapel for morning Mass where they were Blessed. They were returned to the House of Prayer where they were distributed to anyone looking for one. We do this every year and everyone is welcome to join us.

FOUNDATION DAY FEAST OF OUR LADY OF LOURDES 11 February

The Day began at 12pm

with prayers and praise. A servant then gave a talk about the first Foundation Day in 1996 when Jesus invited some of the servants to begin the wearing of His Habit. With no Habits being worn at that time, this seemed like a time of growth. The workers there at that time began to take on the Commitment, Rules, Habit and community ways in a more committed way.

Simplicity and truth

The 3pm prayers continued with prayer and praise and another two servants spoke again. The first spoke of how Saint Bernadette was very poor and simple but the simplicity and truth of her answers cut through to all who questioned her. Jesus needs the same kind of simplicity and truth of us so that He can use us to share His Truth and Love. The second servant spoke on Jesus' Teachings from when he came to the House. He spoke about the importance of Mary in his life, especially while travelling and seeking work. He always asked Her help and tried to keep close to her. He spoke about his pilgrimage to Garabandal which included a visit to Lourdes grotto.

FEAST OF SAINT CLAUDE DE LA COLOMBIERE 15 February

The Day began with Community Prayers at 12pm, praise and a talk. Saint Claude is important to our community because he was the Spiritual Director of Saint Margaret Mary, to whom Jesus revealed the Devotion to the Sacred Heart. Jesus appeared to her as the Sacred Heart and gave to her the Devotion of it to be spread throughout the world. Saint Claude assured her that her visions and Messages were authentic. He also played a crucial role in the spread of the Devotion to the four corners of the world. Some of his writings were read and reflected on throughout the Day.

At the 3pm prayers, another servant spoke about the Spiritual Exercises of Saint Claude.

The prayers concluded with music and praise.

Gendercide and Women's Empowerment

Gendercide

There are now reported to be approximately two hundred million more males in the world than females. This is not happening by chance but by gendercide, the deliberate killing of a specific gender. January 25, 2012 (LiveAction.org) reported it is considered a "practice" in some countries to kill babies before or after birth. Parents who can afford an ultrasound to find out if their baby is a girl and pay for an abortion often do so.

Poorer parents just wait until their baby is born. If she's a girl, she's killed or left to die alone.

'It's a Girl'

There is a documentary about this out soon called 'It's a Girl' which are apparently the three most deadliest words in the world. If you can, check out the trailer for this film, it is on Youtube and it's one of the saddest things I have seen.

Women killing women

What is extremely sad is that female gendercide often involves women killing women. So much for women's empowerment! Mothers - or their women friends - are usually the ones to perform an abortion if they can't afford a doctor. Mothers are often the ones to strangle or otherwise murder their daughters after birth. Women killing women! What a sad world "choice" has brought us! The countries participating in this gendercide are China, India, Taiwan, South Korea, Pakistan and possibly more.

Fear

To put it in perspective, Ram

Mashru reports, "India and China are said to eliminate more female infants than the number of girls born in the US each year."

Some mothers are in fear of their own lives if they do not produce a male heir. Other women fear that, since their government only allows them to have one child, only a son can provide for them in their old age. Do these reasons justify the abortions or infanticide of girls? No. They don't. But, we can admit that any woman who keeps her daughter in spite of these circumstances is a very brave person!

Sex-selection

The Council of Europe has recently reported that sex-selection abortion is becoming more popular in Europe, particularly in Albania, Armenia, Azerbaijan and Georgia. They have admitted that sex selective abortion is now causing a problem in Albania with a widening gulf between the sexes.

Favoured

Recent statistics show that for every one hundred Albanian girls, one hundred and twelve boys are born. In natural demographic growth, the number of girls usually slightly exceeds the number of boys. "Traditionally Albanian families have favoured boys over girls for two main reasons: the inheritance of the family name and the prospect of boys growing up to become breadwinners," a 2005 report by the UN Development Programme (UNDP) said.

Generation of women

Denise Hunnell, MD, from Human Life International recently reported: "President Barack Obama issued a statement on the 2012 anniversary of the Roe v Wade suggesting that abortion was necessary for the next generation of women to have the same rights, freedoms and opportunities as men. This is interesting considering that at least a quarter of the next generation of women will die as victims of abortion... There is also now strong evidence that post-abortive women are more likely to suffer an increase in depression, substance abuse and suicide. Abortion is also linked to a highly aggressive form of breast cancer.

Reject our true nature

The reality is we will not cultivate a culture of life until all women realize that we do not need abortion in order to be considered as smart, competent and professional as men. Not only do we not need abortion, we do not want it! Abortion does not elevate the dignity of women. It demeans us and forces us to reject our true nature. Rather than celebrating our femininity, abortion forces us to deny our womanhood. It treats our unique ability to bear and nurture a child as a liability.

Blessed Pope John Paul II

It was Blessed Pope John Paul II who gave a voice to the strength of women. He recognized the power and potential of women as the heart and soul of our families, our communities, our culture and our Church.

From Mulieris Dignitatem:

"A woman is strong because of her awareness of this entrusting, strong because of the fact that God "entrusts the human being to her," always and in every way, even in the situations of social discrimination in which she may find herself. This awareness and this fundamental vocation speak to women of the dignity which they receive from God Himself and this makes them "strong" and strengthens their vocation.

In our own time, the successes of science and technology make it possible to attain material well-being to a degree hitherto unknown. While this favours some, it pushes others to the edges of society. In this way, unilateral progress can also lead to a gradual loss of sensitivity for man, that is for what is essentially human. In this sense, our time in particular awaits the manifestation of that "genius" which belongs to women and which can ensure sensitivity for human beings in every circumstance: because they are human! - and because "the greatest of these is love" (cf. 1 Cor 13:13).

My prayer is that all women of today and tomorrow will reject subjugation by those who wish to extinguish their true femininity. May they recognize that their strength comes from their total womanhood, including their life-giving nature.

Dignity

Contrary to the ideas of President Obama, their rights, freedoms and opportunities of the next generation of women depends on their expression of their feminine "genius" in a way that elevates our culture and holds sacrosanct the dignity of all human life."

Prayer

Pray, Pray, Pray

The Messages given by Jesus to the two Patricks and published in the Messages of Love Books are filled with Jesus' request for prayer. Two earlier Messages tell us "Come to Me often in prayer" Message 17, Monday 16 December 1991 and "Pray for those who do not love Me" Message 38, Sunday 26 January 1992.

The Blessed Mother also asks us to "Pray, Pray, Pray." There is little doubt that most of us try hard to honour these requests.

However, the way we pray is something we all must seriously consider.

Forms of prayer

Prayer is categorized in a number of forms. They are: blessing, adoration, petition, intercession, thanksgiving and praise. These various forms are addressed in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (2644-2649). In the course of time we pray each of these forms. Whether we are adoring or petitioning Jesus, the form is not the important part of the prayer. The attitude and how we pray is the important aspect.

Humility

Also, the Catechism states in (2559) that "prayer is the raising of one's mind and heart to God or the requesting of good things from God. But when we pray, do we speak from the height of our pride and will or "out of the depths of a humble and contrite heart?" He who humbles himself will be exalted. Humility is the foundation of prayer. Only when we humbly acknowledge that "we do not know how to pray as we ought" are we ready to receive freely the gift of prayer. "Man is a beggar before God."

The Lord's Prayer

We should not pray saying and understanding words from our head. We must understand in our heart what we are saying, asking God. We must not be saying to God something that we do not mean. A serious example of speaking words from our head or mouth and not realizing the impact, is found in the Lord's Prayer. We say, "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." Do we truly realize that we are asking and praying that God Forgive us only as we forgive others? When we pray the "Our Father," are we aware that we are ready to forgive others? Take the time to look at and understand the words that we are praying and, surprisingly, we will find many prayers where we ask Gods favour with self-imposed limitations. We should not and cannot allow ourselves to compromise our self before God by carelessly praying. Prayer must always come from the heart knowing what we are actually asking God.

A Hermitage for Two

An escape

There was plenty of time to catch up on some spiritual reading while I was manning Saint Thérèse House of Prayer for a couple of weeks in December.

For me this was like being in a hermitage for two and an escape from the relative hustle and bustle of the House of Prayer in Cookstown.

Such a richness

This time round, I decided to further acquaint myself with the writings of Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, since, after all, the House is named after her and a copy of 'The Story of a Soul' is there on the bookshelf.

There is such a richness in these writings that comes out, all the more, when one really has the peace and tranquillity around one to absorb them fully.

I was not, to be honest, however entirely at peace with myself at this time and I had cause to ponder Saint Thérèse's many helpful thoughts about forgiveness and charity.

Love them through us

Before reading Saint Thérèse, I had never noticed the significance of Jesus' 'new Commandment,' to love each other as He Loves us, or contrasted this with the original 'love your neighbour as you love yourself.' Saint Thérèse observes that we cannot always love people for their peculiarities but we must allow Jesus to Love them through us and, with the Grace we are given, we can do this.

She observes that if we give our tunic up to another, we will be less encumbered to go the extra mile. That tunic meaning for me, surely, my reputation. As she quotes from The Imitation of Christ, "leave a man in his own opinion," that is, don't bother arguing about it.

Hope

But what, among her reflections, most struck me was her dream or vision of a Heavenly meeting with the founding member of the reformed Carmelites in France, someone to whom she had barely ever given a thought. She was overwhelmed by the sense of love this woman had for her and so was conveyed to her a sense of the great love we will all have for one another in Heaven, of which any mutual love on this earth is a mere shadow. Final hope then for those of us struggling to get along with one another on this earth!

A sense of freedom

As time progressed, I was made to understand that just as much as this was a time of my working for Jesus, so it was also a time of His Working on and Strengthening me. He doesn't stop being helpful just because I am not, myself, trying to cooperate with Him!

I have got used to the idea of manning a House of Prayer and, far from feeling restricted, I only felt a sense of freedom in doing it.

Particularly welcome

We didn't receive any visitors but called at one or two neighbours and some passers-by poked their heads round the door. The language barrier remains a little problematic.

At the end of my stay (as the other servant was carrying on for a bit longer), after the final Mass, the lovely priest made myself and the other person manning with me feel particularly welcome by throwing his arms around us both together, which was a great way of being sent off. Presumably, seeing the Crucifixes we wear, he realised we were that month's contingent at the House of Prayer.

Jesus' Plans of Salvation

I look forward to any occasion of being sent off to this House of Prayer in Belgium to further in some small measure Jesus' Plans of Salvation in this world.

Virgin Most Pure House

It was Easy to Praise God Here

Such a beautiful setting

Thickly wooded mountain slopes with hairpin bends; beautifully clean fresh mountain air; a wonderful panoramic view of the huge mountain range across the valley; mountains which appear and disappear in the mists; wild flowers growing in abundance; the sound of crickets and the gentle clink of cowbells in the fields below; the little silver slow worm and the brave little baby scorpion we surprised, harmless to us but ready to defend himself with tiny pincers; electric storms where the rolling thunder reverberated around the valley and lightning illuminated everything like a giant flashlight: - it was easy to praise God here - in such a beautiful setting - even the countless stars shone more brightly with no other lights competing and the dark velvety night sky held the familiar changeless shapes of the constellations in all their ancient beauty.

How great Thou art

'Oh, Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder Consider all the works Thy Hands have made.

I see the stars I hear the mighty thunder, Thy power throughout the universe displayed. Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to Thee, How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

Fall in love

I could spend hours just gazing happily at the view. What a wonderful idea to have a House of Prayer here! I guess Jesus knew we would all fall in love with the mountains - as well as the friendly neighbours we met. The physical work of weeding, cleaning, painting, cooking etc. was interspersed with the regular prayer times which I valued as a constant reminder to me of His Presence – a frequent gentle tug at my sleeve if I was drifting off into negative thoughts or futile worrying. Mostly, I was very happy and at peace, knowing that I was trying to serve Jesus as best I could, in all the little tasks, which would contribute to making His House ready for future visitors.

Spiritual lessons

The cellars, where we searched for tools and paint, were less pleasant than the upstairs rooms, as they would need cleaning and organising when enough helpers were available. The rubbish in them, accumulated over years, reminded me of the spiritual lessons I've learned here from my companion, the Holy Spirit, i.e. just as the House is changing and being transformed all the time, becoming cleaner and more pleasing to God but still has dark corners in the cellar which need clearing out – so my soul, in the process of transformation, still has hidden dark areas where long forgotten memories of early childhood have accumulated which all need to be faced and subjected to the light of Truth – an uncomfortable experience but necessary if I am to grow and change and let go of all the negative thoughts and fears which were fed in by the enemy at an age when I could not counteract them and when I did not know how to pray or seek God's help or protection.

Abort me

When my mother, in 1945, trapped in very difficult circumstances and under pressure to end her pregnancy, tried every way she knew to abort me – I received the clear message that I was unwanted, useless, a nuisance, in the way, something to be got rid of. I begged her silently to let me live – knowing, even then, that there was a purpose to my life and I had much to do in the world.

I survived

Somehow I survived and grew a few more years before I was nearly killed again, by my mother who suffered some kind of breakdown. My grandmother, by the Grace of God, returned early from shopping just in time to rescue me. My mother was compulsorily admitted to mental hospital where ECT (electro convulsive 'therapy') and heavy sedatives suppressed the 'homicidal mania' which they said she suffered from. On her eventual return home, I did not understand that the violence was now fully under control, or that her depression and anxiety were not my fault.

Cleansed and healed

As a survival mechanism, I became a timid and over-anxious child with an exaggerated need to please and an over-sensitive awareness of other people's moods – especially tension, anger and depression.

Much of this had been uncovered previously in counselling but God knew I still had to look at it again and to be cleansed and healed of all the negativity and fears in me.

Greater freedom

By His Grace, during the process of learning about the Way of the Sacred Heart here and at other Houses of Prayer I have helped to 'man,' I am making progress at clearing out these 'dark cellars' in my mind. I am also learning not just to say 'Jesus, I trust in Thee' but also to really mean it. And not only to trust Him with all the big concerns I have but also to turn to Him for help with all the little struggles and everyday challenges.

I forgave my mother long ago and was glad to be able to look after her in her old age but now, more aware of how these old memories are still affecting my thinking or behaviour, I can serve God in greater freedom.

Thank you, my companion, thank you, House of Prayer (Slovenia). Thank You, God.

The Holy Scriptures

John 15:9-27

9 As the Father hath Loved Me, I also have Loved you.

The Father is complete Love and Jesus has Loved us with the same Love and calls us to live in His Love.

10 If you keep My commandments, you shall abide in My Love; as I also have kept My Father's commandments and do abide in His Love.

As Jesus obeyed the Commandments of God and abided in His Love, He now Teaches us that if we obey His Commandments we also will abide in the Love of God.

11 These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may be in you and your joy may be filled.

Jesus Teaches us that we will have joy and fulfilment in a life with God.

12 This is My commandment, that you love one another, as I have Loved you.

Jesus commands us to love one another with an unconditional, truthful love as He has Loved us.

13 Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Jesus is asking us to lay down our lives in prayer and sacrifice for the souls of our friends, our brothers and sisters in the Body of Christ.

14 You are My friends, if you do the things that I command you.

Only by loving our neighbour with the Love and truthfulness of God can we become the friends of Jesus.

15 I will not now call you servants: for the servant knoweth not what his lord doth. But I have called you friends: because all things whatsoever I have heard of My Father, I have made known to you.

Only by living in the obedience of this Command can we become the friends of Jesus. Not only His servants but His friends in which He confides His Plans to.

16 You have not chosen Me: but I have chosen you; and have appointed you, that you should go and should bring forth fruit and your fruit should remain: that whatsoever you shall ask of the Father in My Name, He may give it you.

We do not choose to be in the service of God but He chooses and calls us. He commands us to go forth and produce fruit in the saving of souls and then all we ask for will be given to us for it will be for the Glory of God.

17 These things I command you, that you love one another.

We cannot fully serve God until we learn to love one another truly.

18 If the world hate you, know ye, that it hath hated Me before you.

To love our neighbour truthfully is to always speak the truth. As we know the truth hurts and we are disliked because we do not see or do as the world does.

19 If you had been of the world, the world would love its own: but because you are not of the world but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

The fact that we are disliked and many times despised, it is because Jesus is calling us to be not of the world, it is confirmation for us that we work for God.

20 Remember My Word that I said to you: The servant is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept My Word, they will keep yours also.

Jesus Teaches us total obedience, we are not greater than Jesus. It is in His Name that we are persecuted. If we live and preach in Jesus' Name and die completely to self, we will be recognised as speaking the Word of God and the Word of God we speak will be obeyed.

21 But all these things they will do to you for My name's sake: because they know not Him who sent Me.

Our persecutors do not know or recognise Jesus or His Father.

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have sin but now they have no excuse for their sin.

Because Jesus came and preached His Message of Salvation we are accountable for our sin.

23 He that hateth Me, hateth My Father also.

Jesus is a reflection of God the Father and He taught what the Father Commanded Him to and if we deny Jesus or live against His Laws, we hate the Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works that no other man hath done, they would not have sin but now they have both seen and hated both Me and My Father.

Jesus worked miracles and spoke the Truth, as taught by the Father, if we hate or disobey Jesus we do this to the Father also.

25 But that the Word may be fulfilled which is written in their law: They hated Me without cause.

There is no cause or reason to hate Jesus for He came to Redeem the world but the Redemption was not accepted by all.

26 But when the Paraclete cometh, whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, He shall give testimony of Me.

When the Holy Spirit of Truth comes through Jesus from the Father, we shall see the Truth in its entirety and we will see what Jesus has done for us.

27 And you shall give testimony because you are with Me from the beginning.

And, please God, through the Grace of God and dying to self, we will be there to give testimony for Jesus and the Teachings and way of life He has given.

The Plight of Others

The Plight of the Abused

Victim

I am a victim of sexual abuse. I was sexually abused from I was about seven or eight - I can't really remember what age - up until I was eighteen, by a few different men. By one man in particular, it was from childhood until I was nearly eighteen.

Wrong

I remember all sorts of emotions; fear, panic, confusion, different kinds of feelings. I knew it was wrong but I accepted it, there was nothing I could do about it. I remember thinking a lot, why me, why me? Shame, guilt, everything... I felt dirty, I couldn't handle it.

Alcoholic

I started to drink when I was thirteen and then my alcoholism crept in very quickly. I had a son to my boyfriend at the age of seventeen. Then, through my neglect, the child was taken into care when he was three. I abused him - not sexually - but by the way I drank and didn't look after him properly. That's abuse. You always find the abuser has big problems. The man that abused me had an alcohol problem.

Vicious circle

Me, the victim, became an alcoholic and abused all those around me: fighting, unlove and in so many different ways. It was a vicious circle. Drugs became a problem as well, anything to take me away from reality.

I turned to God

So many times I tried to take my own life. I abused myself so much and couldn't go on anymore, I had to surrender - surrender to life. I turned to God. He saved me. He made me see things in a different light.

Forgive them

We have to pray for the abuser, forgive them. Who knows the pain that lies behind their abuse!?! Like Jesus says in the Bible to the crowd at the stoning of the woman, he who is without sin let him cast the first stone. I'm sure throughout our lives we have abused people in some shape or form, maybe not sexual abuse but still abuse, or sinned against someone or another.

Came through it

Yes, the sexual abuse caused me so much pain and misery in my life but, thank God, I came through it. Because of it, I turned to Jesus. So the next time we hear about abuse or someone hurting someone: pray, pray hard for these people that Jesus will make them see.

Gods Grace

I can honestly say from my heart that I have truly forgiven my abusers but it's only with Gods Grace I'm able to do that. Of myself, I can do nothing. Remember we have to see Jesus in all people, especially our enemies.

Thank You, Jesus, for helping me think differently. I love You.

The Wisdom of John Paul II

25. Rightly therefore Saints Cyril and Methodius were at an early date recognized by the family of Slav peoples as the fathers of both their Christianity and their culture. In many of the territories mentioned above, although there had been various missionaries, the majority of the Slav population in the ninth century still retained pagan customs and beliefs. Only in the land cultivated by our

Saints, or at least prepared by them for cultivation, did Christianity definitively enter the history of the Slavs during the following century. Their work is an outstanding contribution to the formation of the common Christian roots of Europe, roots which by their strength and vitality are one of the most solid points of reference, which no serious attempt to reconstruct in a new and relevant way the unity of the Continent can ignore. After eleven centuries of Christianity among the Slavs, we clearly see that the heritage of the Brothers from Salonika is and remains for the Slavs deeper and stronger than any division. Both Christian traditions - the Eastern deriving from Constantinople and the Western deriving from Rome arose in the bosom of the one Church, even though against the background of different cultures and of a different approach to the same problems. This diversity, when its origin is properly understood and when its value and meaning are properly considered, can only enrich the culture of Europe and its religious tradition, and likewise become an adequate foundation for its hoped - for spiritual renewal.

26. Ever since the ninth century, when in Christian Europe a new organization was emerging, Saints Cyril and Methodius have held out to us a message clearly of great relevance for our own age, which precisely by reason of the many complex problems of a religious, cultural, civil and international nature, is seeking a vital unity in the real communion of its various elements. It can be said of the two evangelizers that characteristic of them was their love for the communion of the universal Church both in the East and in the West, and, within the universal Church, love for the particular Church that was coming into being in the Slav nations. From them also comes for the Christians and - people of our time the invitation to build communion together. But it is in the specific area of missionary activity that the example of Cyril and Methodius is of even greater value. For this activity is an essential task of the Church, and is urgent today in the already mentioned form of "inculturation". The two Brothers not only carried out their mission with full respect for the culture already existing among the Slav peoples, but together with religion they eminently and unceasingly promoted and extended that culture. By analogy, today the Churches of ancient origin can and must help the young Churches and peoples to mature in their own identity and progress in it.

27. Cyril and Methodius are as it were the connecting links or spiritual bridge between the Eastern and Western traditions, which both come together in the one great Tradition of the universal Church. For us they are the champions and also the patrons of the ecumenical endeavor of the sister Churches of East and West, for the rediscovery through prayer and dialogue of visible Unity in perfect and total communion, "the unity which", as I said on the occasion of my visit to Bari, "is neither absorption nor fusion". Unity is a meeting in truth and love, granted to us by the Spirit. Cyril and Methodius, in their personality and their work, are figures that awaken in all Christians a great "longing for union" and for unity between the two sister Churches of East and West. For full catholicity, every nation, every culture has its own part to play in the universal plan of salvation. Every particular tradition, every local Church must remain open and alert to the other Churches and traditions and, at the same time, to universal and catholic communion; were it to remain closed in on itself, it too would run the risk of becoming impoverished.

By exercising their own charism, Cyril and Methodius made a decisive contribution to the building of Europe not only in Christian religious communion but also to its civil and cultural union. Not even today does there exist any other way of overcoming tensions and repairing the divisions and antagonisms both in Europe: and in the world which threaten to cause a frightful destruction of lives and values. Being Christians in our day means being builders of communion in the Church and in society. This calls for openness to others, mutual understanding, and readiness to cooperate through the generous exchange of cultural and spiritual resources.

One of the fundamental aspirations of humanity today is to rediscover unity and communion for a life truly worthy of man on the worldwide level. The Church, conscious of being the universal sign and sacrament of salvation and of the unity of the human race, declares her readiness to accomplish this duty of hers, to which "the conditions of this age lend special urgency so that all people joined more closely today by various social, technical, and cultural bonds can achieve as well full unity in Christ".

VIII CONCLUSION

28. It is fitting, then, that the Church should celebrate with solemnity and joy the eleven centuries that have elapsed since the close of the apostolic work of the first Archbishop, ordained in Rome for the Slav peoples, Methodius, and of his brother Cyril, and that she should thus commemorate the entry of these peoples on to the scene of the history of salvation and into the of European nations which during the preceding centuries had already accepted the Gospel message. Everyone will understand with what profound happiness I will share in this celebration as the first son of the Slav race to be called, after nearly two millennia, to occupy the episcopal see that once belonged to Peter in this city of Rome.

JESUS ASKS FOR THIS NOW

Jesus inspired that these Messages be republished to remind us to continue to do this

Wednesday 18 January 1995

Now is the time, My sons, to put up My Cross in your porches and your vestibules, both back and front of your houses for the time when you will need protection is here. As the people of Israel poured the blood of the slaughtered lamb upon their door lintels, so too, you must put the symbol of the shedding of My Precious Blood on yours for this is preparation time. Put lighted candles which are blessed by My priests in your windows at each dusk time and by these symbols My Angels shall know you. Do this with peace in your hearts and not fear. Say My Chaplet of Love often and await the events of this world. DO NOT BE AFRAID but remain in MY PEACE which I have bequeathed to you until I Come. I Love you.

Thursday 16 January 1997

I am the God of Light. Why do you seek the darkness, rather than the Light, My children? Why dress yourselves in the soiled clothes of evil? Come away from all the evil of this world.

I am calling all My Prophets, Seers and Visionaries to stand up now and prophesy against the freemasons of this world for many of you take their part. Do not allow yourselves to be fooled by the sweet talk of the serpent with the many forked tongue. I call all of you together so that the world may see that you can be one and that you are Mine.

I have taken much from this world. I stood by while they beat Me with their idolatries. I have not interfered with their free will but now, soon, is the day of reckoning, when My Spirit shall show the world the difference between right and wrong. Change now, children, and you will not be in the number who will gnash and weep for I tell you, within a three and a three and a two, he shall be among you. Believe now and repent. Light the candles in the windows and place the Crosses upon your doors. It is the sign that is needed for in it My Spirit will see that you belong to the God of Light. I Love you and these Words are Words of Love's Warning to you - but how many will listen? Look for Truth and live it.

Wednesday 12 November 1997

Children, I ask of you to burn your candles in your windows now for longer. I tell you to burn them until the hour of twelve in your night. This is the time to do this. Make sure that your Crucifixes are upon your doors both back and front.

I have told you that these are signs. My Angels will look for them and soon. Do as I ask now. I Love you all. Prepare as I have asked of you for this is a time of great darkness in the world.

The group will travel by minibus from the Sacred Heart House of Prayer, driving through England to Portsmouth for the ferry to France. This will be a cost price, non profit, true pilgrimage for Jesus.
Price: £525 or €600 if staying in Soledad House. £630 or €725 if staying in the hotel in Garabandal village (based on a group of 10).
For a full itinerary, or further information on the Messages of Love about Garabandal and La Salette, please contact us.

"...I tell the world that, whoever goes there within the Octave of My Most Sacred Heart, in this year, then they have their Salvation.<sup>1</sup> Be at Peace, for soon and very soon, Garabandal will be like a great light that will shine in the darkness of My Church and it will strike the vipers that slither over it. Garabandal is the stone which the builders rejected and I will soon place it to be the cornerstone. Believe, My children, and believe soon for soon it will be too late. I Love you..." Friday 15 March 1996

What Jesus means by inviting people to go to Garabandal 'within the Octave of His Most Sacred Heart' we do not know but we presume that it is a time of special blessings. Jesus Himself will make this clear in due course.

...I, too, as My Son has, tell you to remember the tears that I have cried at La Salette and I ask of you that you would now include it in your annual pilgrimage to My Shrine at Garabandal. Go too, to Paray Le Monial in remembrance of My Son's Most Sacred Heart for if you do these things then you will please Me greatly. The tears that I have wept at La Salette are not yet over. My children, My Words have been ignored and they have not listened. How can Words so plainly spoken be so ignored? My Son's Church has been infiltrated with evil. Let your prayers and action root it out... Sunday 10 June 2001, from Mary for the Day of Love

Embraced by New Time

*(A poem by Pope John Paul II
- translated by Jerzy Peterkiewicz)*

My depths are seen into,
I am seen through and through.
Open to sight I rise,
In that vision gently submerge.
For a long time nobody knew of this;
I told no one the expression of your eyes.

How attentive your stillness:
It will always be part of me.
I lift myself toward it,
Will one day grow so used to it
That I will stand still,
Transparent as water vanishing
Into a dry riverbed -
Though my body will remain.
Your disciples will come
And hear that my heart has stopped.

My life will no longer be Weighed deep in my blood,
The road will no longer slip away
From my weary feet.
New time now shines
In my fading eyes:
It will consume me
And dwell with my heart.
And all shall be full at the last
And left for thought's delight.

I will open out my song
And I know its smallest sound,
I will open out my song intent
On the whole of your life,
My song possessed by the Event
So simple and clear,
Which begins in every man,
Visibly there, yet secret.

In me it was made flesh,
Was revealed in song with grace,
And came to many
And in them found its own space.
