A New House of Prayer

The Truth of Europe
On the Feast of the Sacred Heart this year, Jesus asked us to find yet another House of Prayer but this one was to be in the city of the seat of power in Europe. As you know within the last few Newsletters we have tried to bring you the truth about Europe and what is actually happening therein.

In this Newsletter we try to deal with the question, what can we do about this? The answers that we need are all contained in the precious Words of the Gospels but these answers have been given to us again in these days through the many Messages that Jesus and Mary have been giving throughout the world.

Jesus and the EU

One way that Jesus is trying to counteract the evil that is taking over Europe is by setting up all these Houses of Prayer. In the article, 'Jesus and the EU,' by the two Patricks, there are many Messages about the Houses of Prayer. Within these are Jesus' Instructions on what He needs done. It is a thought provoking and challenging article. And within it, we realise that Jesus actually mentioned this new House in the seat of power in Europe two years ago!

Do we want to know

The question for all of us is: do we really want to know how to combat the evil suffocating Europe? Or will we be like the majority of Germans who turned a blind eye to the concentration camps of Nazi Germany as touched on in the article 'Subtle Dictatorship?'

Dying to self

Do we really want to know about dying to self as described in the articles 'Stand up and be counted' and 'Another step in the battle?' And are we prepared for the long struggle with self as we endeavour to do as Jesus asks? Are we prepared to give of our time to set up these Houses that Jesus is asking for and to keep them opened for if they are not opened then surely they are useless to Jesus?

Time

Jesus said on Monday 6 December 2004: "... Time is not on this world's side, the evil one has captured time and he plays many games with it. If you would follow Me, then do not let time be your ruler. Many resist Me because they do not wish to give Me their time. The evil one has stolen it from them. But they are blind. The time that you live in now is not for living but it is for dying..."

Each day, if we look in truth, is filled with things that we must do for ourselves or our families. But what about Jesus and His Family? What about souls that could have been saved had we not been so selfish? How many of us spend long hours in front of the television or the internet when we could be giving that time to God?

A challenge

This Newsletter is a challenge to begin to put God first in our lives and so make a difference. "...Many things you put before Me, you who claim to love Me. Spend more time with Me and leave the things that make you selfish and you forget your God. Many souls could be gained by your sacrifice of these things. In this way you are loving your neighbour..."

The Messages of Love

Monday 8 March 2010

Jesus:

Look only to the Truth and see Me in all that you do. Do not allow yourselves to be taken in by the things of this world for they are only glitter and will fade and disappear. My Life is the only True Path: My Life will lead to Eternal Life in the Kingdom of Our Father. Trust in Me and My Ways, children.

I, your God, call you to listen; I, your Jesus, Love you.

Patrick:

Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

Thursday 11 March 2010

Jesus:

Look to the Truth, My children, and do not be deceived by the lies of this world.

Come, children, listen to My Voice for, soon, I will come and ask you to account for the Words I have given to you.

Trust, children, trust in My Love for you and do My Work. I Love you, My little ones, I Love you.

Patrick:

Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

Thursday 11 March 2010

Jesus:

My sons and My children, give love in this Work that you do and offer it to Me in love and many souls will be brought to My Side.

My children, I say, trust in Me and allow Me to Teach you in My Ways. You are My children and I depend upon you to do this Work for very few want to know Me in these times and I must depend on few to do My Work.

You, My children, will know what I Teach soon for, soon, all will come to the fore. Trust in Me and allow Me the time to Teach you. I Love you, My children, I Love you.

Patrick:

Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

Feast of the

Most Sacred Heart

My children, I Love you and I thank you for celebrating this Feast of My Heart, this Feast of the Love of My Heart for all mankind. Promote this Love with all your heart for it is the essence of Me. Today, My Heart is open so that all the Treasures of My Heart are laid bare and the Streams of Living Water flow from it like a waterfall into the world. But, very few come to drink there.

Stay with Me in these dark days and let only My Heart be your guiding light for, without it, many stumble and fall. Many do not see that to love a child of Mine, is to love Me.

Keep this in your hearts, children, as you go about your daily lives for it is like a rock that you can cling to. I am the Rock, I am the Sure Refuge, I am the Sure Heart that can never fail you.

I ask of you to pay heed to all the Words I have given to you for, through your listening to My Words, and the living out of them, I can save many.

Have faith, My children, and open My Houses in Europe in earnest and do not be afraid to do this for they are neglected. Give Me your time and I will put it to good use. These are the little lights that will create an Army of Love to combat the evil that now reigns there.

Today, I do a new thing. I call upon My two sons and My servants to find My House in the city of the seat of power in Europe for there the prayer can thwart what they plan to do with the little ones as yet unborn. This I ask for quickly. Do not be afraid to do this for it is your gift to Me on this, My Feast Day.

I ask too that My Music becomes a spearhead in the promotion of My Love for see how I send them into the world to represent Me. They can go where others will not and still promote My Words. Help them to do this.

I call upon My children of faith to help financially to procure this House for Me. I tell you truly, that if My children stop their work for Me, I will continue to raise souls to carry it on. I Love you all. See, I am at the very gates.

Tuesday 22 June 2010

Jesus: I am Coming, My children, and you must be prepared. There is no time to waste for the Master is near at hand. Trust in My Words for they are given to light the path in these dark times.

Come, My little ones, let Me take you by the hand and guide you into the Kingdom of My Father.

Come, trust in Me for I am calling to you now in these Words.

Come, beloved of My Heart, come. I, your Jesus, Love you. Come.

Patrick: Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

Tuesday 22 June 2010

Jesus: Look to Me, My children, and see Me in all that you meet. Trust in Me and see the Truth that I speak of.

Love has grown cold and you no longer want to see My True Path rather you would listen to the false doctrines that are preached in this time.

No longer are you taught that you must fight against self in order to find the Truth. Self is your enemy and unless that you die to self you will never find Me. Turn against sin and come, follow Me, I am your God and I Love you.

Patrick: Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

imprisons. Read these Words and recognise what has already been predicted..."

Under the guise of doing good

In the last few Newsletters, we have tried to bring you the truth of what the European Union is trying to do under the guise of doing good but, as Jesus says, "...I tell her this day that only three countries within her will be made rich and one of these has been fatally wounded and lives again..." As far as we are aware, Greece is already in so much debt to the EU it seems that she cannot survive. Greece has become so indebted to the EU because of loans – so freely on offer – that she cannot pay them back, leaving her at the EU's mercy. It seems too, that Portugal is going the same way and, in our opinion, Ireland is not far away, the cost of living there seems to be rocketing. Doesn't it sound like what Jesus said on Tuesday 22 October 2002? "...She has imprisoned countries within her by trickery and soon countries that have been loyal to Me will split with Me and My Church in them will be ruled by men..." The thing most held dear by the EU is to take God out of our lives (as we have shown in previous Newsletters) and by imprisoning countries in debt is a sure way to dictate to them. Be Warned by Jesus Himself: "...Read these Words and recognise what has already been predicted..."

You cannot sit back and only pray

And, in the same Message Jesus tells us how we must fight to preserve His Precious Word: "...I tell you now that you must not spend your time in idle waiting but you must go out into the world and bring My Light to all the nations. You must save as many of My children as you can. You cannot think that you must sit idle as the servant has done. The servant went out and did the things that were against his master. This is not what I wish you to do! I wish you to be the bearer of the Good News of My Kingdom. You cannot sit back and only pray for this is not what I have asked for. Many of you sit in huddles and do nothing and you are afraid to believe that I have empowered you with My Holy Spirit. You have taken My Gifts and you have done nothing with them. You are like the servant that buried his talent and did nothing when he returned? Let Me remind you:

24 "Then the man who had received the one talent came. 'Master,' he said, 'I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed.

25 So I was afraid and went out and hid your talent in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.'

26 His master replied, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed?

27 Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

28 Take the talent from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents.

29 For everyone who has will be given more and he will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.

30 And throw that worthless servant outside into the darkness where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Matthew 25:24-30

Do you remember, children? Will you deny that I have spoken these Words? Even if you do not remember, I will remind you. All of these Words that I give you in this time are Warnings, My children. Remember that I have given Warnings in the past and you did not listen to them. I am calling you to become what you tell Me in your heart that you are. You tell Me that you are a good and faithful servant and I am asking you to prove your words..."

He wanted them

Jesus continued to speak of these and, it seemed, relentlessly marched on to procure these Houses in the places that He wanted them to be and, according to His

What Jesus said about Houses in Europe

The Houses of Prayer We, the two Patricks, in receiving Messages from Jesus, do not always have the understanding of the Message because Jesus chooses not to give it to us, for His own purposes. In other Messages, we have the full and sure understanding of what He wishes. From 2002 He had begun to speak of Europe and the Houses of Prayer that He would set up there. Tuesday 22 October 2002: "...Soon too, the emerging nation of Europe shall flex her muscles. She has imprisoned countries within her by trickery and soon countries that have been loyal to Me will split with Me and My Church in them will be ruled by men. I tell her this day that only three countries within her will be made rich and one of these has been fatally wounded and lives again. Once she was imprisoned and now she

...My Tongue is parched from crying out to the world. Will you cry out to the world for Me?

Help Me, children, build My Houses all over this world as a resistance to the evil that permeates through Europe at this time. Help Me, I beg of you.

Wednesday 4 July 2007

...I am in a great hurry – even if the world is not. Some of the Houses that I ask for need to be in place.

How can I convince you and My children just how important that they are?

Look for them, they are there.

The threat of Europe's growing might is tearing millions from Me. The lightheartedness of bishops and priests is a great threat as they water down faith in Me. All seems well on the surface but I can see underneath and, My servant, all is not well. I Love you.

Thursday 6 December 2007

Tolmin, Slovenia

My children, I Love you. I continue to further My Houses in this country that you call Europe. I move relentlessly on because time is short. I plant flowers across this country to prepare for the times ahead. Do not lose heart but help Me build them into little lights that shine in a darkness that evil has cast. They are My Footsteps that all can follow; they are refuges for all of you. It is not over yet for many stones are needed to step upon to cross a river safely. Look, My children, see the build up of the rapids. Do not be blind! You think you have freedom but you are wrong. I am giving you refuges where they cannot touch you: lights that shine in the darkness. Give Me your help for I am a Beggar who seeks alms; I am the ragged man who comes to your door seeking help. I need your hands and feet and lips to build My Light in this world.

This world builds up to crisis point and they hide it. They will control you, My children, you will not be allowed to love Me in freedom. What I have given to the world is now a burden. Help Me! I need you.

Wednesday 26 December 2007

Saint Stephen's Day

Listen, My children, to the cries of My Houses as they wait to bloom. They are the voices of children, crying out for their countries. They are appointed to be the sentinels of each country that they are founded in. But, they cry out for lack of use. Do not forget them. Go to them. They are My children and they are your children. Through them you will be able to bring My Words to each country that I send you to. They are stepping stones across a country (Europe) that should never be. My Houses are that country's conscience and My Words are the advice I give. Spread My Word, My children.

The earth is crying out as the burden of sin reaches its all time high. My Words will stop many from an eternity in hell, they will save. But I need many to carry these vessels of Truth into the world so that I can speak to My children. Your hearts are those vessels. Give Me all of your heart so that I might fill them with Good Things to give to My children.

The world calls you, children. This new year will see many of you deciding for or against Me. What will you choose? These are the times of hunger that I have already spoken of. My Words are your food in the times of the famine of faith. Lo! It approaches rapidly.

Saturday 19 January 2008

Day of Love

...I call you here, My children, to give you the Good News of My Kingdom, in the hope that you will carry it to the four corners of this earth. The world has need of My Words; you have need of My Words. I give them to you this Day as I have always done. I have given them to you freely, now, you must freely give.

...I am preparing My Houses, My Refuges, as I said I would. I have given you reasons why I prepare them. Come to Me; give Me the help that I need in these. I call to you and I promise nothing for your help, only what I have already promised in My Scriptures. Give of yourself.

I would share with you, My flock, that it is time to open all of My Houses for as many hours as you can give Me in your day. I still need your hands and feet and lips to do this. The Fire of My Love must burn bright in this new, created land of Europe for they will corrupt you away from Me, in fact, they have begun already. That is why I call you with urgency. I call you, will you come?

Friday 1 February 2008

Saint Brigid's Day

Patrick:

Jesus, do You wish to speak?

Jesus:

...Soon, Slovenia – that little jewel – will be another stepping stone across the mire that is Europe. ...Soon I will ask you to help Me to set up another House so that My Heart can further itself into the enemy's lair. Soon I will call all of you to go. Soon I will call upon your faith and you will have the choice to stay with the world or come with Me. What will your choice be?

Sunday 12 July 2009

...My Pleas for My Prophets, Visionaries and Seers have been ignored. They have found their own refuges, they ignore Mine. So be it! Unless I build the House, what you labour for is in vain.

My Houses are spreading far and wide into Europe and soon I will bring them into the world. Europe has become a cesspool of evil and even My own bathe in it daily. It reeks with the blood of faith and many choose to ignore it. The smell rises to Heaven and its pungency reaches My Father.

Come with Me, My children, love Me...

Friday 16 October 2009

...Patrick:

Jesus, I hear that the bishops of Ireland have said not to receive You on the tongue at Mass or not to give the Sign of Peace because of "swine flu." What do You say?

Jesus:

How it grieves My Heart when I see so many of My children who have turned their backs on Me in favour of this world. So few have faith or trust in Me.

Do they think that I cannot look after My children?

Do they not believe in My Power?

Do they not think that I can see that they have sold My Laws for a handful of silver?

Do they not think that they will have to stand before Me and do they think that I cannot see the things that are done and said in secret?

I say, turn away from your evil ways: repent and return to Me, even though your sin be of the blood of the innocent, I will wash you clean. Turn away from this world and come follow Me for I am Coming sooner than you think and you will answer for your deeds. The blood of the innocent cries out to Me for vengeance for you who wear the Robes of Truth have spilt their blood by your unwillingness to speak out and defend them in truth. Rather, you are more concerned with your purses and have sold My Truth to the kings of Europe.

These will be your downfall for they use your cowardly actions to ensnare you so that there will be no return.

Trust in Me now and return to My Truth; guide My little ones in Love and Truth. I will show you the path. Come, listen to My calls. I, your Jesus, Love you.

Patrick:

Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

Habit Message

Sunday 8 October 2006

The Lord's Sunday

...All of you, I have not called you to anything easy for My Work begins now. These Houses that I have asked for must begin to shine. It is not impossible for you to do this; it is you who make it impossible with excuses, with your attachment to the world. The world needs to see them in place and working or they will not believe that I am among you. All My Messages and promises to the world will not come to pass if My Light does not shine.

You have seen in the past weeks how things are turning away from the image that is portrayed; the other will begin to be seen now and you will have much to help you believe that I speak the Truth. Look to policies in Europe that will herald changes and you will see why I wish these Houses to shine. I Love you for the Work that you do for Me and I tell you that the Work will get more difficult but remember this:

18 "If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you.

19 If you were of the world, the world would love its own. Yet because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.

20 Remember the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they kept My Word, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things they will do to you for My Name's sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me.

22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 He who hates Me hates

My Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which no one else did, they would have no sin; but now they have seen and also hated both Me and My Father.

25 But this happened that the word might be fulfilled which is written in their law, 'They hated Me without a cause.'

26 "But when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of Truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify of Me.

27 And you also will bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

Jesus is moving rapidly

Jesus was in a big hurry

Many times we struggled to do this but we can say that Jesus is a Man of His Word. When we, in the House of Prayer, did not have the money to pay the bills, there was ALWAYS the money for whatever House in Europe needed paid for. From this we gathered that these Houses were important to Jesus for some Plan – as yet, not fully revealed. In fact, we were told between the end of 2009 and the beginning of 2010, there were two Houses to be procured. This proved to us that Jesus was in a big hurry.

On Friday 11 June, the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart, Jesus said these Words: "Have faith, My children, and open My Houses in Europe in earnest and do not be afraid to do this for they are neglected. Give Me your time and I will put it to good use. These are the little lights that will create an Army of Love to combat the evil that now reigns there."

He has spoken much about this over the years as on Monday 20 December 2004:

Patrick:
Jesus, would You like to speak?

Jesus:
Yes, My servant, I would like to speak. The need for My Houses to be established grows daily. They are the places which should be growing in holiness on a daily basis as the evil in the world grows also. I ask for these

John 16

1 "These things I have spoken to you, that you should not be made to stumble.

2 They will put you out of the synagogues; yes, the time is coming that whoever kills you will think that he offers God service.

3 And these things they will do to you because they have not known the Father nor Me.

4 But these things I have told you, that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you of them. And these things I did not say to you at the beginning, because I was with you.

John 15:18-16:4

Houses as places of holiness to counteract the growing evil. Much of Europe is lost to Me and I must break fresh ground. My people must help you in this.

There is a growing threat to all of the places that I have established over many thousands of years. I need people with hearts that are true to bring My Truth to this world. Many turn away from Me because of the false words that are spoken about Me.I am calling you, My children, to help Me. Help Me to save My children and your brothers and sisters from the fires of hell.

What do you do with My Words when you read them? Do they gather dust? Read these Words, already spoken:

1 Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus from Jerusalem and asked,

2 "Why do Your disciples break the tradition of the elders? They don't wash their hands before they eat!"

3 Jesus replied, "And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition?"

4 For God said, 'Honour your father and mother' and 'Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.'

5 But you say that if a man says to his father or mother, 'Whatever help you might otherwise have received from me is a gift devoted to God,'

6 he is not to 'honour his father' with it. Thus you nullify the Word of God for the sake of your tradition.

7 You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

8 "These people honour Me with their lips, but their hearts are far from Me.

9 They worship Me in vain; their teachings are but rules taught by men."

10 Jesus called the crowd to Him and said, "Listen and understand.

11 What goes into a man's mouth does not make him 'unclean,' but what comes out of his mouth, that is what makes him 'unclean.'"

12 Then the disciples came to Him and asked, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?"

13 He replied, "Every plant that My Heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots.

14 Leave them; they are blind guides. If a blind man leads a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

15 Peter said, "Explain the parable to us."

16 "Are you still so dull?" Jesus asked them.

17 "Don't you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body?"

18 But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and these make a man 'unclean.'

19 For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander.

20 These are what make a man 'unclean'; but eating with unwashed hands does not make him 'unclean...'"

Saturday 29 July 2006

Patrick:

Jesus, I have come to listen for Your Words since You have called me. I love You.

Jesus:

My servant, I Love you. I have called you to speak to you about My Houses. My servant, I tell you that faith in Me in Europe is very low and I wish to build it up again. There are many children there who do not know Me; the priests do not teach of Me in the way that they should. They only know little and that what they learn from others.

Yet, My servant, they are hungry; they are poor where faith is concerned. This burden, of teaching them, falls to a few. Few listen to what I have to say about these Houses and what I need them for. They are children without food', yet, there are so many with too much food. I plant flowers in poor soil² so that I can make them yield much for the harvest is great and the labourers are few. These flowers³ must be seen to bloom in My soil for this is how they will be taught. They must see My children making effort to show them that I am Alive.

I have spoken of things to come; of the events that will take place. I tell you that when all other buildings around My Houses have fallen, they⁴ will still be standing! This includes many of the churches that blaspheme Me. My children will need somewhere to hide from the tempest; in fact, they need it now. Already each country takes steps to push My Ways further away until they are only a myth.

It is up to you, My people who still believe in Me, to help Me with these things. The world calls loudly and many hear it and go with it. Like snowflakes that fall silently to the ground, they fall into hell. Is there no one to hear them? Let he who has ears, let him hear the screams that come from the pit because there was no one to hear them as they fell; let he who has hands, pick up his cross and carry it; let he who has feet, run to those in need and carry them back to Me; let he who has a heart, love.

Hear Me! Hear Me! Do not let My Words fall on deaf ears. You have been freely given, now freely give.

How would your life be without Me? How is theirs without Me? They do not know Me but you do. Are you willing to give of yourself for Me? Are you willing to help Me to save My children? Then come to Me. Give of yourself to help Me. I thirst, I thirst for souls. Do not give Me less than yourself; give Me all as I gave All to you and for you.

The burden that I ask of you is great, children, but there is so little time left.

Many years ago, Europe was also dying in the faith. A few⁵ were willing to go there with My Word to save it. I was able to save as much of it as was given to Me. In these days, if help does not come, I can only save a handful from never knowing Me. Help Me! I thirst for souls.

² The soil of Europe.

³ Those who are willing to help Jesus to do what He is asking.

⁴ The Houses of Prayer that He sets up.

⁵ We think Jesus is referring to the time of the Reformation in Europe.

Again on Friday 11 June, the Feast of the Most Sacred Heart, Jesus said these Words: "Have faith... Today, I do a new thing. I call upon My two sons and My servants to find My House in the city of the seat of power in Europe for there the prayer can thwart what they plan to do with the little ones as yet unborn. This I ask for quickly. Do not be afraid to do this for it is your gift to Me on this, My Feast Day."

This was a bit of a shock because we knew that Jesus was moving into the territory that was occupied by the European Union. What is He doing and why is He in such a hurry? We CANNOT wait to find out. If Jesus only chooses to tell us what He is doing and not why then we must simply do what He asks.

On Monday 21 June, four of us went to the city of the seat of power in Europe to find His House which is Brussels. We looked at various Houses and the last one we looked at Jesus told us that this was His House. The House is different from all other Houses that Jesus asked for in that it has been totally renovated. Usually, these Houses need much work and this surprised us. He told us where the Prayer Room was to be and where the altar was to be set up. He did not give a name for the House as He usually does. We understood from this that, at this time this is not important. What is important to Jesus is "for there the prayer can thwart what they plan to do with the little ones as yet unborn." So it makes sense that He only spoke of the Prayer Room. The House is not directly in Brussels but outside it and we feel that Jesus has His reasons for this. At the moment we have placed the lowest bid acceptable on this House which is €265,000. Now we must wait two weeks to see if it has been accepted by the owner.

As was said at the beginning of this article, we are not always given the understanding of Jesus' Messages but in the writing of this article and the studying of the Message I was allowed the understanding that the following extract from a Message was Jesus saying that He would take us to the enemy's lair. We believe that, with this new House in Belgium, He has entered it.

Friday 1 February 2008 Saint Brigid's Day

...Soon I will ask you to help Me to set up another House so that My Heart can further itself into the enemy's lair...

Since we have returned from Belgium, we have heard two interesting bits of news. In April, the news broke that the Belgian Bishop of Bruges has admitted to abusing a boy for many years while serving as a bishop, and has resigned from his post. The other was that the Freemasons are keen to open an office in Brussels "to lobby against the influence of religious organisations in the EU."

On Friday 11 June 2010 Feast of the Most Sacred Heart, Jesus said: 'See, I am at the very gates.'

THE FOLLOWING ARTICLE WAS PRINTED IN THE APRIL 2010 'ALIVE' NEWSPAPER

FREEMASONS ARE KEEN TO OPEN OFFICE IN EU CAPITAL

A SECTION of the Freemason movement is keen to open a bureau in Brussels to lobby against the influence of religious organisations in the EU, according to a report in EUObserver.com.

"The masonic orders should practise politics in the positive sense of the term. They must speak out on the side of secularism and voice their disagreement with this or that European decision," a leading French mason told the Belgian daily, Le Soir.

Jean-Michel Quillardet, former Grand Master of the Grand Orient de France, admitted that some masonic lodges were "shy" of attracting publicity by opening an office in the EU capital.

But, he added, "I think we will one day manage to create a general masonic delegation, for the sake of free-thinking in the European institutions."

He explained that there are already moves afoot to bring together all the lodges in Europe.

A pan-European masonic congress was held in Strasbourg in 2007, with follow-up meetings in Greece (2008) and Turkey (2009). The 2010 event will be in Portugal.

In 2008 EU Commission head Jose Manuel Barroso granted "representation for masonic orders and for groups which defend secularism, in Bepa," a high-level EU policy analysis unit.

At different times in the past few centuries Masons played a leading role in trying to destroy Christianity, and particularly the Catholic Church, in various European countries.

And, in 2005, a book on Masonry published in Spain claimed that Freemasons are playing an "enormous" role in the European Union.

By way of example, author César Vidal noted that "the project of the European Constitution was driven by a Freemason, Valéry Giscard D'Estaing," who excluded from the document "all mention of the continent's Christian roots."

Anti-God sentiments

In the last few Newsletters, we have read about the anti-God sentiments that are brewing throughout the world but particularly in

STAND UP AND BE COUNTED

Europe, this new "country that should never be." Wednesday 26 December 2007

Feel completely helpless

While reading these Newsletters you may feel completely helpless to do anything about this because, as you will have read, there does not seem to be any justice or fairness for Christians; indeed more and more we are seen as the enemy that must be stopped, not listened to or given a voice in equality, but stopped. At all costs, God must be removed, from our constitution, from our society and even from His own churches. As Jesus said, "...Slowly, slowly I am being wiped out in many places because My people cannot face their guilt in their denial of My Truth. They push Me further away from them because they realise that if they deny Me then they can deny their sin to themselves..." Sunday 16 March 2003

Does not want God

This world does not want God, it does not want a conscience, it does not want to believe that sin is a very real thing and that we all have an immortal soul that one day will have to stand before God and give an account. Never mind the world, but Jesus is even being pushed out of His own Church! That Church that was built with His Blood, that Church that He has Lovingly tended throughout the years with His Words, His Prophets, Visionaries and Seers, His Saints, His Miracles, His endless giving of Graces and so, so much more.

Do you love Jesus?

Anyone of us who loves Jesus would want to stop this hurt to Him. Anyone who loves Jesus would want to appease His great Pain by, at least trying, to save the many souls that are now falling into hell because the Truth is being denied to them, wouldn't we? Do you love Jesus? Do I love Jesus? Let us take a moment, a silent moment before God. Let us close our eyes in this present moment before Jesus and ask ourselves this question in the very Truth. Do I love Jesus?

A challenge

This question is a challenge, for if you love someone you will do anything to relieve their pain. If your child or your parent or spouse or whoever it is that brings love out in you, if they were dying for lack of water, if it was within your power, would you not walk to the ends of the earth and back again to get it for them? To relieve their pain, to bring them some comfort, to let them know that you care? Now ask again, do I love Jesus? Am I prepared to ease Him, to fight for Him? So what CAN we do? Are we powerless to do anything? I do not think that we are for all the answers that we need are in the Messages and indeed in the Scriptures.

Prepare

From the very beginning Jesus has told us to prepare, to stay awake and keep watch and pray that we are not put to the test. During His Life on earth, as recorded in the Gospels, Jesus laid down the path that all followers of His should follow. That path is the path of self dying, of sacrifice, of love.

Fasting and Prayer

From the earliest Messages, Jesus told us to prepare and I suppose not many of us understood, really, what

He was talking about. On Wednesday 21 April 1993, Jesus said, "The days slip away, My child, My Justice will soon come. Prepare yourself for it by much fasting and prayer. The days become darker and you do not notice it. Give Me your life again for I have need of it. These children of Mine who know Me will have much sorrow in these days for they will reach much tribulation at the hands of unbelievers. They will suffer much; that is why they must prepare themselves willingly by fasting and prayer..."

Jesus' Instruction

Here is Jesus' Instruction to us. Prayer and fasting. What is Prayer? It is our communication with Him. Without communicating with Him, how can we know what Jesus wants of us? Through our prayer Jesus builds our strength and our willingness to follow Him. It is an essential part of this Battle. If we build without the Lord, we labour in vain. Without prayer, anything that we try to do is useless. Consider also why Jesus asked us to fast. What are the benefits of this? Fasting, quite simply, is dying to self. It is denying the body so that the soul gains control over the body rather than the body over the soul. Remember what Margaret Mary Alacoque said: "... When you have a rest from dying to self and allow the tiniest bit of comfort, then self invades and the battle against it is lost. What you do not realise is that each time that self is denied, then in proportion, a part of the soul comes alive..." Saturday 16 October 1999

We become stronger

As we fast we become stronger over the self that rules us. It is self that makes us sin so if we can master our self, then we can stop sinning. If we can stop sinning, we take a little of Jesus' Burden off His Shoulders, we also take a little darkness out of the world.

On Sunday 7 August 1994, Jesus said, "...This world's greed for money, for possessions, for lust, for gain has caused the unlove that I speak of. My little ones, I ask you to change this in your own lives and thus begin a change. From a tiny flicker of fire come great forest fires that destroy all in their path. You can be this tiny flame of Light to save souls in this world. The harvest is great but the labourers are few..." Jesus is asking us followers of His in this Message to die to our own lust, to our own greed and thus begin a change. By changing ourselves, we are showing the world, by our example, by the way that we live our lives, how to follow Jesus.

The way we dress

This Message applies to all the sins of our life, whatever they may be. It is standing out from the crowd and saying no, I will not live my life this way because it displeases God.

Take for example the way we dress. Jesus recently said "...Sex also is controlled by a few. As you already know, the clothing that you buy is controlled by this because everything that you buy is sexual in its nature..." Saturday 5 June 2010, for the servants of the House

Both men and women

The truth of this stands on its own. Many years ago within the House of Prayer Jesus asked us all to dress modestly, both men and women. When He gave this Message I was quite young and I cannot tell you how difficult I found it to find modest, 'nice,' clothes in any of the clothes shops. I remember the feelings and the resentments this used to cause me, that I had to dress this way! It was particularly difficult in the hot weather. The truth is I found it difficult because I didn't really want to do it. When my friends and I went out for the night, we used to feel like no fella would ever even look at us because there were so many girls who were scantily clad making them much more 'attractive' to young men's eyes. Then there was the issue of no sex before marriage! Even if a man did look at you, once he found out that you would not sleep with him until you were married then you definitely had no hope!!

Jesus asked for this

What I didn't really see at the time was the reasons that Jesus asked for this. The way we dress can cause many, many sins from man lusting after woman, to woman lusting after man; from man lusting after man to woman lusting after woman. I remember listening to a radio programme where a woman who was working with prisoners was talking about immodest dress in children. She said that in many cases of paedophilia, the perpetrator of the offence had said that the way the children were dressed had enticed them. She said that of course in no way does this justify or excuse what was done or make the children guilty of something, but that the way we dress can awaken the weaknesses that may be in another man.

Even at Mass

I speak here of this immodest dress because even at Mass on a Sunday, some of the clothes worn are entirely unsuitable and I believe cause much sin. Imagine causing Jesus this Pain at His very own Church where He again gives us His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity: "...You cannot find Truth or see Truth in your lives for Truth is not promoted within your societies. Your governments spew lies and you accept them as Truth. Pornography has become a way of life for you. Your children feed the spirits of lust in the way that they are dressed. I look down from My Tabernacle and I watch the spirits of lust, the spirits of desire, the spirits of deceit, masturbation, greed, vileness, uncleanness, bestiality, untruth, blasphemy and many others running freely among My congregation. They laugh, throwing blasphemies and abuses at Me for you have invited them in, in your free will..." Sunday 17 August 2003

We are being dictated to
This is such a very subtle thing. Most of us would not realise that we are being dictated to about even what to wear, by what is available in the shops, by what the media says is attractive or acceptable. Society's general dress is anti-God. So one way we can change darkness into Light and fight the spirits of lust is to always ensure that we dress modestly. Let no one sin on our account in this way.

Being brainwashed
In a very subtle way, I believe we are being brainwashed and controlled and dictated to. I believe that the way we live our lives is being controlled by those who govern us, and who governs us now, but Europe. The European court is telling us now what is acceptable and what isn't. Not God. Europe is subtly telling us how to think and as in Patrick's vision (see page 32), most of us are lying down and accepting it. Look at how the tide turns away from the land. Things are changing. Look at how morals and values that have been held as truth from the beginning of time are now seen as discriminatory and judgemental!

The list is endless
Europe is telling us that homosexuality is a right and those who oppose it are homophobic; God tells us it is a sin. Europe is telling us that abortion is a necessity and a right; God tells us it is murder. Europe is telling us that we need more, more, more; God tells us to have only what is needed. We are told about the greenhouse effect and global warming and all the disasters this will bring, every European country must cut its carbon footprint; Jesus says the earth convulses under our sin.

The list is endless.
Never grow used to sin
We must never grow used to sin. We must not accept these things but keep the Truth alive in our hearts. We do this by living it in our daily lives; may our very hearts and souls become safe houses for the truth.

One way
The way we dress is only one way of fighting the cancer of sin that is in the world and spreading. If we take a good look in truth at ourselves, the many sins we commit every day will become apparent to us. All of these sins need died to for no spot or stain can enter Heaven. Before we pay back one wrong word with another, think to ourselves, what would Jesus do in this situation? He would pay back with a Blessing thereby stopping the evil in its tracks from spreading to anyone else. This little discipline of pulling back when we really want to say something decreases darkness in the world and spreads peace. There are many thousands of examples that could be given here. We each know our own weaknesses. It is simply a matter of disciplining ourselves and not giving in to them.

Television
Another way of dying to self is to stop watching television. Offer that time instead to prayer or to doing good works in our streets. "...Look, children, look and see the spirits of lust are able to run freely through your society. Everywhere you look, you can see sin being advertised. To watch two children who are in the darkness of sin, performing the act of adultery on your televisions, allows spirits of lust to enter your homes. The television, which I have called the evil box that sits in the corner, has been responsible for the deaths of millions of My children. It is it that allows the spirits of greed, lust, homosexuality, violence and many, many millions of different spirits to enter freely into your homes. You sit and watch the fictitious lives of others and your hearts are filled with desires; with dreams of wealth, anger, murder, lust, greed. I could go on and fill a book with the desires, the sins, that this false prophet promotes to you. Can you not see, children? Can you not stop and think, 'what is happening?' Look, children, and I say again, LOOK. Open your eyes and see the Truth. Millions of My children sit in the act of masturbation as they worship this false prophet. This is a grievous sin, children. I have told you within My Scriptures, My Gospels, "But I say to you, that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her, has already committed adultery with her in his heart."... Matthew 5:28 Wednesday 28 May 2003

Army of Little Souls
It is by dying to little things in our everyday lives that we become the Army of Little Souls that Jesus has been longing for. As we do these things we become vessels that Jesus can work through to gain other souls. As Jesus said on Friday 27 August 2004: "...My Heart is Love and its primary function is to pump Love into the world for all mankind. Its fuel is the Love of a Father for His children, so many forget this. What I have given to My Dove, Margaret Mary, is the real beginning of My Heart in this world and through you and your brother I continue to make My Heart known. In order to make it known, it must be spoken, just as My Word must be spoken. A Message written sits until it is read but a Message spoken makes it really live. When it is spoken it draws many to My Side. I still wish an Army of Love; an Army of Little Souls who would love Me in return for the Love that I give to the world. This little Army would love Me in the times when no one else did. They would be prepared to love Me within their hearts at all times, especially in these times when love in the world has grown cold. That Army would fight with the Love that I have taught through these Words of Love. They would know the Truth and they would live it. Because of the Truth within them, they would never be swayed by the world but would continue loving Me, even if it meant losing their lives for it. My Heart swells with Love at the thought of all these Lovers of My Sacred Heart doing what I have asked them to do. They would never let an opportunity pass that required the Truth to be spoken. Love is what I am, My servant, and Love is what I give to the world but My Love means nothing anymore in the world, that is why I give it to you to promote. If I could find this Army of Little Souls, My Heart would be in joy always.

Patrick:
Jesus, I wish that I could find these Little Souls for You, to see You in joy would make me happy. Thank You for the understanding of all this that You give me in my heart. I give my heart to You to, in some small way, make up for Your Little Army.

Jesus:
Thank you, My servant, for these words. Your heart has been Mine for a long time now and I have written many Words on it; some for you alone and some for the

The Army of Little Souls leaflet

This leaflet contains the beautiful Message that Jesus poured His Heart out in, lamenting for these Little Souls to develop, becoming like Saint Thérèse, and bring many souls to His Side. Jesus also gave a prayer for His Army which is printed in this leaflet. It will be available soon.

world. The Words that I have given for you and your brother personally, are the Words that My Little Army should learn from. It is not an easy task because I expect much from them in the Way of Love. This path is a way of much suffering in many ways but always a contentment, and a peace deep in their hearts. How I wish that all My children would love Me in this way. Silent lovers living in this world but not being of it; this is My Hearts Desire. All of you, deepen your love for Me and My Ways. Continue to love Me and I can bring all of this about. There is such a hold on the world at this time that this Army would be like a channel of many Graces that I would pour through them for the healing of this world. Within the darkness, there would be Light, within the Love, there would be healing. Oh! How I wish the fire were lit already!

Patrick:

Oh, Jesus, I wish that I could light that fire!

Jesus:

By doing My Will you are, My servant.

The Light of My Love and My Heart has not yet dawned on this world but the tip of it can be seen through these Messages of Love. It is like the sun rising over the horizon, its tip is not yet over the edge. Bask in its Light, My children. I Love you..."

A massive enemy

Europe seems like a massive enemy, how can any one of us make a difference? Remember, there were only twelve Apostles to convert the whole world!

It is these things that we all, as followers of Christ, should have been doing all our lives whether we are living in the end times or not. It is by doing these little things that we decrease the darkness in this world and so multiply Gods Light. It is our sacrifice of doing these things that gains Graces so that other souls can be helped and saved. It is by doing these things that we show our contempt for the world, for the way Europe tries to dictate how we live and worship. It is in these things that we refuse to bow to the pressure that the media, the world, the devil dictates to us how to live. First change all these things in our own lives then others will see by our example what we have learned from our God, our Creator.

Now, do I love Jesus?

Now, do I love Jesus? How much of myself am I willing to give?

campaigns were one sided and biased in favour of the EU's own agenda. One propaganda pamphlet claimed the EU "is delivering a better life for everyone." 'Open Europe' argued that people need to know what is happening in Europe "but the EU has proved unable and unwilling to provide neutral factual information." These kinds of attitudes, the "secretiveness" and "positive propaganda" only serve to make me very concerned. Although it seems subtle, nevertheless it is very dangerous because it is not the full truth.

The smoking ban

An example of how dangerous it can be is the smoking ban which is at the moment just for indoors in public places but look at how the propaganda concerning it has infected the whole of our society's way of thinking about smokers and smoking.

Second class citizens

Thirty years ago it was trendy, and done in all the old movies and advertised on thousands of billboards. By a little propaganda, money and law changing this popular pastime became a taboo in the consciousness of the population to the extent that for smokers it is difficult to get equal medical attention. In effect, they have become second class citizens. Why is this so dangerous? Listen to what Jesus says: "...Laws that curtail the movements of a man are oppressive laws that usher in the laws of the one who sits where he should not be..." Saturday 1 July 2006

A false sense of self worth

These kind of oppressive laws, coupled with the propaganda and deception that goes with them are how in fact the Nazis began their propaganda war, it was also very subtle at the onset. I can remember reading that Hitler gave the German people a false sense of self worth creating for them the industries and commerce which propelled Germany into an arrogant and deceived nation. He also gave them a scapegoat to hate, i.e. the Jews. Anything which is born out of such hatred, untruth and deception takes away the gift of free will which God saw fit to bestow on all mankind.

Nazism

Isn't it strange that I have become an antisocial law breaker if I pull out a cigarette in a shopping centre or pub to have a smoke and yet at the same time I can openly abort as many thousands of children as I see fit under the same rule of law? What is going on there? Can't smoke but can commit murder - a bit too close to Nazism don't you think! The smokers being the ones to hate, the babies being the ones to incinerate. How do you think this kind of thinking is going to progress? For my part,

I believe that our society can only degenerate into something even worse.

How it was possible

I have often wondered how it was possible for the Nazis to achieve so much evil without being stopped. Last week I happened upon a book by the Italian writer and Holocaust survivor, Primo Levi. He survived Auschwitz and wrote about his experiences. He says: "But there is no rationality in the Nazi hatred: it is a hate that is not in us; it is a poison fruit sprung from the deadly trunk of fascism but it is outside and beyond fascism itself. We cannot understand it, but we can and must understand from where it springs and we must be on our guard. If understanding is impossible, knowing is imperative because what happened could happen again. Conscience can be seduced and obscured again - even our consciences.

For this reason, it is everyone's duty to reflect on what happened. Everybody must know, or remember, that when Hitler and Mussolini spoke in public they were believed, applauded, admired, adored like gods. They were charismatic leaders; they possessed a secret power of seduction that did not proceed from the credibility or the soundness of the things they said but from the suggestive way in which they said them,

Warning us

In the last two issues of the Newsletter, we have read about what Jesus has been saying to us about Europe and what is going on there. He has been Warning us about the great deception, the control of the few over the many and the anti-Christian attitudes that are now so prevalent there. As far as I can understand, the EU is achieving, by propaganda and deception, its goal of dictatorship and control.

Propaganda

In an article published by the 'Alive' Newspaper in June 2010, I read that the European Union spends 2,000 million per year promoting a positive view of itself to Europe's population. In fact they spend more than the Coca-Cola worldwide advertising budget! Researchers found that the information from their eloquence, from their histrionic art, perhaps instinctive, perhaps patiently learned and practised. The ideas they proclaimed were not always the same and were, in general, abberant or silly or cruel. And yet they were acclaimed with hosannas and followed to the death by millions of faithful followers, among them the diligent executors of inhuman orders, were not born torturers, were not (with a few exceptions) monsters, they were ordinary men. Monsters exist but they were too few in number to be truly dangerous. More dangerous are the common men, the functionaries ready to believe and to act without asking questions, like Eichmann, like Hoss, the commandant of Auschwitz; like Stangl, commandant of Treblinka; like the French military of twenty years later, like the Khmer Rouge of the late seventies, slaughterers in Cambodia. It is therefore necessary to be suspicious of those who seek to convince us with means other than reason, and of charismatic leaders: we must be cautious about delegating to others our judgement and our will."

God given right

This extract helped me to understand that it is indeed very possible for us to once again delegate to others our God given right to free will and freedom to practice our faith. Jesus Himself has Warned us that what happened with the Jews not so long ago is happening again.

"...Before, in history, there was a dictator who tried to take over it and he did much damage. I tell you that what is happening now, in secret, is the same but under a different name; a seemingly better name but the results are the same. A few countries will control the rest and among them will be the one who was wounded and lives again. The other countries will destroy the faith of all if I do not put these Plans of Mine into action. Do not listen to those who tell you that it is good for, what looks good on the outside, is not always necessarily good on the inside..." Saturday 29 July 2006

Become a faceless dictator

For me personally this new Europe has become a faceless dictator overruling each individual country's laws to make a great authoritarian state. I have placed here another quotation from Primo Levi's book.

"In an authoritarian state it is not like this. There is only one Truth, proclaimed from above, the newspapers are all alike, they all repeat the same one truth. So do the radio stations, and you cannot listen to those of other countries. In the first place, since this is a crime, you risk ending up in prison. In the second place, the radio stations in your country send out jamming signals on the appropriate wavelengths, that superimpose themselves on the foreign messages and prevent you hearing them. As for books, only those that please the state are published and translated. You must seek any others on the outside and introduce them into your country at your own risk because they are considered more dangerous than drugs and explosives, and if they are found in your possession at the border, they are confiscated and you are punished. Books not in favour, or no longer in favour, are burned in public bonfires in town squares. This went on in Italy between 1924 and 1945; it went on in National Socialist Germany; it is going on right now in many countries, among which it is sad to have to number the Soviet Union, which fought heroically against fascism. In an authoritarian state it is considered permissible to alter the truth; to rewrite history retrospectively; to distort the news, suppress the true, add the false. Propaganda is substituted for information. In fact in such a country you are not a citizen possessor of rights but a subject, and as such you owe to the state (and to the dictator who represents it) fanatical loyalty and supine obedience.

It is clear that under these conditions it becomes possible (though not always easy to deeply violate human nature) to erase great chunks of reality. In fascist Italy the undertaking to assassinate the socialist deputy, Matteotti, was quite successful and after a few months it was locked in silence. Hitler and his minister of propaganda, Joseph Goebbels, showed themselves to be far superior to Mussolini at this work of controlling and masking truth. However, it was not possible to hide the existence of the enormous concentration camp apparatus from the German people. What's more it was not (from the Nazi point of view) even desirable, creating and maintaining an atmosphere of undefined terror in the country was part of the arms of Nazism. It was just as well for the people to know that opposing Hitler was extremely dangerous. In fact, hundreds of thousands of Germans were confined in the camps from the very first months of Nazism: Communists, Social Democrats, Liberals, Jews, Protestants, Catholics the whole country knew it and knew that in the camps people were suffering and dying."

Anti-God death camp culture

This quotation reminds me of the European stand on abortion and the fight Ireland has to keep her Catholic roots when being opposed by the greater European "anti-God death camp culture." Have we become what the Germans have been who saw it but did nothing? Listen to what Jesus said to Patrick about the bishops of Ireland about their instruction to the Irish Catholics during the swine flu pandemic.

"How it grieves My Heart when I see so many of My children who have turned their backs on Me in favour of this world. So few have faith or trust in Me.

Do they think that I cannot look after My children?

Do they not believe in My Power?

Do they not think that I can see that they have sold My Laws for a handful of silver?

Do they not think that they will have to stand before Me and do they think that I cannot see the things that are done and said in secret?

I say, turn away from your evil ways: repent and return to Me, even though your sin be of the blood of the innocent, I will wash you clean. Turn away from this world and come follow Me for I am Coming sooner than you think and you will answer for your deeds. The blood of the innocent cries out to Me for vengeance for you who wear the Robes of Truth have spilt their blood by your unwillingness to speak out and defend them in truth. Rather, you are more concerned with your purses and have sold My Truth to the kings of Europe. These will be your downfall for they use your cowardly actions to ensnare you so that there will be no return..."

Evil thrives

Remember, evil thrives when good men do nothing.

I remember reading about an American teacher who was trying to teach her class about the dangers of racial prejudice. She asked the class to divide into two, the blue eyed children were placed on one side and the brown eyed children on the other. During the course of the week the brown eyed children were given less privileges and treated as less equal by the blue eyed children. At the end of the week the brown eyed children were very subdued, in other words they had internalised their 'second class-ness' and began to behave as though they were inferior. After the time allotted for the experiment the blue eyed children were given the same 'treatment.' At the end of the experiment the children had understood about the indoctrination that they had received through this experiment. I believe that this is what happened to the Jews. An archetypal story of this internalisation process is the ugly duckling by Hans Christian Andersen. Because he appears different from the other ducklings he is looked down upon as ugly. For him outer evaluation became inner evaluation. The story of the ugly duckling intimates a deep spiritual truth of our nature, namely that we can only see ourselves in the eyes of another. However, as creatures made in the image and likeness of God, this means that we will only find our true identity in the Face of Jesus who mirrors back to us our deepest self, where we can see the 'I am-ness' of ourselves reflected back in the Face of Jesus. This is why the Little Flower used to cry out to Jesus, "Your Face is my homeland."

Walls of prejudice

As Christians, Jesus Teaches us to direct our gaze inward, private communication with God as He did Himself when He left the crowds to be with His Father.

I believe that in this way, we obtain the strength and Grace to change because God helps us to do so and when this process is going on it becomes not so important to us to seek the approval of others but rather the approval of God.

I also believe that in this way we can become better able to understand our individual walls of prejudice and fight against them. This for me, is part of what Jesus is trying to Teach us when He talks about dying to self, and why it is so important for us to love one another. If we were able to improve on this then He could do wonders in the world - and in Europe.

With Jesus Teaching us His Way, we could become a strong and loving race. Don't we owe it to Him who Died for each and every one of us to step out of our comfort zones and try?

What to do

As Christians, it is our responsibility to search for the Truth and to live within the Message of the Gospel, by loving God and our neighbour as ourselves. We have a serious responsibility to speak out against injustice at every level wherever we find it, though in a loving and Christian manner. To speak out against injustice is in essence loving God and our neighbour.

Must take priority

It becomes a necessity to a Christian to refuse to accept unjust laws to defend the Laws which God laid down because they, for the Christian, must take priority over man-made laws. To completely change within ourselves everything which offends against God and charity, even if this means being executed or worse. Often to swim against the tide, against society, for love of Jesus and our neighbour.

Example of Jesus

Jesus, Himself, is the example of how to do this. For many of us, this will mean being mocked, laughed at or imprisoned. The fact that Europe has moved so far away from God and His Laws has to be extremely dangerous. At this time, very few Christians are doing anything to change it.

Did nothing

What comes to my mind about Primo Levi's book is how the population saw much of the atrocities but did nothing. Once again power and money bought their silence.

What on earth makes us think that it couldn't or wouldn't happen again? Where are all the Christians who should be standing up in protest about Gods Laws being overturned in Europe at this time? When will we decide to do something? Or are we too busy reaping the benefits of our materialistic world?

Auschwitz

At Auschwitz, the victims laid down and went to the gas chambers like human beings who were devoid of hope. One example of this attitude was when one evening there was a selection of those who were to go to the gas chambers the next morning. A young man was selected to be murdered and an old man beside him was not. When they both went back to their huts the young man lay on his bed in total shock, the old man however came into the room, knelt down in front of him, thanking God that he missed this selection and was spared. He didn't seem to notice that his young friend was beside him and listening, so caught up was he in his own self preservation.

Selfishness in all of us

This, to my mind, is an example of the kind of selfishness in all of us, one of the many things that Jesus wants us to change. By radically changing ourselves from within, we can become a light in the darkness of this selfish world. This is the dying to self that Jesus speaks of.

Maximilian Kolbe

In Auschwitz, around the same time, there was a beautiful example of Christian love in the person of Maximilian Kolbe who was a priest that chose to change places with a man who was selected to die in order that the man might live because he had a wife and family. Maximilian Kolbe was living the Message of Christ.

The narrow path

This is the way that Jesus asks us to follow Him, the narrow path, to dare to be different, stand out from the crowd, to bring His Light to the nations in a Revolution of Love. To be Him in a world filled with unlove.

If we do not do something to change ourselves then it is very likely that we will end up once again, as the Germans watching the Jews being thrown out of their homes, losing their jobs, rail-roaded to the death camps.

How we can fight this evil
Jesus has given us lots of Instructions on how we can fight this evil that is ever encroaching on us Christians and on our neighbours. We need to begin this Revolution of Love, hold steadfast, die to our sin, love our neighbour - enough to tell him that he is in error; see Jesus in everyone and forgive our enemies deeply - from the heart.

We should follow the One and only true Charismatic Leader because, unlike the false leaders who helped the population to die, Jesus Died to help the population to live, thus proving His Love. Maybe this is one Leader that we can trust! Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in Thee.

Another step in the Battle

Free to love and serve

Dying to self is an essential part of the spiritual journey. As Jesus told us in the Messages of Love: "...If you do not treat the dying of self as highly important then you will go nowhere. I Love you. Meditate these Words." Wednesday 22 September 1999

For me to die to myself means surrendering my interests as a sole individual, and so being free to love and serve all in the spirit of love.

The voice inside me

Self is the voice inside me that screams to be obeyed. To break free from the self takes the decision to follow 'another way.' I work in a school where the children are given a 'way' to behave within the class. I can spot the children who have adapted to the 'way' of the class. They give up their selfish whims and the class moves together in harmony. They have a sense of keeping to that 'way,' and of working for the good of the class as a whole. We too have been given a 'Way' of love. We have a sense of selfishness and a sense of the needs of others. We too can choose to go against our own selfish whims and be free to love and to serve others as a whole in the law of love.

The first thought

The soul is an entity whose sole purpose is to love. It is often invaded by thoughts. If the thoughts are selfish then the soul is stopped in its Journey of Love. The invasion begins a battle. The soul can be led away with these 'nice' selfish thoughts or it can choose to fight the temptation off. The outcome of the battle often critically lies in the very first moments with the first thought. In this moment lies the critical decision, to listen or dismiss. If the soul quickly and decisively kills those thoughts then the invasion is quashed and the soul remains on its journey of love. If the soul allows the thoughts to enter its heart and mind in any way, then the soul is led away from God.

No hold over me

For every temptation that comes to take us away from our path to God the answer is to cut it off immediately. To then do the exact opposite of the temptation or to contemplate the opposite virtue can lead the soul to even safer ground. For example, if I am tempted to judge and condemn someone, instead I see Jesus in them and raise them up. For every temptation of greed, instead we can turn to God in thanks for all the good things He has given to us. For every thought of giving up, instead we could think of the joy we will know when we reach Heaven when we choose to persevere. For every lustful thought we have, instead we can acknowledge the real truth – that there is nothing to be desired more than Jesus. For every thought of pride, we could realise that of ourselves we are not good and that all good comes only from God. For every thought of anger we can dispel them within us with meekness and gentleness. If I have these in my heart then anger can have no hold over me.

Tools against our selfishness

Fasting, prayer and penance are great tools against our selfishness. If I am fasting, the self is being denied the comfort of food and so self begins to diminish within me. Prayer is communication with God. It brings us into the realms of the spiritual in place of the material and renews our strength against self. Penance and sacrifice also deny self its will and weakens its hold upon us.

Three keys

In the Way of the Sacred Heart we take on Love, Humility and Obedience in our lives to help us on our spiritual Journey. These keep us safe from the control of self. If I act in love of others at all times then there is no room for me to act in self. If I am in humility at all times then self is avoided again. If I act in obedience to God at all times then I am not following self. These three keys offer sound and assured protection against the wiles of self if we are willing to live them truly.

Vigilant for the first whisper

Each of us has our own individual set of weaknesses, our own personal voices of self, that try to break us on our journey. It is important that we are honest with ourselves and to acknowledge that we have them, otherwise we can never overcome them. It is important that we train ourselves to be vigilant for the first whisper of an attack. Then we will have the ability to make the clear decision for Jesus or against. He is there also with us in these moments for He never leaves us. He is there to fight for us and with us and He is our goal. He is our Peace and Ultimate Joy. He is worth every moment of the journey of the dying to self.

because she didn't do anything to stop this murder. As it says in our Catholic Catechism:

Abortion

2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognised as having the rights of a person - among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life...

2271 Since the first century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion, that is to say, abortion willed either as an end or a means, is gravely contrary to the moral law: You shall not kill the embryo by abortion and shall not cause the newborn to perish.

God, the Lord of life, has entrusted to men the noble mission of safeguarding life. And men must carry it out in a manner worthy of themselves. Life must be protected with the utmost care from the moment of conception: abortion and infanticide are abominable crimes.

2272 Formal co-operation in an abortion constitutes a grave offence. The Church attaches the canonical penalty of excommunication to this crime against human life. 'A person who procures a completed abortion incurs excommunication latae sententiae.' 'by the very commission of the offence', and subject to the conditions provided by Canon Law. The Church does not thereby intend to restrict the scope of mercy. Rather, she makes clear the gravity of the crime committed, the irreparable harm done to the innocent who is put to death, as well as to the parents and the whole of society.

2275 Since it must be treated from conception as a person, the embryo must be defended in its integrity, cared for, and healed, as far as possible, like any other human being...

The Daily Mail's story

Here is the Daily Mail's story on the event, which you will see takes the side of abortion and criticises the Church:

U.S. Catholic Church facing uproar after excommunicating nun who saved pregnant woman's life by letting her have an abortion

By Paul Thompson
Last updated at 12:14 AM on 3rd June 2010

The Catholic Church in the U.S. is facing uproar after excommunicating a nun who saved the life of a pregnant woman by letting her have an abortion. Sister Margaret McBride was also removed from her job as a hospital administrator after choosing life over religion.

After choosing death over religion more like, after all, she orchestrated a murder!

Sister McBride had given permission for a mother of four to have an emergency termination when she was rushed to Saint Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix, Arizona, eleven weeks into the pregnancy.

Poor Saint Joseph, another hospital named after him that refuses to turn to his Son Jesus for help and healing!

Doctors said the woman was suffering from pulmonary hypertension, an illness that could have killed her and her unborn child.

Let me emphasise "could have!"

Terminating the pregnancy was the only way to guarantee the mother would survive.

"...The only way to guarantee...?" Had they tried prayer...in this "Catholic" hospital? Had they even given her treatment during her pregnancy or did they just kill the baby as a quick fix

UPROAR AFTER EXCOMMUNICATING NUN WHO CONSENTED IN THE MURDER OF AN UNBORN CHILD

Americans were in uproar I recently heard on the news that a nun in America, Sister Margaret McBride, had been excommunicated because she had given permission for a patient, in the hospital she worked in, to have an abortion. Americans were in uproar because the priests responsible for the excommunication were deemed as hypocrites after all the scandals in the Church.

First of all, I'd like to say, Sister Margaret McBride excommunicated herself

Eleven weeks in the womb solution?

As hospital administrator at the Catholic hospital, Sister McBride gave permission for the abortion to proceed.

She consulted with colleagues on the hospital's board before allowing the termination go ahead. The woman survived.

Was there not one among them to stop the abortion, to stop the nun from going ahead with this murder?

Despite being described as 'saintly' and the 'moral conscience' of the Catholic hospital, Sister McBride was excommunicated from the Catholic Church by Phoenix Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted for supporting the abortion. And rightly so!

If Sister McBride is described as "'saintly' and the 'moral conscience' of the Catholic hospital" by her colleagues, and she gave permission for an abortion, it seems that the workers are secular, not Catholic at all.

What chance is there of Jesus being in that hospital, He must have been sent packing years ago. Just like Saint Joseph's Hospice in London, His Light no longer shines there, faith has diminished in favour of the world.

'She consented in the murder of an unborn child,' said the Rev. John Ehrich, the medical ethics director for the Diocese of Phoenix.

Thank God for Rev. John Ehrich and Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted for speaking the Truth to the media and telling it to the world! At least these two priests are courageous and chose life over backlash, they chose Jesus over their own popularity. God Bless these priests, we could do with more like them.

'There are some situations where the mother may in fact die along with her child. 'But - and this is the Catholic perspective - you can't do evil to bring about good. The end does not justify the means.'

That is so true. I hope I am never in the situation of deciding but, as Jesus says so many times to us in the Messages, we must trust Him. We cannot play God ourselves. As a woman, I can't understand why someone would want to kill their baby to save themselves.

So many times doctors and nurses have been so wrong in their diagnosis and been responsible for abortions.

Some babies have been diagnosed with Downs Syndrome, thankfully the parents kept the baby and the baby was born without Downs!

I think I would take the risk of putting my own life in jeopardy before killing another because, at the end of the day, I do want to go to Heaven! Is that not what the Saints desired? Is that not what our moral conscience tells us. Is that not the example Jesus set when He gave up His own Life when He Died on the Cross - for the benefit of everyone else? Is that not what our spiritual directors and our religious guides should be reminding us about?

Hospital officials backed McBride's actions.

There's obviously not too much Catholicism going on in this "Catholic" hospital! This group of people involved in the decision to abort the baby are all backing each other up. If Sister Margaret McBride was such a 'saintly' nun, she would have done all she could to prevent the murder of the unborn baby but instead she listened to these worldly 'professionals' and not to Jesus.

A spokesman for the hospital said: 'In this tragic case, the treatment necessary to save the mother's life required the termination of an eleven week pregnancy.'

Killing an unborn child can never be seen as a 'treatment' as it lessens the gravity of murder.

Surgeon John Garvie said: 'Let me assure all that there is no finer defender of life at our hospital than Sister McBride.'

'Everyone I know considers Sister Margaret to be the moral conscience of the hospital.'

'She works tirelessly and selflessly as the living example and champion of compassionate, appropriate care for the sick and dying.'

'Any suggestion to the contrary is misguided and frankly outrageous.'

'I am very disappointed to read that Sister Margaret's role at the hospital has been reassigned. This leaves the impression that she did something wrong.

'What she did was something very few are asked to do; namely, to make a life-and-death decision with the full recognition that in order to save one life, another life must be sacrificed.'

Friends of the Irish born nurse have accused the Catholic Church of hypocrisy as it takes years for priests who sexually abuse children to be excommunicated.

No, there's obviously not much Catholicism going on in this "Catholic" hospital!

I can't help but feel the American Church, along with a lot in the rest of the world, are using the scandals in the Church as an excuse to leave it and point an accusing finger.

Again I say, I don't believe that it was the priests and the bishops who excommunicated her, it was the laws she pledged her life to follow, the Bishop and priest simply spoke the truth!

Automatically excommunicated

The following extract was published in the Huntington Post on the same incident. It is the part where the Bishop explained that the nun was automatically excommunicated because of her own actions and involvement in the abortion. The Bishop also states that he is concerned that there was another abortion carried out in another "Catholic" hospital in his diocese.

"...Bishop Thomas J. Olmsted, head of the Phoenix Diocese, indicated in a statement that the Roman Catholic involved was "automatically excommunicated" because of the action. The Catholic Church allows the termination of a pregnancy only as a secondary effect of other treatments, such as radiation of a cancerous uterus.

"I am gravely concerned by the fact that an abortion was performed several months ago in a Catholic hospital in this diocese." Olmsted said in a statement sent to The Arizona Republic. "I am further concerned by the hospital's statement that the termination of a human life was necessary to treat the mother's underlying medical condition.

"An unborn child is not a disease. While medical professionals should certainly try to save a pregnant mother's life, the means by which they do it can never be by directly killing her unborn child. The end does not justify the means."

Olmsted added that if a Catholic "formally cooperates" in an abortion, he or she is automatically excommunicated..."

reiki - instead of Jesus

In our April 2010 Newsletter, we wrote on how the London based Saint Joseph's Hospice is no longer Catholic as it turns to Eastern alternative therapies such as reiki - instead of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament for healing. We now see Catholics in America backing abortion!!! We can clearly conclude that Catholic institutions are failing to remain Catholic, never mind shine their light to the nations!

Hard for the heart

The pregnant woman suffered from Pulmonary Hypertention. (PH) is:

"...increased pressure in the pulmonary arteries. These arteries carry blood from your heart to your lungs to pick up oxygen.

PH causes symptoms such as shortness of breath during routine activity (for example, climbing two flights of stairs), tiredness, chest pain, and a racing heartbeat. As the disease worsens, its symptoms may limit all physical activity.

...Three types of changes can affect the pulmonary arteries and cause PH:

- The walls of the arteries tighten.
- The walls of the arteries are stiff at birth or become stiff from an overgrowth of cells.
- Blood clots form in the arteries.

These changes make it hard for the heart to push blood through the arteries and into the lungs. Thus, the pressure in the arteries rises. Also, as a result of the heart working harder, the right ventricle becomes strained and weak. The heart may become so weak that it can't pump enough blood to the lungs. This causes heart failure. Heart failure is the most common cause of death in people who have PH.

...Usually, other diseases or conditions, such as heart and lung diseases or blood clots, cause PH. Some people inherit the condition. In some cases, the cause isn't known.

PH has no cure. However, research for new treatments is ongoing. The earlier PH is treated, the easier it is to control.

Treatments include medicines, procedures, and other therapies. These treatments can relieve PH symptoms and slow the progress of the disease. Lifestyle changes also can help control symptoms.

Successfully given birth
Pulmonary Hypertention can be fatal for a pregnant woman and the unborn baby, I don't deny that. I know that some pregnant women with PH have died, I know that abortion has relieved the symptoms of PH in pregnant women, but I also know that the majority of women suffering from PH have successfully given birth to healthy babies!

As a Catholic, I firmly believe abortion is never an answer and should never be considered and a Catholic nun should also proclaim this!

Aborted at eleven weeks

Self rules

It just seems to me that the world has influenced us all so much, we are letting it take over. We are all becoming so blind to Jesus' Ways. Self rules because we permit it. Jesus Warned us of this:

"...Look at Me. This world casts itself headlong ever deeper into sin and further away from Me.

My Churches are emptying and at an ever increasing rate and all are so blinded by this world that very few can see what is happening. I Love you, My children, and do not want to see you putting yourselves in this danger. Trust in Me and come back before it is too late, the blinder you become, the harder it will be for you to return..."

Sunday 9 November 2008

And:

"Look to Me, children, in these dark times that you now live in. The darkness in the sin of this world becomes darker as each day passes and mankind becomes ever blinder. Soon, My Justice will strike this earth in order to wake mankind up from the blindness that he has brought about by his own sin. Look at the Truth. Look around you. Look at your own lives and see what is happening. This earth is becoming a very evil place where only a few of My Lights remain. I am Coming, will you be ready, children? Will you be ready to face Me in Truth? Look, children, I am your God and I am Coming. I announce My Arrival through My Prophets as I did in the past. Prepare, children, prepare, I am Coming. I, your God, Love you..."

Before it's too late

We need to all be so careful in these days that we too are not blind. We need to look at ourselves in truth at prayer everyday and read Jesus' Word and absolutely live them to the letter before we too fail Jesus, before it's too late.

APPEAL

We are sorry that we find ourselves in such debt that we have to encroach on your goodness and generosity once again.

At this time, we are finding great difficulty within the Sacred Heart House of Prayer to pay the rent, and the bills are mounting. The upkeep of the other Houses of Prayer in Europe has put a drain on the Sacred Heart House of Prayer lately.

We ask for your unfailing prayers so that we can continue to do the Work that Jesus has asked us to do.

Also, we hate doing this but, if you have the means, we would be most grateful to any financial help you could spare. Thank you. God Bless.

We continue last month's appeal as we are still faced with debt. We acknowledge those of you who have so generously sent in donations, we sincerely thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

However, we cringe to say, more of your help is needed. We are struggling to pay the rent each month and post this Newsletter, and...as you will have read in the Message Jesus gave on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, He wants a House of Prayer in Brussels!!! So much help is needed and again, we turn to you to help us fulfil these Plans from Jesus!

All we can do is trust Jesus. He knows what He is doing.

IT IS COOL TO BE GAY, AND UNCOOL TO BE A CHRISTIAN

IT IS COOL TO BE GAY, AND UNCOOL TO BE A CHRISTIAN

Big Brother

I was watching 'Big Brother' last night and the house mates were nominating who they wanted out. A lot of them nominated Dave, the only Christian in the Big Brother house, because he said he would not marry a same sex couple.

His Christian views on gays

Dave is a Welsh Christian minister and was asked by Josie his views on same sex marriage, he was truthful and told her that it was immoral and against the Bible. It was actually Josie who nominated him because of this, because he had voiced his opinion in front of the gay people sitting round him. The others in the house nominated him as well because of his Christian views on gays.

There are thirteen people in the big brother house at the minute and about half of these are gay, bisexual or thinking about it. Most of the rest are open to it. Dave, the only Christian, is on his own it seems.

A promotion of sin

I don't like talking about this show as it is just so sleazy but what clearly comes across is a promotion of sin, this sin in particular.

What gets me is that at the last national census, 2001, seventy two percent of the UK population is Christian, and there's such a small percentage of gay people; yet on this show, you would get the impression that half the young people in country are gay and it's accepted, and it's wrong to have any other view. This show clearly determines how Big Brother's young audience's mind ought to think of gays – that it is cool to be gay, and uncool to be a Christian – as demonstrated in the way the housemates often ostracise and even victimise the Christians on the show.

We do not have an actual percentage of gays in the UK because the NATSAL (National Survey of Sexual Attitudes and Lifestyles) in 2000, have broken it down to people having experiences (8.4% for males and 9.7% for females) to people having a same sex partner in the last five years (2.6% for both male and female). Gay people claim about twenty percent of the population are gay, Christians claim there's about three percent, but no one knows for sure because, I suppose, some try it and some grow out of this sin, etc. and so, it depends what you ask people when calculating the percentage.

It is a sin

Whether society agrees with homosexuality or not, Jesus does not. Here's what He said in 2003:

"...My children, I will speak of homosexuality for I hear much talk of this within your world. It is a sin in My sight, children. I did not create man to lust after man or woman to lust after woman. This is the trickery of lucifer, he wishes to destroy all that I have created. he uses this sin to mock Me, to taunt Me. I hear many of you say; what if you fall in love with someone of the same sex. I tell you, children, lust is not love. Love is pure and without blemish. Have you become so blind that you cannot see through the lies of lucifer? I destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah because of this sin. Do you expect that I have changed My Mind in these times? No, child, I gave the Gift of union so that man and woman could become one and so new life could be conceived in this union. It would be a giving of love to one another. Two of the same sex cannot produce life in union, they can only produce death eternal for their union is darkness and has not been given from Me.

Look how your society has accepted this sin so freely. Look how so many who argue for this sin, also argue for the murder of the innocents in abortion. Sin begets sin, love begets love. I say enough, do not believe anyone who tells calculating the percentage.

The Plight of Others

The Prostitute

The Plight of Others

The Prostitute

The reality of South Africa

I recently watched the documentary "WAGs, Kids and World Cup Dreams" where wives and girlfriends of footballers faced the stark reality of the orphan crisis, HIV pandemic and the social breakdown in South Africa.

They were 'behind the scenes' if you like in the real South Africa, working in crime-ridden townships, brothels, and various other poverty stricken areas. The world cup is hosted by South Africa this year and the footballers and millions of tourists will probably only see the wealth and the beauty of the long sandy beaches and luxury hotels.

A vast divide

They probably won't see the poverty of families living without basic everyday essentials, such as a roof over their head; the runaway boys living on the street to escape domestic violence at home, often sniffing glue; the young people forced into prostitution; the thousands of orphans - some with HIV, some in good health - some abandoned by their parents, others handed in by parents who were too sick with HIV to care for them; the many, many drug addicts and alcoholics; the poor living conditions of so, so many.

Oppressed

The native people of South Africa, the blacks, have been oppressed for so long and sadly there is still a vast divide between the rich and poor, white and black.

The brothel

On this documentary, one scene really touched me. Two of the WAGs, Ellie and Elen, were sent into a brothel to teach the prostitutes about safe sex. I was disappointed they didn't teach them about chastity which is the greatest weapon against HIV and AIDS! The WAGs didn't expect to be listened to by the prostitutes.

The brothel had thirty women working and living there, some as young as sixteen. More than half of them raise their children there.

The building stank from having no sanitation, no electricity and no running water. There were used heroine needles lying on the ground.

Pointlessness

One WAG, Ellie, was so overcome by the smell of marijuana that she hardly made it up the stairs, she had to come down for air. She felt the pointlessness of it, the hypocrisy, but after composing herself, she went back in to do what they had set out to do.

Melissa

A nineteen year old girl called Melissa approached the WAGs asking them how they could help her and her three month old baby. The WAGs were obviously moved by Melissa seeking help and had a chat with her.

She told them she was HIV positive but her baby was ok and she no longer felt the brothel was safe to bring up her baby. She said she was tired of the life she led and wanted out but had nowhere else to go. She couldn't go home as there was problems with her parents - her mum wasn't nice to her and had slashed her face with a knife. There was problems with the father of her baby as well. She had no where else to go and turned to them for help.

First time in two years

The WAGs told her they would 'rescue' her and went back to their base to make calls to get Melissa and her baby lodgings. One of the challenges the 'New Life Centre,' the WAGs base, faces is there is limited government help and few places for the likes of Melissa, who wants to leave prostitution. Some places couldn't give her sanctuary because she had a baby, as was their policy. After some disappointing refusals, eventually a woman running a 'safe place' agreed to take Melissa and her baby in to lodge for three months. Thank God!

Cried with joy and relief

Melissa and her baby were collected and taken there. The relief on her face when she was being picked up was so apparent and moving that it would have brought tears to a stone.

She cried with joy and relief when she arrived at her new room. That night was the first time in two years that she didn't have to work as a prostitute, and the first time in her baby's life that she wasn't in the environment of marijuana and heroine.

People to be there

All it took was some people to be there and take an interest in her! And she was rescued.

Where was the Army of Love?

The tears ran down my own cheeks when I watched this and one question hovered in my mind: where was the Army of Love?

Why can't it be the 'followers of Jesus' instead of the 'WAGs' that helped her? Why did it take rich girls, teaching prostitutes how to put on a condom, that rescued this teenager from a brothel? Where are the followers of Jesus? Where is their love? Why weren't they in this dark place bringing the Love of Jesus, shining His Light?

Jesus' Love

Sunday's Gospel reading was a great Teaching on Jesus' Love.

Jesus was at Simon's house, a Pharisee, the 'cool' place to be invited to dine in town. Then a woman came in, renowned in town as sinful, someone you just didn't associate with in case your own status was contaminated. Here's the reading:

36 And one of the Pharisees desired Him to eat with him. And He went into the house of the Pharisee, and sat down to meat.

37 And behold a woman that was in the city, a sinner, when she knew that He sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment;

38 And standing behind at His Feet, she began to wash His Feet, with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head, and kissed His Feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 And the Pharisee, who had invited Him, seeing it, spoke within himself, saying: This Man, if he were a prophet, would know surely who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth Him, that she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering, said to him: Simon, I have somewhat to say to thee. But he said: Master, say it.

41 A certain creditor had two debtors, the one who owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And whereas they had not wherewith to pay, he forgave them both. Which therefore of the two loveth him most?

43 Simon answering, said: I suppose that he to whom he forgave most. And he said to him: Thou hast judged rightly.

44 And turning to the woman, He said unto Simon: Dost thou see this woman? I entered into thy house, thou gavest Me no water for My Feet; but she with tears hath washed My Feet, and with her hairs hath wiped them.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss; but she, since she came in, hath not ceased to kiss My Feet.

46 My Head with oil thou didst not anoint; but she with ointment hath anointed My Feet.

47 Wherefore I say to thee: Many sins are forgiven her, because she hath loved much. But to whom less is forgiven, he loveth less.

48 And He said to her: Thy sins are forgiven thee.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves: Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And He said to the woman: Thy faith hath made thee safe, go in peace.

Luke 7:36-50

This clearly suggests, the followers of Jesus should snub no one.

Associate with the lowly

I feel the media control this world and the outcome of our actions. Newspapers, magazines and the television are responsible for pointing out what's cool and what's not, what's in fashion, and what's not.

Also, our pride, makes us feel compelled to be around the beautiful, rich, popular people. We make all the time in the day for them. But Saint Paul instructed, associate with the lowly:

16 Being of one mind one towards another. Not mind high things, but consenting to the humble. Be not wise in your own conceits.

Romans 12:16

Not the healthy who need a doctor

From the earliest Messages to the two Patricks, Jesus has been directing us to the dark places for, as He said in the Gospels, it's not the healthy who need a doctor: 10 And it came to pass as he was sitting at meat in the house, behold many publicans and sinners came, and sat down with Jesus and His Disciples.

11 And the Pharisees seeing it, said to His Disciples: Why doth your master eat with publicans and sinners?

12 But Jesus hearing it, said: They that are in health need not a physician, but they that are ill.

13 Go then and learn what this meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice. For I am not come to call the just, but sinners.

Matthew 9:10-13

Die to myself

What I have learned from watching that documentary, seedy and all as it was, is that there is so many in our world needing to be rescued, needing help, needing love and acceptance, and they will not be reached when I'm sitting watching TV. If I don't overcome my own fears, my repulsion to stench, to fleas and rats, to sinners, to who I'm seen to be with, to my discrimination, they will never be found - in other words, I need to die to myself!

Jesus could rescue many

Jesus has so much Work for us to do. He sees so much suffering, so much pain that could have been avoided. If He had flexible, co-operative followers, willing to go wherever He sent them, open to Him and filled with His Love, always willing to disregard self, Jesus could rescue many from sin, from hell.

...As the child grows, it begins to learn about the world around it, soaking up the good but also the bad. Because there is so much sin in this world, then it soaks up more bad than good. It learns more about the society that it lives in more than the God who created it. With all this knowledge, it can see perfectly in the worldly sense but the spiritual becomes blinder and blinder and no provision is made for it.

....If a man is attached to anything, and I say any thing, upon this earth then he stifles his progress to becoming spiritually able to see. This is where many of My children find the stumbling block. Many will say, 'Surely, Jesus would not ask for that!'

I tell you now, My children, that I ask for everything. From the beginning, I asked for everything and I made it clear within My Scripture. I meant what I said.

This is a hard teaching. It is not easy for you to give up what you consider as your life and your much needed 'things.' I tell you that the things that you need, cause poverty all over this world because you do not 'need,' you 'demand.'

This is why you do not make spiritual progress because you do not die to what you want. You only die to the things that you think that you can do without...

A SERIES OF VISIONS GIVEN BY JESUS

In November 2009, Patrick had a series of visions in the new Retreat House in Ballina, he took down notes of what he saw:

Many changes Upheavals People will change Not liked HOP too Soldiers no boots just sock things all green not leafy HOP will change because things left undone will not come to pass Lightning will split it Too late for many Because of things undone or done Can't happen what was meant to Changes will depend on new plans if carried out if good or not Fear, things must be put right as Jesus wants IMMEDIATELY Not a threat Result of what we did or did not do a little time given to catch up Hearts need to change Attitude	WE MAKE THESE NOT JESUS BY OUR ACTIONS Not Jesus Look at things not done – Do this stop everything and Newsletter if necessary MUST MUST No one allowed in the way or nothing Much deceit oh how much deceit little truth We can fill seats in chapel if we look at these things and do them Need to do them Now Immediately a little time left This is a place of seeings When unblocked Like a drain dirty water will come clean when running stones in drain/river is Jesus cleansing but we must run over Him through It begins but we must clean up our act. Like yard Remember what He has taught. All of it.	Much fear. We should be in fear. Weather different changes not global warming but us our fault. Dictator rising – beast Revelation. Things pushed through over people People lying down – HOP too if no change – others walking on them like mats Hundreds millions same thinking should not be We can change that by truth Save save people. Run fast as in a race – a race we must win – we must work quickly before we are forced underground Concert – church Gods Plan part of changing Look deep, look deep into us for our learning is the answer what we have learned help us to change.
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

We realise these notes are very short hand but that was the nature of the visions - they were very fast.

The destruction of My Church continues

Destruction of My Church
The Message of 26 April 2010 really made me think about what is happening in the Church at this time. Jesus says in this Message "The times are dark now as the destruction of My Church continues from within and without. Look, My children, as they pull it apart like an angry pack of dogs. This has been their plan and they have placed the deceivers within My Church in order to fulfil what they have planned for many years. Their father is pleased with what they have done and believes that he can destroy Me in his blindness."

Fear to speak the Truth
The first thing that came to mind was the very sad abuse scandal that has destroyed the credibility and reputation of the Church all over the world. Lives of the victims and victims' families have been ruined. Many have left the Church and have lost respect for the priests. Do priests fear to speak the Truth now in case they are looked on as hypocrites? Was this part of the evil one's plans?

Priest recommending yoga
In other areas it seems that priests and religious are trying to steer people away from Jesus to false spiritualism. Jesus said way back on Tuesday 10 October 1995 in a secret Message to Cardinals and Bishops: "...You see, My sons, the Truth cannot die. No matter how much you try to stop it, it cannot and will not die.

I, the Lord, God Sabaoth, the First and the Last, address the Churches through you. I tell you that I AM is returning for I am weary of My shepherds for they do not lead My sheep in the Way that I have taught them.

...Many of you have gone against My Servant, your Holy Father, and you lash out against My Laws that he has made for the world. Many of you walk the evil path of freemasonry and you have cut Me off from My Own Body. I am being removed from My Churches and it is you who do it. Your own pride will judge you.

Freemasonry has rotted My Body, My Church. It has clung like a cancer to the very cells of My Body. It slowly strangulates It and you have stood by and allowed it to.

Can you not look and see that My Body is diseased and dying? I send My two Prophets into this world to rebuild My Church. It crumbles, it falls..."

Recently a work colleague of my sisters had heard her priest recommending yoga to the congregation. She approached the priest after Mass and told him that yoga was not from God. The priest did not take the criticism well and he verbally attacked the woman telling her to get out of the church and never to come back. She was extremely shocked and upset at his reaction but unfortunately this is not just an isolated case.

Dilute our faith

In a parish newsletter of a nearby church there are also worrying things going on. A nun in this particular parish is advertising healing, reflexology, Indian head massage and other 'energy therapies.' No mention of Jesus' healing. Why have the priests not stopped this advert? Why are they looking towards man-made therapies and trying to take us all away from God? Why are they trying to dilute our faith and make us no longer believe in the healing of Jesus? No wonder faith is dwindling if even our so-called religious no longer believe in Jesus' healing and miracles. I have come across two Catholic schools fund-raising through 'ladies pampering days' where reiki is one of the treatments on offer. No wonder many are left confused as to what is right and wrong.

Sex education guidance

In England a prominent Pro-Life group found it disturbing that the Catholic Education Service, an agency of the Catholic bishops' conference of England and Wales, had both welcomed and helped draft the government's sex education guidance. The draft guidance was full of anti-life and anti-family evils. Routes to these evils were to be established in both faith and non-faith schools in the Children, Schools and Families Bill. Luckily this has not come to pass but, if it had done, it would have aimed to push sex education on children from the age of five, teaching children things that they do not need to know and things that were inappropriate for their ages.

Not enough true shepherds

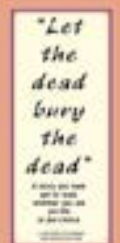

It seems from this that we cannot even look towards our bishops for direction and guidance, the sheep are scattered and there are not enough true shepherds to lead us back on the right path to Jesus. However we know that Jesus is the true Shepherd and He shows us the path to Him through the Commandments and Scripture. If we remain true to His Teachings then we will remain true to Him.

Destroy all darkness

Jesus always gives us hope and at the end of this Message He says: "Trust in Me, children for soon I Come to destroy all darkness and claim what is rightfully Mine. Come, children, and follow Me. I, your Jesus, Love You." What greater hope can we have than that! Thank You, Jesus!

Abortion Testimony

"Let the dead bury the dead" is a leaflet containing a true story of a woman who aborted her baby. It's a very moving story and one of regret. It is an effective tool in the fight against abortion. It is available free of charge. For your copy, please contact the Sacred Heart House of Prayer.

IMPORTANT!

Manning the other Houses of Prayer - Help Needed!

Jesus has asked that the other Houses of Prayer are manned now because they are needed.

There are five Houses that need manned. We simply do not have enough servants to do this so we are asking any of you who can, to please volunteer to man a House for one month with a servant.

This is a great giving and it is something that Jesus wants. Please, if you are available, contact us here at the Sacred Heart House of Prayer. Thank you all and God Bless you.

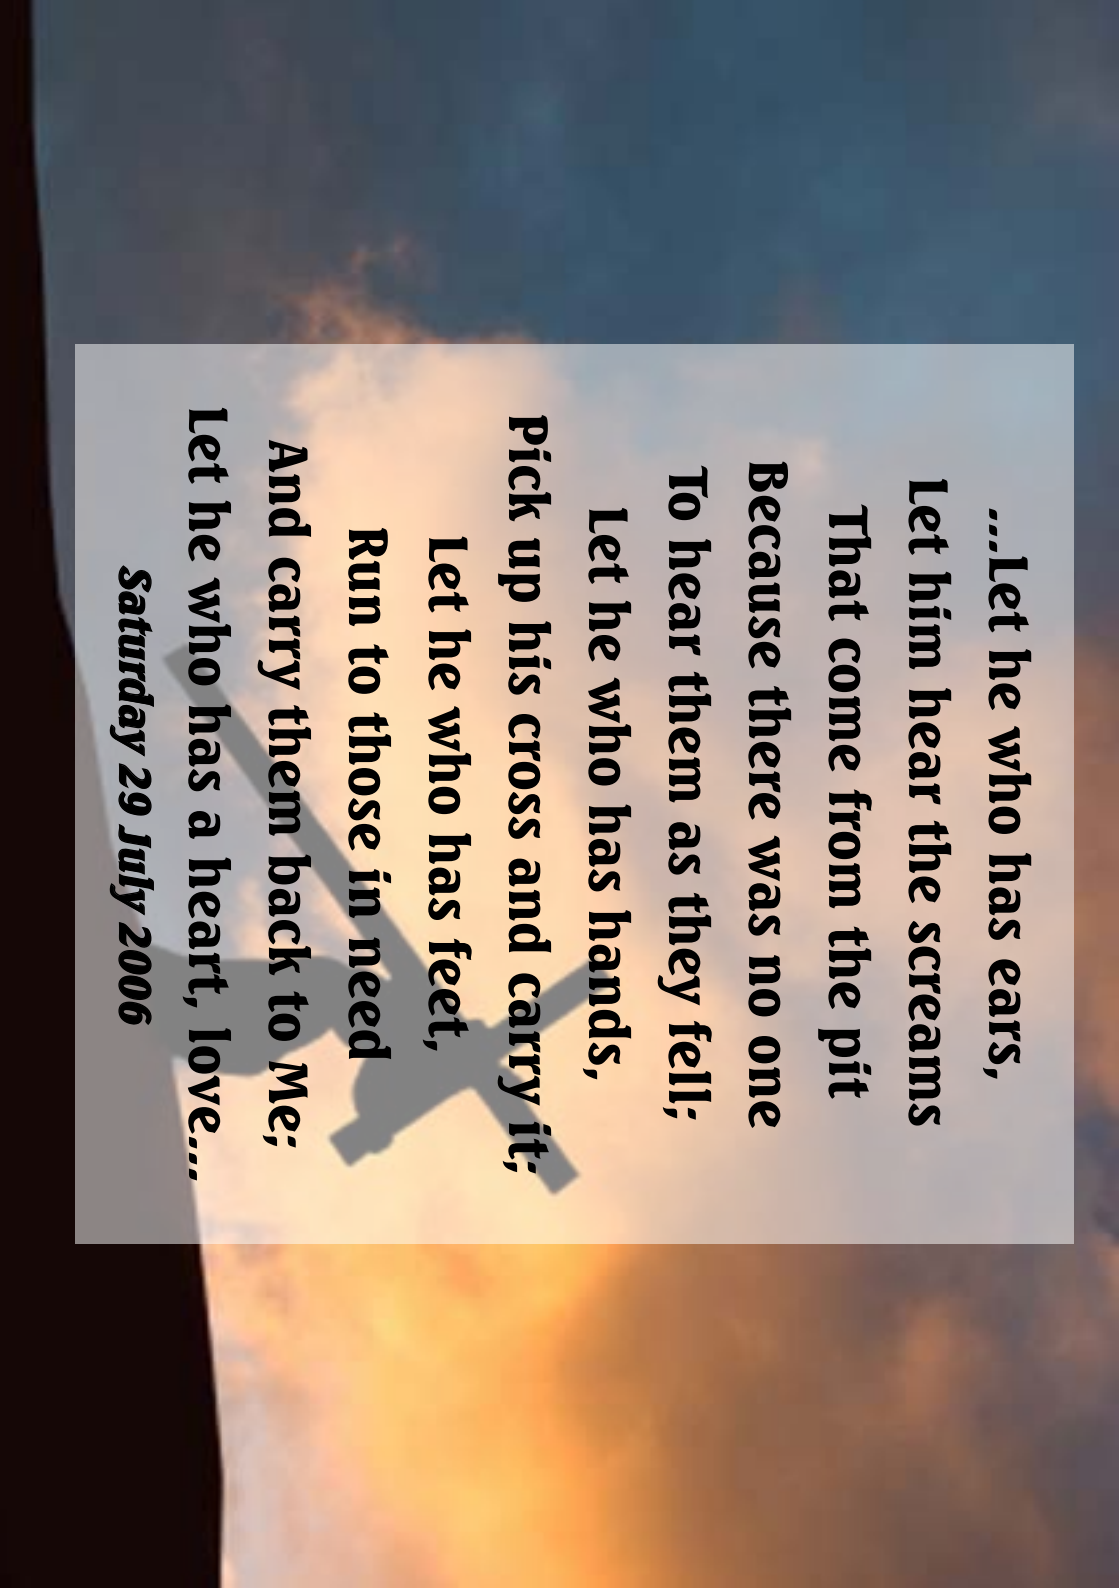

Sunday 29 April 2007

...Tell My children of the Houses that I have asked for. Tell them that I need their hands and their hearts in this that I have asked for. I ask for one that will give Me a month of their time so that My Saint Maximillian can be filled. I have had to call My servants from it so that the threat that still looms over My Stanislaus could be lessened and, in doing so, My France suffers. I ask for one who will go with a servant and live there under My Messages for one month. Who will heed Me?

Wednesday 26 December 2007

Listen, My children, to the cries of My Houses as they wait to bloom. They are the voices of children, crying out for their countries. They are appointed to be the sentinels of each country that they are founded in. But, they cry out for lack of use. Do not forget them. Go to them. They are My children and they are your children. Through them you will be able to bring My Words to each country that I send you to. They are stepping stones across a country (Europe) that should never be. My Houses are that country's conscience and My Words are the advice I give. Spread My Word, My children.

...Let he who has ears,
Let him hear the screams
That come from the pit
Because there was no one
To hear them as they fell;
Let he who has hands,
Pick up his cross and carry it;
Let he who has feet,
Run to those in need
And carry them back to Me;
Let he who has a heart, love...
