An Invitation to Love Jesus Newsletter Messages of Love June 2020 Issue 289

Editorial

Front cover

The front cover picture is the Child Jesus, King of Love. You can read about this image in the article 'Mother Yvonne- Aimée de Jésus.'

The Messages

Jesus lifts us up in the Messages this month. He tells not to despair and to trust and believe in Him. He tells us that His Disciples, too, doubted and failed in many ways but won through by their perseverance.

On 6 June 2020, Jesus Warned us that we took down the shield of protection when the Churches closed and He tells us to prepare for His Truth!

On the Feast of the Sacred Heart, 19 June 2020, Jesus reminds us to renew our consecration to His Heart. He also asks that we spend our free moments intimately there, in His Heart which constantly Burns with Love for us.

Consecration Prayer

On Wednesday 3 June, Jesus spoke again about the Consecration prayer that He initially gave in March this year. He asked us to continue to say it as "It is like the blood on the lintel of the doors in ancient times." He goes on to tell us that the power of this prayer is, as yet, unknown. For this reason we have left this important prayer on the back cover of the Newsletter and would encourage all who can to say it as often as possible. Copies are available on prayer cards.

Lock down update

Things seem to be changing, slowly and hopefully, before long, we will all be back to business as usual. We hope to have a full Newsletter next month. Details of how the House of Prayer continues to operate during this time can be read in the Sacred Heart House article at the end of this Newsletter.

- POLAND PILGRIMAGE

Due to the current situation, it is with regret that we have to inform you that our Pilgrimage to Poland, scheduled for September, is now CANCELLED.

God Willing, we look forward to returning to our annual pilgrimages to Garabandal in June 2021 and Poland in September 2021.

We will give more updates on next year's Pilgrimages over the coming months.

God Bless.

The Messages of Love

as given to the two Patricks

Tuesday 2 June 2020

Believe, have faith and do not despair. My Disciples had many doubts and failed in so many ways but they won through in perseverance.

I have told you this road is a hard one but the rewards are outside your imagination and belief. So, fight for the Truth in your lives and persevere to the end and your reward shall be great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Trust in Me and stay with Me, children.

I Love you.

Wednesday 3 June 2020

My children, I am crying out to you to have faith in Me and believe. In all these years that I have spoken to My two, I have told you of things that would happen, My Words have been faithful, they are coming to pass.

11 And I saw heaven opened and behold, a white horse and He who sat on it is called Faithful and True and in righteousness He judges and wages war.

12 His eyes are a flame of fire and on His head are many diadems and He has a name written on Him which no one knows except Himself.

13 He is clothed with a robe dipped in blood and His name is called The Word of God.

Revelations 19:11-13

I Am Faithful and True and I Come soon!

I Am the One whom the world has persecuted, I, who am Faithful and True.

Enter as you would enter a door, into prayer with Me. Embrace the Love that I have for you and become One with Me in prayer. This is the Time of Prayer, the time for you to pray in Spirit as I have told you:

23 "But an hour is coming and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers.

24 "God is spirit and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.

John 4:23-24

So, My children, pray in the spirit of your hearts. Come away with Me as you close your eyes in prayer at all times: in moments that are Ours and Ours alone. Seek not to know the times and dates of things to come for you will become so enamoured with them, you will forget Me, you will see only times and dates, you will lose sight of the Holy Spirit who dwells within you. Seek only to know that you are a friend of the Most High. I Love you.

Wednesday 3 June 2020

My children, continue to say the Consecration Prayer that I have given to you. It is like the blood on the lintel of the doors in ancient times. You have one among you who is more powerful than Pharaoh and much more evil, one who pulls the many strings of the puppets of those who serve him. Continue to say this prayer for its power is, as yet, unknown. Spread it to those who do not know it for, if they say it with a heart filled with repentance and humility, I will hear them. This prayer is not just for now but it is forever. I Love you.

The Consecration Prayer and the Message that came with it:

Tuesday 24 March 2020

My children, do not look to the fear. If you do, it becomes your god and it controls you. Seek Me instead, in your hearts.

In times to come, there will be much more for you to get through.

That is why I say to you:

18 There is no fear in Love but Perfect Love casts out fear because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in Love.

1 John 4:18-19

So, My children,

"Do not be afraid, little flock, for your Father has chosen gladly to give you the Kingdom.

Luke 12:32

Find Me in these days of isolation and learn to love Me as I Love you. Do not be crippled with the fear that the world puts into you at this time.

Fear not and you will cope with these times.

Fear not and you will find Me in these days of dark times.

Seek Me!

I give the world this prayer:

Lord, we come to You in these times to grasp the hem of Your Garment to seek healing in this ailing world.

We come to ask the Love of the Father to take away our fear.

We ask You, Lord Jesus, for the saving Love of the Cross to save our sinful world.

We ask for the Joy of the Holy Spirit, to quench our fear.

Heal the world, Lord, we cry out to you.

We consecrate ourselves to You and give ourselves over to Your most Sacred Heart.

Amen

Love Me and only Me, children.

Thursday 4 June 2020

Trust and believe in Me, My children. Fight the many thoughts, the inspirations of the evil one, at this time. It is he who tries to build the emotions of the peoples in anger and, so, war.

Can you not feel it, My children? Can you not feel the irritation, the anger, that builds about you? It builds apostasy in those who do not wish to know Me.

Be ready to come to Me when I call, children. You will feel My call as I gather My Remnant to Me for safe refuge in the days of darkness, when I will rebuild all that has been destroyed by the greed of mankind.

Trust in Me and prepare, children of Mine, for soon all will become clear to My people.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Thursday 4 June 2020

Trust and believe in Me and do not be afraid to walk in My Truth. Believe, children of Mine, and I will guide you in the Truth. I will protect you from the darkness that now surrounds this earth.

Trust in Me and die to the self that holds you from Me.

Believe, children of Mine.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Friday 5 June 2020

Trust and have faith! All is about to change!

I am going to bring My Houses out of the darkness and this world will see them in truth and My Houses will increase into all the countries of this world.

Prepare, My children, I will ignite the Flame of Love in them and it shall shine out to all the peoples of this world.

Trust in Me!

I Love you.

Saturday 6 June 2020

Trust only in Me and My Law for you do not understand what mankind has given away by closing the doors of My Churches.

You have signed your own death sentence in your blindness!

You have taken down the shield of protection that I gave mankind to keep you safe from the lies of lucifer.

Woe to you, generation, for now you have unleashed a tide of evil that all can feel in their emotions!

Can you not feel the fear, the anger, the irritation, the unrest?

You have given lucifer the power, in your own free will, to destroy My Truth and, so, all Life.

Prepare, children, soon will be the Day of Truth when I will intervene and show all the Truth of what they have done. Now is the 'Time of Preparation' and then I will show My Power that no evil can stand against.

Trust in Me and make ready! I approach with the Legions of Heaven: trust in Me.

I Love you.

Saturday 6 June 2020

Trust and believe, your Freedom is at hand. I Come to break the chains of the evil that bind this earth. They think by locking My Churches they have cut Me off from My people but, they have forgotten who I am and what I can do!

I have not forgotten My people but I nourish them through their prayers. I have not left My people orphans.

Trust in Me: My Churches shall reopen for, in Truth, many of the buildings, that were once Mine, were taken over by evil men who have taken many on the road to hell with them. I cleanse My Church of the rot that has crawled in through those who only think of themselves and have forgotten they were once Mine.

My Church will be renewed and shall be looked after by strong, humble servants of Love.

Trust in Me and prepare, children of Mine.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Sunday 7 June 2020

Have faith, My children, and do not despair. My children, I have not forgotten you, I have not left you. It is those who are in power that have shown themselves in truth and they have shown how faithless they truly are.

Yet, they say they are the ones who guide My Church!

They are blind servants and no longer follow Me but they only follow the father of lies and freely walk the path to hell.

Pray for these priests, bishops and cardinals, that they repent and return to Me. It is they that lucifer uses to try and take Me away from My children by closing My Churches. They have shown My people the truth, that they no longer follow Me.

You, My children, must trust in Me for I will look after and protect My Remnant from all that is coming.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Sunday 7 June 2020

Believe, children of Mine, and do not be afraid.

Trust in Me and know that I Love you and that I will guide you through this time of sin.

Believe, children of Mine, and prepare by dying to self.

Sin is your enemy: sin blocks My Light from penetrating deep into your hearts. Trust in My Words and do not listen to those who accept sin as truth. They are blind and will lead you away from Me.

Sin has no part in My Kingdom.
Sin must be fought against and never accepted as truth.
Trust in Me.
I Love you.

Monday 8 June 2020

Trust only in Me and My Truth, children. Do not be taken in by the lies that are being promoted in My Name. I will not accept contraception, homosexuality or sexual intercourse outside marriage: these are sins to be fought against.

You can say "...but God made me this way..." but, the thief, the murderer, the rapist, could also say the same.

Do not try to justify sin for sin is sin and must be fought against.
Sin leads to blindness to the Truth and so to hell. This is the Truth that this world does not want to hear but it is still Truth.

Trust in My Laws, trust in My Commandments, trust in Me.
I Love you.

Tuesday 9 June 2020

Trust, believe, have faith in Me,
My children. The 'Time of Trial' has begun and I shall bring this earth to its knees in order to weed out all those who offend Me through their desire to only serve self and so are the puppets of lucifer within My Church.

Trust in Me, children, and do not fear this time for I will look after My own, those who have tried to follow Me in truth.

Believe in Me, children of Mine,

for your Freedom approaches.
Believe!
I Love you.

Tuesday 9 June 2020

Trust! I say trust! I say it a thousand times for, only through your trust of Me, can I guide you through this time of trial.

Believe in Me, children, believe in My Power and trust that I will guide you and look after you.
Believe.

I Love you.

Wednesday 10 June 2020

Trust in Me, My children, trust in your God and believe in the Words
I give to you through My Mother and My Prophets throughout this world. The 'Days of Trial' are upon you and you need the Words
We speak to guide you through these times of great darkness.

I am the Light that will guide you through these days and I will remove the evil. Trust in Me and Freedom will be yours.

You shall know Peace and My Love will flourish throughout the lands once again.

Trust, children, I need you to trust in Me and know that I am in control, although it looks as though the evil has taken control of all.

Trust in Me and believe that I simply allow all to be seen in the Light.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Thursday 11 June 2020

Trust in Me and believe in My Words, My Laws, My Commandments: they will guide you into My Truth. Read My Gospels, read My Scriptures, so that you know the Truth.

Believe, children, for I am about to show My Power through you, My people.

If you have prepared and fought to remove sin from your lives, then I will fill you with My Power and it will shine out to those in need.

Trust in Me and repent of your sins, remove all temptation and so kill the sin that keeps you away from Me.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Friday 12 June 2020

Trust in Me and believe in the Words I give to this world. They are Words of Life and Truth. They will all be fulfilled and mankind will finally realise what they have done. But, sadly, many will not survive for they are so deeply embedded in sin that they will not repent and so will be cast into the fires of hell.

Children, realise what I am telling you: you are in a spiritual battle where lucifer wages war against My people. It is he who closed My Churches through weak willed men who no longer believe in My Truth or My Power.

Pray for these cardinals, bishops and priests that they accept My Truth and that they repent of their evil ways and come back to Me.

Pray, children, pray for there are many children who are in need.

Pray so that they may have rest in My Kingdom, the Kingdom of Heaven.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Saturday 13 June 2020

Believe in My Truth. Allow Me to Teach you the true meaning of Truth through these Words of Love. You have not understood the true meaning of Truth unless you have begun the Journey of dying to self.

Self is the part of you that tries to blind you to the true meaning of My Truth. Unless you walk the Path of dying to self, you can never wield the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. It is through dying to self that the Knowledge of the Spirit is imparted to you. The more you die to self, the more Knowledge is imparted to you, finally the understanding of the Gifts becomes clear and you become a true servant of Truth.

I am the Truth.

Understand, children, My Truth has been watered down through the years to the point that it is unrecognisable as My Truth.

Prayer, fasting and sacrifice are part of dying to self, the recognising of sin and so the knowledge of how to overcome sin. The more sin is removed, the more Knowledge is imparted to you for it is sin that blocks My Truth from entering your heart.

Understand, you must walk this Journey with Me to know the Freedom of the Peace that surpasses all understanding.

Come, child of Mine, take My Hand and walk this Path with Me and you will understand that True Joy of Life in Me.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Monday 15 June 2020

Trust and believe in Me, My children, and do not be afraid of the events that now take place for these are only the beginnings of the unrest that will increase as mankind gives in to the desires of lucifer. You can see the results of a world without Me.

The more you reject Me, the darker this world becomes. Indeed, you have become a foolish generation, a generation that has rejected its God in favour of a lie that grows as each day passes. This I have allowed so all can see the Truth, a Truth that has remained hidden for many, many years as lucifer, very slowly, corrupts the thoughts and desires of mankind into thinking they no longer need their God.

Look, man has closed the Church of their God! They have lost faith in My Power to protect them and so lucifer is given permission to move freely.

You are blind, mankind! You listen to the inspirations of lucifer and he leads you on a path that will only lead to murder and violence of all kinds for he only wishes your destruction yet, you listen and accept his inspirations to sin as truth! This only leads you deeper into the Justice of your God.

You do not realise, My people, this earth is only like a grain of sand to Me and nothing is impossible to Me. Wake up, mankind, and see where you are being led before it is too late!

Listen to My Words and change your lives while there is still time.

I Come, children!

Prepare!

I Love you.

Tuesday 16 June 2020

Trust, believe, have faith in Me, My children, and do not let fear enter your hearts. Simply know that I allow these things so that mankind knows the truth of what he has done by rejecting his God.

I tell you the Truth: when you follow Me, the scales will fall from your eyes and you will be able to see this world as it really is. It has become a place of darkness where Love has grown cold. Money, greed, power and sex have become your God; you can see no good in others because you are a blind generation.

Turn back to Me and I will give you Peace. And Love will flourish once again.

Trust in Me and believe, children.
I Love you.

Wednesday 17 June 2020

Many are scared of the Words I speak but I tell you, if you are a follower of Mine, there is no need to fear for they are Words of Truth and Life and they will guide you to safety and Freedom in Me. I am the Way, the Truth and the Light, anyone who comes to Me has no need to fear. I will keep you safe and guide you to Eternal Life in Me and into the Kingdom of Our Father in Heaven. Trust in Me and do not fear the Words of Warning I give to you, children. You have now entered the Days of Justice and you will need the Words of Truth I speak to overcome the words of this world as they try to draw all away from Me. Read My Gospels, read My Scriptures: I gave them to guide you upon the Path of Truth. Trust in Me, children, and do not be afraid. Trust!
I Love you.

Thursday 18 June 2020

Trust in Me and believe! See My Warnings coming to pass. See the events take place and prepare. Do not leave it too late or you will not survive the tide of lies that now sweeps this earth. Believe in the Words I give for there is little time left. Prepare, My children, the events now begin to move at an ever increasing rate and, soon, all will come to a head and I will be forced to put an end to the lie. Trust in Me and prepare. Sin is your enemy, remove it from your lives and do not justify the sin, in order not to look at it. Sin is sin as truth is truth. Believe!

I Love you.

Friday 19 June 2020

Feast Day of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

My children, I greet the world on this, the Feast of the celebration of My Heart, which I asked My servant, Margaret Mary, to procure for Me. Many have been consecrated to My Heart since then and knew intimately the treasures stored within its depths. Consecration to My Heart is generational; as each generation comes this consecration must be renewed for it to have its full effect on the world. As each Pope, cardinal, bishop, priest takes over a new parish, diocese or the world, he must renew the consecration to My Heart.

My Heart is the intimate place where you should spend your time when you are not needed for duty. Its Love burns with more Fire when you acknowledge My Presence in you and call out to Me in love.

Let me teach you of My Heart that waits for you so that you might be aware of It:

29 Take up My Yoke upon you and learn of Me because I am meek and humble of Heart and you shall find rest to your souls.

30 For My Yoke is sweet and My Burden light.
Matthew 11:29-30
I Am.

Saturday 20 June 2020

Trust in Me and believe for I am the Power of all creation. I can destroy and recreate that that has been corrupted by the greed of mankind.

Trust in Me when the Fires of Justice fall from the sky, I will shelter My Remnant. I am the Good Shepherd and I look after My Flock.

Realise who I am, children, and do not lose faith. I have given mankind the freedom to choose who they want to follow: Me or the lies of lucifer. It is nearly time for mankind has shown Me that they no longer trust in their God, when they closed the Churches of this world.

Now is the time to prepare for I will Come to remove all that has been corrupted by the lies of lucifer.

Prepare, children, the Day of your God is near upon you.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Sunday 21 June 2020

Children, I come in these Words to give you hope for, indeed, I cleanse this world of its corruption, its untruth. I will renew all that has been corrupted by lucifer through the evil deeds of mankind.

Wake up, My children, and see the Truth: you are now in the Days of Justice and many of you have not prepared.

I Warn you: I will put an end to the corruption of mankind and all those who refuse to repent shall be swept from the face of this earth.

Prepare, My children, prepare!

I Love you.

Tuesday 23 June 2020

Trust and believe in Me, children, and do not be afraid of the events that take place in this world. lucifer has closed My Churches but, this,
I have allowed for many will not return.

These are the ones that did not believe in Me but only came out of a sense of habit or duty, to be seen by others. I weed the garden and prepare this world for My Truth.
It is better that you live in the Truth and not in a lie. So many say they believe in Me and do not believe in My Laws and seek change.

The Truth is: if you do not believe in My Laws, you do not believe in Me. In order to understand My Law, you must die to self; it is you who must change, not My Law. This is the Truth that those within My Church do not wish to hear at this time but, did I not say that there would be those who would say, Lord, Lord, but did we not heal in Your Name? Did we not do great works in Your Name?
But, I will say: go, depart, I never knew you for their works were only for themselves and for others to praise them.

My servants only work for Me and My Law. Obedience is My Way so, if you seek change to My Law, you only follow the desires of self and have no part in Me.

Repent of your desires for they will only lead you to hell!

Trust in Me!

I Love you.

Wednesday 24 June 2020

Believe, children of Mine, and do not be afraid. I am a God of Power and Love and I say to this world: believe in Me so that I can protect you from the oncoming storm that now sweeps across this earth.

Trust only in Me, your God, and do not be afraid for I am about to show this world I am not a dead God.

Believe, children of Mine!

I Love you.

Friday 26 June 2020

Trust, trust, trust and believe in what I say: sin is your enemy!

Do not give in to sin. Sin blocks My Light from entering deep into your hearts.

Sin is, allowing self to take control for self only desires the fineries of this life, it does not look to the good of others.

Sin starves the soul of the Grace it needs to survive in My Law.

Trust in Me and die to the desires of self and come walk with Me.

Trust in Me, trust in My Law.

Trust in the Words I speak and do not give in to the desires of self.

Trust!

I Love you.

Friday 26 June 2020

Believe, children of Mine, I have not deserted you. I am with you. Sit in silence and you will feel My Presence. I told you I would not leave you orphans and I will not.

Believe in the Words I have spoken throughout this world.

Believe in the Words My Mother has spoken throughout this world for they are Words of guidance, given to guide you through this time of great darkness.

Trust in Me and believe for I will look after My own in this time. My Justice is upon this earth and My Sword will cleanse this earth of all the pockets of evil that control the events of this world.

Trust in Me! Believe and stay close to Me, children of Mine.

Trust in Me.

I Love you.

Saturday 27 June 2020

Trust in Me and believe I am Coming, children, to bring Freedom to this world. Too long has it been caught in the web of lucifer, too long have I allowed mankind freedom and he has given lucifer the power to destroy creation.

Now, I must rectify what has been stolen in free will. Man, you have taken the freedom from My people with your laws that go against My Laws, now I come to make war on your unjust laws and I will win for I am the Creator. This is your final Warning for I will lower the Sword of Justice and it shall touch this earth and nothing will make sense: your science will not be able to explain nor understand the events that will take place.

Prepare! I Come, prepare!
I Love you.

Monday 29 June 2020

Feast of Saints Peter and Paul

Trust, believe, have faith for I am about to change all that you know. This earth shall be thrown into confusion for science will not be able to explain the events that will take place. I will show mankind how little he really knows and how he has been deceived by the lies of lucifer into thinking that they could improve the makeup of mankind by experimenting on dead and living children. In their blindness, they call these children foetuses to appease their conscience. They are children and you will see what you have done. You will listen to the screams and cries of those you murdered in your lust for knowledge. Prepare and repent so you will not have to endure this trial that is now before you.

Trust in Me!
I Come.
I Love you.

Tuesday 30 June 2020

Trust and believe, children of Mine, and stay close to Me in prayer. This is a time of cleansing and renewal where what has been destroyed in man's greed will be rebuilt in Love. Trust in Me, My children, and I will renew all and Peace will reign once again on this earth. I will remove all those who believe they are in control and no more will they be allowed to force their unjust laws on My people. Simply believe and stay close to Me in prayer.
Trust in Me.
I Love you.

“A saint is someone who, fascinated by the beauty of God, gives up everything, even himself, and enters into the great movement of return to the Father that was initiated by Christ. We are all called to it. I want to repeat to all Christians: we are called to renounce everything, even ourselves, out of love for God.... We have to live out this radical renunciation, each one in his state of life. We all have to experience the truth that God’s love is enough....”

Cardinal Sarah

Mother Yvonne-Aimée de Jésus

Vultus Christi the little invocation that Our Lord revealed to her at Malestroit in 1922.

The picture to the right (the title picture here) is her own work. Some judge it sentimental and too sweet. It has been, nonetheless, an invitation to confidence and hope for the little and the childlike. Our Lord Himself told Yvonne-Aimée to depict him as a little Child, a King of Love whom no one would fear to approach. A crown of lilies rests upon His Head, for He is the King of Virgins and the Restorer of innocence to those who give Him the burden of their sins. In His right hand He holds the olive branch that signifies healing and peace, and with His other hand, He points to His Sacred Heart, all aglow with merciful love.

The little invocation

As for the little invocation, for countless souls it is a healing balm, a fountain of living water in the heart, an inextinguishable flame in the darkness. Pray it today: O Jesus, King of Love, I put my trust in Thy loving mercy.

Those who know me have a boundless confidence in my mercy, and trust me to resolve even the most difficult situations with a love that is at once tender and mighty.

On the 21 July, or the closest Sunday to that date, we, here at the House of Prayer, celebrate the Feast of Jesus, King of Love. Recently, while looking on the internet for pictures of the King of Love, we came across the following article and thought it was very interesting. It is about a saint in the 1900's who fostered a devotion to the Child Jesus as King of Love and Mercy! The article was written by Dom Mark and can be read in full from the following link: <https://vultuschristi.org/yvonneaimée-de-jésus/?fbclid=IwAR2ehsWwbzWGE5LqPBARP7iT-t0SDwyDrk9xtofmkkutFT7qKY1RQ-HXoX8>

Mother Yvonne-Aimée de Jésus

On 113th anniversary of the birth of Yvonne Beauvais (16 July 1901), the future Mother Yvonne-Aimée de Jésus, I want, once again, to recommend to the readers of Pray to me with confidence then, for I am the King of Love, and I want to be recognized as such. I rule in souls, not by coercion, but by my most sweet love. I rule as a Child King, with gentleness and with an affection that is wholly divine. I am not a tyrant, nor will I force my rule upon anyone.

I am the Child King who comes in the guise of a beggar, seeking the hospitality of one heart after another.

To those who welcome my rule, I impart warmth and light, food and drink, a glorious raiment, and a share in my kingdom forever.

Make me known as the King of Love, as the little poor One who waits to be admitted into your company, and welcomed into the midst of you, there to rule, not by might, but humbly and with an infinite compassion.

If souls knew my kingship for what it is, they would submit to me in an instant, and I, in response, would fill them with happiness in my presence.

Love me, then, and allow me to love you with my Royal Heart. It is a great thing to be loved by the Heart of a King, and I am the King of all that is, that was, and that will be. My Heart is yours. Give me your heart in return. Thus will our friendship be sealed in heaven and on earth.

The Anniversary of a Heavenly Friend

July 16th is the 112th birthday of one of my dearest heavenly friends: Mother Yvonne-Aimée de Jésus (Yvonne Beauvais), Augustinian Canoness, Hospitaller of the Mercy of Jesus, of the Monastery of Malestroit in Brittany, France. Born on the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel in 1901, Mother Yvonne-Aimée died at 49 years of age on 3 February 1951.

Beloved of Jesus

Mother Yvonne-Aimée's life was indescribably rich . . . in the most bitter sufferings and in an avalanche of the most astonishing charisms. From the time of her girlhood she knew of Our Lord's tender love for her. She believed in it. She trusted it, and she staked her life upon it. She was, in the truest sense of her name in religion, Aimée de Jésus, the Beloved of Jesus.

An Intercessor

Mother Yvonne-Aimée's intercession is powerful. From her place in heaven she is, like Saint Thérèse, her own special friend, attentive to all the prayers addressed to her. She responds graciously, willingly, generously, and promptly to those who ask her for help. In a word, she is in heaven as she was on earth: a dispenser of the Divine Hospitality, of tenderness, mercy, healing, and joy.

A Victim of Violence

It is all to the credit of her spiritual son, Father Paul Labutte, that, after more than fifty years of silence, he chose to reveal one of the most painful secrets of her life. On 10 August 1925, three men ambushed Yvonne Beauvais, then twenty-four years old, in the Paris suburb of Boulogne-Billancourt. The three men beat Yvonne, and tortured her. One of the three, a depraved priest, whom she had previously tried to help by addressing to him a warning from Our Lord, violated her. Yvonne lived for some time thereafter in anguish. The reprobate priest later repented of his crime and was converted.

Father Labutte chose to write of this episode in the life of Yvonne-Aimée, believing that victims of similar crimes would take comfort in seeking the intercession of one with a personal experience of their suffering.

Her Care for Priests

Beginning in her early twenties, Mother Yvonne-Aimée had a particular mission to priests. Ever respectful and discreet, she was sensitive to priests in moral distress and in temptation. She readily took on herself the temptations and sufferings of priests. She calmed many a troubled conscience, dispensed wise motherly advice, and communicated joy and hope to priests haunted by depression and tempted to despair. Many times she was sent by Our Lord to deliver a message to priests in the throes of temptation or spiritual combat.

To my brother priests and, in particular to those among them enduring emotional or spiritual sufferings, as well as to those struggling with depression and weariness, I recommend recourse to the intercession of Mother Yvonne-Aimée...

Gaston Courtois and Other Priests

Among the many priests who sought her out was the Abbé Gaston Courtois, Fils de la Charité. The Abbé Courtois exercised a profound influence over the French clergy between 1930 and 1950. It was said of him that he was priestly "to the very last fibre of his soul." Mother Yvonne-Aimée referred priests in difficulty to the Abbé Courtois. He, in turn, entrusted priests, especially those in need of a real conversion of life, to her. The Abbé Courtois wrote of Mother Yvonne-Aimée: Only those who were very close to her know to what point she suffered, in a great spirit of Redemption, most especially for priests.

The Impressions of Two Great Abbots

Dom Marie-Gabriel Sortais (1902-1963), Abbot General of the Trappist Order (O.C.S.O.) considered Mother Yvonne-Aimée a great Superior who built all her work on the rock of faith. Dom Sortais remarked Mother Yvonne-Aimée's gift for pacifying and opening up souls. Until his death in 1963, Dom Sortais kept her photograph on his desk; it was the only photograph of a woman, apart from one of his own mother, that he allowed himself to keep. The Abbot of Solesmes, Dom Germain Cozien (1921-1959), personally helped while hospitalized at Malestroit, by conversations with Mother Yvonne-Aimée, observed that she was marked by "the sense of prayer, of liturgical beauty, of praising God, in the school of the Church." And he added: "All the life of Mother Yvonne-Aimée was under the influence of God." Yvonne-Aimée was not afraid of expressing her friendship. To Dom Cozien she wrote in 1939:

I say it to you simply: I miss your presence. It is so when the Lord permits and seems to want a bond between souls. My prayer, then, will join yours in your dear abbey, which I loved, and love even more now. Did you not feel that also, my Very Reverend Father? May the Most Sweet Lord Jesus be thanked for having sown this joy of heart and soul on my path. Say to Him in the morning when He is all yours, when you hold Him in your hands (how fortunate you are!) even at the risk of prolonging the elevation a little bit, oh, say to Him, Give her, O Lord, Your light, Your strength, and Your mercy." I have such need of light to know what I must do; of strength, to follow through generously; and of mercy to repair the mistakes that I make.

My Own Experience

Almost thirty years ago, after having tried for a very long time, as most monks do, to practice the ceaseless prayer of the heart, providentially I came upon an out-of-print French biography of Mother Yvonne-Aimée, and learned of her Little Invocation, "O Jesus, King of Love, I put my trust in thy merciful goodness." One day, kneeling before the Blessed Sacrament without trying to think of anything in particular, I realized, to my surprise, that Mother Yvonne-Aimée's prayer was repeating itself ceaselessly and effortlessly in my heart. I found myself praying the Little Invocation at every waking moment and even during the night, in a way similar to the practice of the "Jesus Prayer" by monks of the Eastern Church. Over the years, the grace of ceaseless prayer by means of the Little Invocation has not abated. It is always there: a gentle murmur of confidence bubbling up deep inside.

As a newly-ordained priest, I often gave the Little Invocation as penance to those who came to me for Confession. Individuals from all walks of life began attesting to the graces received: graces of inner healing, of victory over persistent and deeply rooted habits of sin, of trust in the mercy of Christ, and of a ceaseless prayer of the heart...

Mary of Magdala

Mary Magdalene is one of our Gospel heroines. She was so deeply touched by Jesus, by His Love, His Forgiveness, that she completely turned her life around. She left everything to follow Him. We can learn much by her example. Mary's Feast Day is celebrated on 22 July. Below are her words through the two Patricks, which are also in the book 'Their Robes Washed White.'

Message from Mary of Magdala

My brothers and my sisters, I have come to speak because the Lord has allowed me. When I was on the earth, I was the worst sinner. Before I met the Teacher, I was running away from God. I did not want to know Him. God did not suit the way in which I wanted to live. I was afraid of Him but I kept on sinning. I come, because I wish to speak of His tender Mercy and Love.

When I first encountered Jesus, I could not understand what had happened to me. Forgiveness was a new way of life to me. It was like a sweet song that filled my soul. It overwhelmed me.

From a proud and sinful woman, its sweetness invaded me and I became as nothing. The Words of the Rabbi took away my breath and I was new - a whole being for the first time in my life. I gave my soul to Him and His Song of Love engulfed me. I left my life and I followed Him. I took off the jewels that I wore as a sign of who I was and I placed His Words on me and they became my jewels, for His Good News invaded me.

I washed His Feet in my shame and I could feel the Love of a Father burn me with Mercy and Forgiveness, as He looked at me.

Brothers and sisters, do not fear Him who is Love. Do not fear to seek His Forgiveness. Do not fear to listen to His Sweet Song, that is His Gospel.

Many temptations will come to take you away from Him but fight them with your life. Do not give in.

I saw Jesus upon the Cross of Love. I did not - like all of the brothers - understand what was happening. Here He was, my Joy, my Peace, my Love, here tortured upon the Cross. He was twisted in Agony, the Agony that was for all of us. His Blood, His Precious Blood, flowed from Him for His Body was torn. Flesh hung from Him, so badly was He scourged for my sins and yours. He gave His All.

My tears were copious, as I heard Him say His last Words. They burned my soul; they pierced my heart. I have never forgotten them. He now became my sadness; His broken Body, like the sacrificed lamb, had no inch of skin that was not torn. I am an eye-witness to this. Oh! the shame that He Suffered for me and for all of us. He did not complain; He did not cry out. I loved Him more than I have ever loved Him. My heart was broken.

That was why I came, to tell you to accept His Love and His Mercy and His Forgiveness for He paid the Greatest Price that was payable for it. He spared nothing for it. It was for all of us; do not let His Death be in vain in your life; do not let His Pain be Suffered for nothing. Come to Him, even if your sins are like scarlet - then they will be white as snow, as He pours His Precious, Precious Blood over them, so that you might be led out of the pit of darkness, that is sin. His Face was beautiful, as His Mother held Him after they had released the Body to us, even though they had damaged it. I loved Him.

Come, come, brothers and sisters; if you have many sins, go to your priests of these days and receive His Forgiveness and Mercy from them. They are His representatives upon this earth and it is through them that He will free you. If the Son of Man makes you free, then you shall be free indeed. Do not be afraid to come to Him, seeking His Love.

My brothers and sisters, this is only a part of my story - the part that matters. Look at Jesus with fresh hope and see what He gives you. Come and do not be afraid. Cry tears of sorrow for your sins and He will Forgive and He will lift you from the mire, like He did with me.

Time for what time was made for

The following article 'Time for what time was made for' was written by David Torkington on 19 June 2020. It is from 'Into the Redeeming Christ - A Course.' We are placing it in this Newsletter because it explains how necessary it is to persevere with our commitment to prayer.

-oOo-

The story continues in which James Robertson seeks out the hermit Peter Calvay to seek his spiritual advice.

When Peter arrived from his island hermitage the following day, James Robinson immediately started to question him about the sort of time that we should be giving to prayer each day if we want to make significant progress in the spiritual life. As usual Peter begins by telling James a story.

Years of practise

I heard an interview on the radio given by Artur Rubinstein, the concert pianist, some years ago. Now here is a man who was arguably the greatest pianist of the last century and yet at the age of eighty-four he admitted that he needed to practise for six hours a day. In his prime he practised for nine! Though, as he explained himself, it was discovered that he had musical genius at the age of three, yet it took him years of practice to master the techniques necessary to facilitate and maintain the growth of that genius, and to enable him to share it with others on the concert platform. The same could be said of hundreds of great artists, performers, athletes, and people from all walks of life who reach the top of their particular branch of human achievement.

The Art of Arts

What right have we to imagine that learning to love, the single most important action upon which our whole happiness depends is an exception to the rule? It certainly is not. Our whole human completion and fulfilment depends more than anything else on mastering the 'art of arts which is how to learn the self-sacrificial loving that gradually turns everything from black and white into technicolour. What was tedious and a drudgery without it, becomes a joy that permeates all we say and do with delight and delectation. It is in short the spiritual equivalent of the philosopher's stone. Reaching the heights of achievement in any other form of human achievement might make us into world famous celebrities, fêted; and favoured wherever we go, but it does not guarantee happiness. In very many cases it sadly guarantees the opposite. Yet learning the selfless loving that enables us to go out of ourselves into another and receive their love in return always leads to happiness. Nor is this, the most perfect form of human action, open to the few but to all who have hearts to love with and the God-given grace to persevere in the most vital and virtuous action possible through thick and thin, through hell and high water. Yet it is the tragedy of human existence that so many drift aimlessly through life like half-baked amateurs, ignorant about the true meaning of life, only dabbling and therefore failing in what demands the full potential of the professional. I will concentrate on how the love of God is generated in prayer which is the central action in the spiritual life, because it is here that divine loving is learnt that should, not only accompany human loving, but help to sustain it and bring it to perfection.

Time to do what time was made for

Although we do not like to admit it, even to ourselves, we kid ourselves that saints are born, or created by an arbitrary decision of God who every now and then suddenly decides to top up humanity's quota. This is a comforting idea that many of us harbour at the back of our minds because it absolves us from the serious effort that we must needs make in prayer. Not even God can force his love on anyone, but only on those who are prepared to show, by their daily endeavour that they are open and ready to receive it.

James interrupted Peter, asking him to clarify what seemed to be a crucial point.

"Can I try to pin you down on the point of time?" he asked, "Setting aside the question of content for the moment, just how much time a day do you think we ought to give to prayer?"

Peter thought for a moment, chewing the inside of his lower lip with his fine, well-preserved teeth. He then began to explain. That is a difficult one to answer, James. Take the example of a pianist. How long should a student practise every day in order to accomplish anything worthwhile, achieving the goal of playing the masterworks of the great composers? An hour a day might be severely overtaxing and put the pianist off the piano for life at the beginning. But after a year or two, it might be the minimum requirement merely to keep intact whatever has been learnt already. I am afraid it is one of those 'it all depends' questions. It depends on the individual case. There is no general rule. But one thing I can say: If we are only prepared to give the same daily time to prayer that would be required to reach a fairly reputable standard on the piano, then, in time, our lives will be dramatically and irrevocably changed. We may start with ten minutes a day and gradually extend that period as we master the preliminaries, but as the months go by, the period will gradually extend so that in the end, the problem will be to restrain a person rather than prescribe a minimum time. When a wholly new dimension of experience begins to unfold within under the influence of God's love, the ultimate question will be how to balance the hours to spend in prayer with the obligations to others. Peter gave a rather sad smile, saying that there are few people who have this problem.

At this point James stopped Peter and asked. "Do you believe that as time goes on and prayer prospers, we ought to be able to pray for six hours a day like Artur Rubinstein, or even nine if possible?" Peter answered emphatically that he did not think so, but he then added with a twinkle in his eye, that we ought to be able to pray twelve hours a day, all day in fact, and every part of it. Peter did not wait for James to come back at him with the obvious misgivings that were leaping around in his mind. He immediately explained what he meant. With a fading grin, Peter explained that if all goes well, the prayer that starts and develops at set times ought to spread out gradually and filter through into the rest of the day.

The Prayer without ceasing

In the end, it will become co-extensive with all and everything we do. To begin with, the prayer period will be like a desert: dry, arid and barren. But it will eventually become an oasis in our lives that we cannot do without. However, that is not the end; it is only the beginning. In the end the oasis will become a fountain that will well up and brim over to irrigate the whole of our lives. I do not mean that we will eventually be able to say prayers and fit in all sorts of aspirations whenever there is a breathing space in our day. I am talking about the far more profound prayer that ultimately becomes both consistent and commensurate with everything we do, namely contemplation. I would rather not explain myself further now because there isn't time, and anyway I would like to explain a number of other things first. But I would like to return to this point later.

"I'm pleased you made that point," James said, "because I thought for a moment that the ideal you were suggesting was to gradually extend the time set aside for formal prayer, so that it would become longer and longer as we progressed, so that ideally we would be on our knees for the greater part of the day." Peter replied emphatically that if that is what God created us for, he would not have made us with such bony knees. He would not have needed to give us legs at all, nor arms for that matter. He could have economized all round and built us instead with fat, well-upholstered bottoms to sit on, and large heads with protruding foreheads with which to contemplate all day long.

Contemplation in Action

The idea that we can pray in the streets, on the train, while engaged in our work, while giving ourselves to others, is absolute bunk without the daily prayer of set times. Of course we would all like to be free to pray wherever and whenever we like, but freedom demands discipline. I would like to be free to play the piano whenever and whatever I like, but I am not able to do so because I refused to accept the discipline that my music teacher originally tried to impose upon me. I refused to keep up my regular practice. Artur Rubinstein was only able to play what he chose, when he chose, because he submitted himself to the discipline necessary to attain the full musical freedom that he desired. It is exactly the same with prayer. Of course, it is the ideal to have the facility to pray at will, no matter where we are, no matter what we are doing and as we are doing it, as becomes possible with contemplation. But it is totally impossible unless we accept the discipline required to learn to pray at set times and in specific circumstances. Freedom always demands discipline, and prayer is no exception. It is no good putting a child in a room for an hour a day and telling him or her to learn to play the piano with little music and virtually no instruction. One of the most shattering facts that has emerged from the hundreds of letters that I have received from all over the world is that ninety-five percent of religious and priests who write to me have never had any adequate instruction in prayer at all. I mean deep personal meditation and how it leads to contemplation. Peter awkwardly dragged himself up off the ground preparing to deliver a parting remark. "But, believe me, there are signs everywhere to indicate that we are on the verge of a decisive breakthrough that will make Newman's 'New Spring' look like a pale autumnal afternoon; of this I am absolutely convinced!"

It was a timely moment to stop for lunch.

Prayer from Jesus

KEEP ME EVER AT YOUR SIDE

My Jesus, let me cry tears of repentance,

Let me bathe Your Feet in my tears,

Let me know Your Hand of Forgiveness

Upon my head.

Let me understand the Price You Paid

To free me from my sins

And keep me ever at Your Side

To know Your Love.

These things I beg of You

For You are the Judge of my sins,

You have the Words of Eternal Life.

Teach me, O Jesus, Your Way of Sorrow.

Teach me Your Forgiveness of all others

Springing in me from Your Forgiveness of me.

Let me hide in Your dear Wounds.

Where You will bathe me clean and Love me.

This prayer was taken from the book 'To Pray in Love.'

TO PRAY IN LOVE

This is a compilation of all the prayers that Jesus has given through the two Patricks. It is a beautifully presented book and easily read. A wonderful companion on your Journey to drawing closer to Jesus.

Pray! Pray! Pray!

Jesus has told us so many times this year to pray. Here is one Message in particular where He emphasised the need to pray:

Holy Saturday 11 April 2020

Pray, My children, pray! Pray like you have never prayed before. Constant prayer is what I am calling you to do in this time. If you do not pray, then you will not recognise My Voice, I have told you of this before.

Prayer is the communication with Me that you need to open up your eyes and your ears to spiritual things.

A great darkness has fallen upon our Church and upon our world. It is like all hell has broken loose. The best thing we can do right now is to pray and to love God and love all whom we encounter. Here is a reminder of what some of the Saints have said about prayer and love.

-oOo-

“Until we have acquired genuine prayer, we are like people teaching children to begin to walk.”

Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

-oOo-

“May your soul be His sanctuary, a resting-place for Him on this earth where He is so grievously offended. May He make of your soul a little heaven, where He may happily rest. Take away from it everything that might offend His divine eye. Live alone with Him.

Wherever you are, whatever you may be doing, He never leaves you. Therefore, stay always with Him. Enter into the depths of your soul; you will always find Him there, longing to do you good. I say a prayer for you that Saint Paul used to say for his converts: he asked that Christ might dwell in their hearts by faith, that they might be rooted in charity.

This expression is so deep, so mysterious. Yes, may God Who is all love be your unchanging dwelling place, your cell and your cloister in the midst of the world. Remember that He abides in the inmost center of your soul, as in a sanctuary and He wills to be loved there even to adoration.”

Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity

-oOo-

During the rioting of the passions and adverse events, keep in mind the dear hope of his unlimited mercy. Let us run with confidence to the tribunal of penance, where He waits for us at all times with the anxiety of a father; and although we are conscious of our debt towards Him, let us not doubt the solemn pardon of our sins. Let us bury them as our Lord has done.

Saint Padre Pio

-oOo-

Finding God within.

"You need not go to heaven to see God... nor need you speak loud as if he was far away, nor need you cry for wings like a dove so as to fly to Him, settle yourself in solitude and you will come upon God in yourself".

Saint Teresa of Avila

-oOo-

When we are before the Blessed Sacrament, instead of looking about, let us shut our eyes and our mouth; let us open our heart: our good God will open His; we shall go to Him, He will come to us, the one to ask, the other to receive; it will be like a breath from one to the other. What sweetness do we not find in forgetting ourselves in order to seek God! The Saints lost sight of themselves that they might see nothing but God, and labor for Him alone; they forgot all created objects in order to find Him alone. This is the way to reach Heaven.

The Little Catechism of the Curé of Ars

-oOo-

"My little children, your hearts, are small, but prayer stretches them and makes them capable of loving God. Through prayer, we receive a foretaste of heaven and something of paradise comes down upon us. Prayer never leaves us without sweetness. It is honey that flows into the souls and makes all things sweet. When we pray properly, sorrows disappear like snow before the sun."

Saint John Marie Vianney

-oOo-

Where there is no love, put love and you will draw love out.

I give the world this prayer:

Lord, we come to You in these times to grasp the hem of Your Garment to seek healing in this ailing world.
We come to ask the Love of the Father
to take away our fear.
We ask You, Lord Jesus,
for the saving Love of the Cross
to save our sinful world.
We ask for the Joy of the Holy Spirit,
to quench our fear.
Heal the world, Lord,
we cry out to You.
We consecrate ourselves to You and give ourselves over to Your most Sacred Heart.
Amen
