is Christmas???

So THIS is Christmas??

Appeal

Dear friends, you will see that we continue our appeal to you for financial help.

We know that times are hard for many of us and we want to tell you that every little amount you send to us is greatly appreciated. We thank you wholeheartedly for all the help that you have already given to us. Please, remember to keep us all in your prayers and pray that our appeal is answered. May Jesus Bless you all.

Apologies

We have made this Newsletter a double issue, November and December, because it is so late. This is due to the fact that our printing equipment is old and in need of replacement, it just would not print this Newsletter. We simply do not have the money to replace our machinery at this time. We are sorry for any inconvenience.

The front cover

Have a look at the front cover of this Newsletter. In it we see a family happily eating their Christmas dinner. On the outside, in the shadows, is the Crucified Lord Jesus; on the outside looking in. Are we part of this family at Christmas? Christmas is about Jesus. There is an article in this Newsletter written to make us think about Jesus at Christmas; challenging us to invite Him in. The best present we could give Him is to make His Birthday about Him. Don't shut Him out, invite Him in.

Do I even have tomorrow?

Having read the final Warnings in the Messages in this Newsletter, I really am starting to question will this be the last Newsletter? Will we even see this Christmas?

That is the reality we all need to see. Do I even have tomorrow?

Keep us grounded

Living the 'Way of Truth' - keeping our anchor in check each day and adding to the fire, will keep us grounded in Jesus and help us avoid leaving Him out of our lives.

Jesus is being kicked out of this world, our churches, our communities, our families, our work, our lives, only to be replaced by a new age, all-loving, God that allows us to sin.

Birthday present for Jesus

Again, Jesus speaks about abortion and Warns us against this evil, reminding us of the Chastisement - the Blood of the Innocent calls out to Him for vengeance.

At this time, the Irish government are making a decision about the law on Abortion in Ireland. The result is expected in a few weeks time - just before Christmas - won't that be a great Birthday present for Jesus from Ireland this year! As if He isn't in enough Pain!

Happy Christmas!

In these latest Messages, Jesus calls for us to begin to pray His Mother's Rosary again. He tells us He is on His Way, His Returning is imminent. Would it not be a beautiful Birthday Gift for Jesus if we took on His Words and prayed from our hearts, offering to Him a novena of Rosaries for the Salvation of souls?

Have a holy and happy Christmas and may Jesus Bless you all.

The Messages of Love

In last month's Newsletter we discovered there was part of a Message missing from the writings given by the Patricks called 'The Reality of the Last Days.' We have included the Message again for you to read and we apologise for our error.

...Jesus:

Come back, My little ones, come back to Me, your Father. I call out to you in these Words. I ask that you return for My Arm is about to strike this earth. I have Warned you through My Son and your Mother, the Queen of Heaven. We, together, shall destroy all that is evil and once more shall the Glory of My creation be seen.

Come away from your evil ways and return to Me for My Son has Suffered much for you, My children. I am your Father, I am your Brother, I am all that you need. Trust in Me and We, together, shall bring My children from the darkness into the Light. Have faith in Our Power in you. My Spirit resides within you; trust and call upon Him and you may ask anything of the Father in My Name and it shall be given. We call to you as One this day, We Love you.

Monday 15 October 2012

All things are now culminating and the time is not long. I say prepare! Be ready! Repent!

Saturday

3 November 2012

Look now, My little children, and see the Truth of My Ways. See what I have given to you freely. This, I also expect of you who say that you follow Me, as I have given to you freely, you must also give to others freely.

I see so many who say that they follow Me but they follow Me for their own ends and they do not follow Me for My Sake or for the sake of their brothers and sisters. Your lives with Me should be as a sacrifice, a constant giving for the good of those around you. You should be constantly offering little sacrifices for those of My children that you see in darkness. You should be constantly offering Me little prayers, little askings and little givings for those that have lost their way.

Come, My beloved children, take on My Words, take on My Truth, take on My Life so that We, together, can go out into this world and show My children who are in darkness that I have not forgotten them.

Look, My beloved, I am calling to you as you read these Words. I wish you to take on these Words of Life and live them so that We, together, can begin to minister to My children. I wish to become your hands, your feet and your lips so that this world can see that I am Alive in you.

I Love you. Come now, beloved of My Heart, for there is little time left to discuss what you think you should do. The time of talking is over, the time of discussing is over. It is time to act. I Love you.

Monday

5 November 2012

Come to Me all you who labour and are heavily burdened and I will give you rest. I am calling to you, My children, in these Words to open your eyes and see the Words of Eternal Life.

EDITORIALS

AN INVITATION TO LOVE JESUS NEWSLETTER

MESSAGES OF LOVE NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER 2012 ISSUE 199 & 200

I have given this world so much and so few have seen what I have given. So few take on My Words of Truth, My Words of Life; so few are willing to open their eyes to the Truth. Soon now, it will be too late for many for, as the time approaches, so does the strength of he who is hidden and deceives this world.

Soon he shall take over and so, so many shall fall into the power of his deceit. You do not realise what you have wrought with your sin, children. You do not realise the strength that you have given to him. he will blind this world to My Truth in order to deceive even the elect but, this, I will not allow.

Come, My beloved children, take on My Words, begin to live lives of Truth, lives of Love and do not allow yourselves to be deceived any longer. I Love you.

Tuesday 6 November 2012

Be on the move, My children! It is now time. I gather you into Myself. Do not sit idly for much is to come. You must be ready for, like a great tidal wave, you will be swept away, you will be taken. Your lives, your spiritual lives are in danger from the world around you. You cannot see the danger through the lives that you live.

See My Cross, learn of its Truth so that you will recognise Me when I Come.

So much suffering is to come for the hand of the evil one is the upper one. he holds the power that he needs and you have but months, weeks, days and moments. I have spoken of these things and you have ignored Me, you have ignored the very things that will keep you from being swept away...

...Be on the move, My children, for time is not yours. Mankind has chosen his fate. Come, My holy ones, My sheep, that recognise My Voice still, come and be a part of Me. These Words are a Warning for the Cup of Wrath is full and cannot be filled any more. I tell you again, you have but months, weeks, days and moments. I Love you so I Warn you.

Thursday 15 November 2012

Come, My little children, and look to the Truth that I give to you in these Words. These Words are a lifeline to this world. These Words are given in Love so that you will know the Truth of what is happening in these times.

There is a great deceit in this world that penetrates to the heart of My Church. Can you not see, My children, how your faith in Me is being changed?

Very gradually, you have lost respect for Me, your God.

Look at the ceremonies within your churches.

Where has the respect for Me gone?

Are My churches quiet places of meditation?
No, they are now places where My children congregate to gossip and they have forgotten Me in My Tabernacle.

Do you not realise, My children, that I hear your conversations? I see you and how you have forgotten Me.

Where are My priests that teach respect?

Are they all gone?
Have they all deserted Me?
All I see are shepherds that are afraid of what this world will think of them.

All I see are shepherds that think of money rather than My children.

Can you not see the great deceit?

Can you not see the falling away that I told you about within My Scriptures?

Can you not see that you are in the last days?
Soon, I shall Come, children, to claim My own and the darnel shall be thrown onto the fire.

When I look at this world, all I see is darnel for there are very few that truly follow Me.

It is time to wake up, children!

Repent of your evil lives!
See through the deceit and come, follow Me in the way that I have asked of you. You do not need the fineries of this world for the fineries of this world are only glitter that will be blown away in the wind.

Come, My beloved children, take on these Words of Mine, these Words of Love, these Words of Light and become the Army of Love. I tell you in Truth, children, soon now you shall see a great spectacle in this world and man shall marvel and science shall not understand what they see. It heralds My Return, children. Come away from this world while there is still time. I Love you.

Friday 16 November 2012

Come to Me, beloved of My Heart, and let Me sing a Lovesong to you.

Let Me tell you of My Love for you in the silence where no one else can hear but you and Me.

Come, My child, I am calling to you this day to come to Me. Feel Me within your heart for I dwell within all men's hearts.

Come, My beloved child, listen to these calls of Love: listen to My Lovesong as I gently coax you along the Path of All Knowing, All Truth and All Love.

Come to Me, listen to My calls.

Come, My beloved, I Love you.

Saturday 17 November 2012

Truth is what I ask from My children, from My followers. I do not accept deceit, lies and division from My followers.

Look at your lives, children, you accept so much deceit, so many lies and so many divisions within your lives then you call yourselves My followers. I can see through all that you do, all that you place before Me and think that I should accept it. All I see are deceitful children; liars and cheats who believe that their God should do what they say and accept what they give.

I speak about you, My children, who sit before Me at Mass.

Do you think that I will accept your false offerings? You wish to change My Scriptures, My Laws, to suit your selfish lifestyle, to suit the sin within your lives.

Your days are numbered, children. Your reign of deceit is coming to an end and you are so blind that you cannot see it. You are living now in the last days of your time. Soon, My Angels shall cleanse this earth of all that is unclean and I shall renew all My Creation to what it once was.

Pray, children, that you are not among those that shall be cleansed. Be careful, children, that you are not deceiving yourselves through the lives that you live.

I am your Father and I will not allow this world to continue with its barbaric ways that you call modern ways. You accept the slaughter of your children within the womb and you call it modern thinking?

I call it a blood sacrifice to lucifer.

Yes, children, you worship the fallen angel, the angel of darkness, the angel of sin - satan, the father of all lies. You have accepted him as your master and you follow his ways yet, you call them My Ways, in your blindness.

I created man to be with woman and woman to be with man. I did not create man to lie with man or woman to lie with woman. This is an abomination in My Sight yet, you call it modern thinking.

I call it an abomination in My Sight.

You say, "...But these people are born this way and cannot help it."

I say, they have accepted sin in their lives: they have fallen to the temptations of lucifer and blind themselves to the Truth.

I have told you that you must die to self for the desires of self will only produce sin. You place children to be adopted into sin and you call this right and proper.

I call it an abomination in My Sight.

You place My little ones into sin to be brought up by sin.

When a man lies with a man or woman lies with a woman, all they produce is sin: they cannot produce life yet you give them the rights to adopt My children. Then you wonder why I threaten this earth with punishment; you wonder why I would chastise this earth?

Look at the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah: this is why

I destroyed these cities because they were dark and ugly in My Sight. They had given themselves over to the desires of self and so man lay with man and woman lay with woman and they forced My Arm and so I cleansed them from this earth.

You can laugh at these Words, you can ignore these Words but you will not laugh when the Sword of Justice strikes this earth for you will see My Punishment. You shall feel My Punishment and you shall know that you were wrong. I am Returning, children, look at the signs of your times. Read My Scriptures and see what I speak of. All that has been foretold is now upon this earth and My Return is imminent. These Words that I speak through My Prophets are your last Warnings.

Turn away from your evil lives: repent of your sin and come follow Me for I am Returning.

I Love you, repent!

Saturday 17 November 2012

You ask the question, children, what right have I to threaten this world with a chastisement?

I have every right to chastise this world for I created it in Love.

I created you in Love and I gave this earth to you to live your lives in love.

This earth belongs to Me for it is My creation and you, in your greed and lies, have destroyed what I have created.

You destroy your children before they are even born. I have not given you the power over life and death. I have not given you the power to judge.

I gave you this earth to live on; to decide whether you wanted to be in My Kingdom or not. You have shown Me that you do not want to be in My Kingdom by what you have done to My creation so, I have the Power and the Authority to destroy that that I created. The blood of those that you murder cry out to Me from this earth for justice. They are innocent, they never had the chance to prove to Me their love.

Who should I listen to: you, who are liars and cheats, or those that are innocent?

You cannot see in your blindness how short your lives are on this earth, you but live a very, very short time. Yet, by the way that you live your lives you would believe that you are going to be on this earth forever. You do not understand because of your unwillingness to follow My Ways.

You are born and you grow old and die so quickly and then you stand in front of Me and I ask you, have you proved that you want to be in My Kingdom by the way that you have lived your short life on this earth?

If you have not proved that you wish to be in My Kingdom, you shall grow angry and run from Me and cast yourselves into the pit of eternal fire where you will live in your anger with your father for all eternity. Do you understand eternity, children? There is no end. Is this what you wish? I offer you Eternal Life: a Life of Perfect Love and Joy that will never end. Yet, you accept eternal death by the way that you are living your lives. Wake up, My children, and see the Truth, see what I am offering you and come, follow Me, for the harvest is ripe and ready to be gathered and I am asking you to work in My Vineyard. The choice is yours, children, I will not force you to believe. I have given you the Gift of free will. All I can do is ask that you come follow Me but the choice is yours. I Love you.

Saturday
17 November 2012

I have given you freedom, children, to do as you will on this earth. I have not given you freedom to interfere with creation. I see what you do in secret. I see how you tamper with creation. Once again, mankind has stepped outside the Gift of free will. When you interfere with the soul, the spirit, I must intervene. I see what you do. And, you have called My Justice, you have called the Sword of Truth to strike this earth. You have listened to lucifer and he has given you the knowledge and this you act on. You believe that you are wise and have great wisdom. You have not for, if you had wisdom, you would have turned away from this path. When you interfere with the soul, you interfere with your God. Now, mankind, you have called My Justice and it cannot be stopped. I, your God, am Coming.

Tuesday 20 November 2012

Come, My beloved children, and walk with Me. Walk with Me upon this Path of Love and We, together, shall do battle with the perversions of this world. I am calling My Army of Love. I am calling the righteous who have listened to My Voice. I am calling you forward from the silence that you have remained in. Come forward, My beloved children, and walk under the banner of My Love. Do not be afraid to show yourselves to this world for the time is right and Truth must be spoken. I am calling My Army to the fore for, soon now, We shall march and destroy all that is evil. Come, My beloved children, listen to My calls for I am about to empower you with the Gifts of My Spirit and you shall be seen in this world as the Warriors of My Truth. I shall destroy all that is evil through those who have given themselves over to My Love. My Word is a Two-Edge Sword and it shall cut through the darkness of this world. Be Warned, you who say that you follow Me but are only liars and thieves. You hide under the banner of My Church yet you destroy it from within. You cannot hide from Me, you cannot hide from My Truth. If you do not repent of your evil deeds, you shall be swept aside by My Army of Love. Your lies shall be shown up in the Light of My Truth; your deeds will be seen by all and you shall be known and fall by the darkness of your own sin. Repent! I say, repent and return to Me for these are My last Warnings to this world. Soon all will change. My Power shall be seen and the Battle will begin. I Love you, My children, and I come in these Words to call you away from the danger that you are in. I call you into the Truth and away from the lies that lucifer is spreading throughout this earth. Can you not see that the abomination lives and is destroying everything that I have created? It is he that throws country against country and, soon, all the false peace shall disappear and you shall begin to harvest what you have sown. Come, My children, listen to these, My Words of Truth,

My Words of Life. Come, enter My Army so that I may Breathe New Life into this world through you. Become My Hands, become My Feet, become My Lips and We, together, shall destroy the darkness that has been sown by the father of lies, lucifer. Come, My beloved children, come, I call you.

Come, children of Mine, come to this Heart of Mine that cries out for Love of you, My children. You must understand, My children, that I am a God of Love and, in Love, there must be Justice. My innocent children are crying out to Me for justice for so many millions of My children are murdered innocently in every year of your time. They cry out to stop the murder of those of their brothers and sisters that are about to die. The blood of the innocent call to Me louder every day for justice and Justice I will give them for they are innocent in My Sight. I am calling to you, children, I am giving you time to repent. This is why My Arm is stayed but it grows heavier and heavier as each day passes for the blood of the innocent weighs Me down and I must cleanse this evil. torment for all eternity will be like being ripped from your mother's womb? Do you not realise that this is what lucifer will taunt you with?

Do you not realise this is why I call out to you to repent of this grave sin NOW before it is too late?

Do you not realise that I Love you and wish you to be in My Father's Kingdom with Me?

Come, now, My children, and listen to Me, listen to My calls for, if you do not listen, a terrible chastisement will befall this earth, it will be equal to that that you have placed upon the Scales of Justice. This earth will run with the blood of the unjust: all that you have sown in your evil lives, you will harvest.

Oh, My children, can you not see what you have done?

How you have offended your God?

This earth cries out to Me under the burden of sin. Feel the beginnings of its rebellion for no longer can it withstand what you produce. Terrible wars will break out in many countries and the innocent shall be slaughtered which will add to the fury of its rebellion.

Do you not see the path that you travel? You have destroyed the meaning of My Love within My Church and it crumbles into nothing but, I tell you, My Church, will never be destroyed for its spark is held safe and it shall rise in Truth, Humility and Obedience. My Mother has given many, many Messages to stave off this disaster but Her Words have been hidden from this world. Can you not see this?

Patrick:
Jesus, are You talking about the Third Secret of Fatima?

Jesus:
Yes, these Words were given to protect My Church but they were corrupted and hidden by the lies of lucifer, by those that have entered My Church and only look for their own glory. My Mother's Words told of him who would claim the Throne of My Peter, of him who would sit in the place that he should not be, if this world did not change its ways. But, these Words were hidden because they spoke of the rulers of My Church and, in their arrogance and pride, the rulers would not reveal them to this world and so have allowed lucifer to sit in the place that he should not be.

Scripture is being fulfilled, children, before your eyes and you refuse to see as My children Israel refused to see My Coming.

You who have eyes to see, lift the Banner of My Love and wear it around your neck proudly revealing it to this world and, show this world that you are a follower of Mine. This is the mark of My Love. Place the emblem of My Love upon yourselves and upon your children for it calls My Protection. (A small crucifix)

Those that wear the emblem of My Love in Truth, My Justice shall not strike them down.

The time of idleness is over, the time of complacency has ended, you are either for Me or against Me for I Come to gather My own to Myself. Look to the Truth, My children, turn away from sin and come, follow Me. I Love you.

I call upon you, My children, to help with My Houses of Prayer for they are the Refuges that you will need in the time of My Justice. They will be the Sanctuaries of My Truth.

I need your help in these for they are your giving to Me in your free will. The more that you help, the more Sanctuaries will be given to this world and the more My children will understand but, you must do this for Me in your free will, children. I am asking, ever asking, for your help but, so many of you hold on to that that I have given to you and will not help Me.

Come away from your lives, children, for there is little time left and I need you. I need your hands, your feet and your lips. I need your help in the preparation for that that must come. I give you this Gift, this chance in free will to help your brothers and sisters.

Come, children, answer My calls. I Love you.

Show your love for Me by the way that you love your brothers and sisters. See Me in all My children. Go out to the highways and the byways and invite My little ones to My Banquet for the Bridegroom approaches and you are not ready. I Love you.

Wednesday

21 November 2012

Look, My children, I call to you in these Words.

I call and I call and I call but so very few answer My calls.

Come, My little children, break away from the ways of this world and look and see what is happening around you. You live in a dream world, nothing is real. All I see when I look at this world is the glitter of lucifer that he uses to tempt My people away from Me.

Can you not see, children, that this world that you live on is a lie. It is not what I created. I created a world where you would live in harmony with your God but I have been rejected and you run after the fineries of this life. You surround yourselves with things that will rot, decay and disappear. Your lives are so short but this you fail to see.

Prepare, My children, prepare for your death upon this earth for, if you have followed Me in life, then you will gain Life Eternal with Me in Our Father's Kingdom.

Come, My beloved children, allow Me to draw you: allow Me to show you, allow Me to fill you with My Wisdom so that you can see the Truth of what is happening around you. So many Words I have given and so few have listened and the clock is about to strike twelve. What can I do, children, to convince you?

What can I say to convince you?

You will say that I could appear to this world but, if I appeared, you would believe because you have seen but this would mean that you have not believed in free will but, because you have seen.

Many marvels will be seen on the earth and in the air but, in your complacency, these too shall be rejected and many, many of My children shall be lost to Me for all eternity.

Come back, I say! Children, come back for you have very little time left. I Love you.

Thursday

22 November 2012

Look, My children, I am calling, ever calling you to listen to My Words, to come back to My Truth, to join My Army of Love, to show this world that I am Alive within you.

Do not hesitate, My children, do not hesitate to take up this call and come follow Me. Begin to take on My Words, begin this struggle of dying to self so that I may fill you with the Gifts of My Truth so that you may be responsible for bringing multitudes into the Kingdom of Our Father.

Come, My beloved children, take on this burden of Love and walk alongside Me as I walk the Path of Calvary once more. Do not be afraid, My little ones, for I am your Father and I look after My own. I Love you, My little children, I Love you and I need your hands, your feet and your lips to help your brothers and sisters who are in great danger.

Do not wait but answer My call NOW for, the sooner that you answer, the sooner I will be able to use you in this Battle of Love.

I, your Jesus, Love you. Come.

Monday

26 November 2012

Come out of your complacency, My children, and do not reject My Love. I give you so many Words because you are in such great danger and you are not listening. You look for signs, you wonder where I am.

Look around you, children, can you not see what is happening?

Can you not see the signs of your times?

All is plain to be seen if you allow yourselves to see. The problem is you allow self to get in the way and so you are blinded. Self does not want to see the signs of the times for self does not follow Me but, rather, follows the fineries of this life and is easily deceived by the father of lies.

This is why I say you must die to self so that the scales can fall from your eyes and then you will see and understand what is happening. Do not say that you cannot see when you are unwilling to remove the scales from your eyes.

Come, children, do as I say for, as I have said so many times, you have little time left before I must come to remove all evil that stains this earth. Do not reject these Words of Mine for, if you do, you will be swept away in the oncoming tide that approaches. I Love you, My children, I Love you.

Brace yourselves for what will happen. Trust, trust in Me, your God, and I will guide you through these times. I Love you. I Love you.

Friday 30 November 2012

Look, beloved children of My Heart, I am calling you. I am calling you to battle but first you must discard the desires of this world, you must discard the desires that self hinders you with. Cast off that that holds you back from Me for they are the desires of self and it is self that listens to the lies of lucifer.

In order to follow Me, you must begin to see the damage that self allows within your life. You must begin to see the way that self indulges in sin. Shake off the yoke of self and come follow Me for

I am your God. I am the Light that illuminates the Path of Truth and only he that follows that Light shall have Eternal Life.

Die to self, children, search out the sin that you have allowed to embed itself into your everyday lives and come, follow Me, for I am the Way, the Truth and the Life and anyone who walks My Path shall have Eternal Life. There, you shall live forever in the Glory of Our Father for it is His Life that flows through all of Us, My children. It is He that sustains all things. Give Glory to Him for He is worthy of all Glory and Honour and Praise.

I Love you, My beloved children. Prepare! The time is near upon you. I Love you. Prepare!

Wednesday
5 December 2012

I am Lord and King. Obey Me with everything you have for soon I Come.

Thursday
6 December 2012

Come, all you who labour and are heavily burdened and I will give you rest. I will give you the rest that you do not understand, children, for, when you follow this world, you carry the burdens of this world with you in your daily lives. When you come to Me, I will show you the Truth and you shall be able to cast off these burdens for you will see how unnecessary they are. Come, My little children, allow Me to give you the freedom, the rest that you seek. The time is close now and you shall understand all that I speak of but, this is the time to prepare before this event takes place.

I will take you, My children, on a Journey of Truth and you shall see the Truth of My Ways; you shall see how you have offended Me by your lives.

You shall see how you have offended your brothers and sisters through your unlove, your lack of caring.

This is My final Gift to this world in order that you fight this Battle in truth. Do not despair for these times are times of great joy for those who see and understand My Ways.

I am Coming, children, I am Coming soon and, when I say soon, it is in your generation, not the next.

Prepare now, My little ones, prepare in truth for you who see My Arrival, your joy will be fulfilled. I, your God, approach. Trust in Me, trust in My Ways, trust in My Laws for I Come to rescue My own from the ensnarement's that lucifer has placed within this world.

You look to your technology and you see that it is good but, children, lucifer gave this technology in order to destroy your belief in your God. Since mankind has become intelligent in his thinking he has wandered from his God, he no longer believes that he needs a God for he has his intelligence, his science.

Look around you, children, is this world at peace?

Is this world full of love because of what you have gained?

No, children, this world is full of fear, fear of what you have not got and fear of what you might lose. You are not at peace, My little ones.

I Come to give this world Peace; a simple life of Love and Truth.

I will destroy all that has been created in unlove, untruth.

My beloved children, return to Me, return to Me in prayer. Take up My Mother's Rosary and meditate upon its mysteries and you shall find Me, your God. You shall find Peace, you shall find Love for I cannot resist a soul that is willing to follow Me in truth.

I am Coming, My little ones, I am Coming to rescue you from the darkness of this world and, when I Come, I will bring New Life to this world, a Life of Truth. My Church shall shine once again. It shall be a humble Church, a loving Church and My priests shall minister My Love, My Truth to My people. No longer shall it be filled with greed or the riches of this world. It shall walk in humility and love and all My priests shall be filled with the Joy of My

Holy Spirit and they shall understand the Ways of Truth.

Rejoice, My little ones, for your freedom is at hand! The gold and silver and all that glitters shall be no more, you will not have to labour for the things of this world but you shall labour in love for the joy of your brothers and sisters.

I am Coming, children. Behold, your God is at hand! Rejoice, for your freedom is soon!

Take on these Words, die to self, confess your sins and receive Me often in My Eucharist for these are the things that strengthen you; these are the things that I have given to you from My Heart in order that you find Peace.

Listen to your brothers, listen to your sisters, they, too, need My freedom. Do not judge them, do not ignore them but, see them as My children in need of My help.

Come, My little children, I am calling you to battle, a Battle of Love that shall be fought with the Weapons of Love.

Have joy, My little ones, for your God approaches!

Soon now, you shall see the signs that I have spoken of and you will know that I am at hand. But, for now, children, read the signs of your times and understand what must happen, understand that your God is close and be at peace.

I Love you, My children, I

Love you.

TRUTH AND LIES?

I went to Mass recently and afterwards sat with a few people having a friendly discussion. But, as the discussion went on, I was shocked at the belief of those around me, those who say that they are Christians and say that they believe in Jesus. The discussion came up about what our children are being taught in school. When I said, "it is a disgrace against God that our children are being taught so young about sex and, especially, the sexual acts of homosexuality," I was verbally attacked and told that I should be ashamed of myself for not accepting people as being homosexual. I said I do accept the people but I do not accept the act of sin. Which they replied to me that I should understand and accept that a man may not find a woman attractive and a woman may not find a man attractive but they only find themselves attracted to their own gender. I was told that I was small-minded and that I would need to change my thinking. I said, but God says that this is a sin and they said that was nonsense, it was Him that made them that way.

I said, no, it is an evil spirit that attacks us and tempts us in that way. The same as we are tempted into many other forms of sin. They laughed at that and said that is nonsense! Then I asked them, if they do not believe in evil spirits then, do they believe that we were going to Mass to pray to a 'good spirit' and they said they did not know whether there was a good spirit or not.

The whole discussion shocked me when I realised what the people of this world really think.

I came to the realisation - where does it stop?

If we accept that a man can only be aroused by another man and a woman only be aroused by another woman and we accept this, what else will we begin to accept?

Will we begin to accept that a man can only be aroused by a child?

That a woman can only be aroused by a child?

That a man or woman can only be aroused by raping another person?

That a person can only be aroused by brutalising another person?

Do we accept that a person can't help stealing but this is the way that they were created?

Do we have to accept that a person who murders another person was created this way? It goes on and on!

Where do we stop accepting that this is the way a person is? At what point do we accept the person is committing an evil act?

For as long as man has lived on this earth, it has been accepted that the act of homosexuality is wrong, unnatural and sinful. But, in the last thirty years, this sin has become acceptable. The question is, what will we be asked to accept NEXT? Will we be asked to accept that it is okay for an adult to have sex with a child, if that child consents?

The path is open for this hideous sin to enter. I can remember thirty years ago there were great scandals in the newspapers and on the television that MPs and different other people in high places were found to be homosexual and they were being removed from their places of power in shame and disgrace but, thirty years on, you will be brought to court and condemned for not accepting this very sin.

To be a paedophile, you have to agree with underage sex but look, the government have given the schools the power to give contraception to underage children within the schools! Is this not accepting paedophilia?

When you give contraception to a child, are you not telling that child it is okay to go and have sexual relations with another person? Are people not falling from power because of the scandal of being found out that they have had sexual relations with a child? It reminds me of the path that we travelled thirty years ago when people were falling from power, when they were found to be active homosexuals.

We are following the same path; sin is being forced on us very, very subtly. And we are like sheep following the farmer blindly to the slaughterhouse. We are subtly being coerced into accepting sin as being normal. We now accept the murder of our children by abortion, we accept the sin of homosexuality, we accept the sin of fornication, when two people live together outside marriage. We accept so many sins in our lives as being normal, everyday things. And where does the responsibility of this acceptance lie?

Yes, it firmly comes back to our Church, the cardinals, bishops and priests.

No longer do they teach the people what is right and what is wrong. Very, very few cardinals, bishops and priests tell the people that abortion is a sin, that the act of homosexuality is a sin, that fornication is a sin, that slander is a sin, that gossip is a sin, that masturbation is a sin, that greed is a sin etc, etc, etc.

We can try to remove the blame from the Church and say that it is the government's fault, it is the ministers, the MPs, the counsellors but they, too, are children of God and must be taught the Truth like the rest of us and so it falls back on Gods Church, Gods priests, whom He entrusted to teach the people the Truth. If the priests are not teaching the Truth, then the children of God do not know and so fall into the darkness of sin. It reminds me so much of what Our Lady Warned this world of in the secret of La Salette.

"Priests, My Son's ministers, priests, by their evil life, by their irreverences and their impiety in celebrating the Holy Mysteries, love of money, love of honour and pleasures, priests have become sewers of impurity. Yes, priests call forth vengeance and vengeance is suspended over their heads. Woe to priests and to persons consecrated to God, who by their infidelities and their evil life are crucifying My Son anew! The sins of persons consecrated to God cry to Heaven and call for vengeance and now here is vengeance at their very doors, for no longer is anyone found to beg mercy and pardon for the people; there are no more generous souls, there is now no one worthy of offering the Spotless Victim to the Eternal on the world's behalf."

"...There are no more generous souls, there is now no one worthy of offering the Spotless Victim to the Eternal on the world's behalf..."

This line is especially very, very frightening! For how many Masses do we go to that are only lip service for the priest is not worthy of offering the Sacrifice of Jesus?

Our Lady said to one of the Visionaries at Garabandal that the Warning would come when:

"It would look like the communists have taken over the whole world and it would be very hard to practice the religion for priests to say Mass or for the people to open the doors of the churches."

It looks as though communism has taken over the world and wiped out the belief in God. It is very hard to practice religion when we have not been taught the Truth by the Church.

It is very difficult for a priest to say Mass when he doesn't try to live the Truth.

Many churches have to be closed because of vandalism, sacrilege and theft and so it is hard for the people to open the door of a church when it is locked.

When a cardinal, a bishop, a priest, does not preach the Truth anymore, he is unworthy to offer the Spotless Victim, who is Jesus, to the Eternal Father. If a priest does not try to live the Truth and allows fear of what the people will think of him and he allows this to stop him preaching the Truth then he cannot offer the Truth, who is Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, to the Eternal Father.

We are in the time of darkness and the seconds tick by as we run out of time. The Justice of God is inevitable. Soon, the Sword of Justice will strike this earth as we have been Warned by Jesus and Mary. We are fast running out of time.

Now we must pray for the second Pentecost, the Spirit of Truth, the Warning, our final chance to return to God that Our Lady told us would be granted to the world when She appeared in Garabandal, Spain. We must pray that Jesus sends the Holy Spirit soon or none of us will survive. We will all be swept away by the lies, the deceit, the great deception, the great apostasy.

If we are trying to live the Truth, we will be given the Grace in this time to help our brothers and sisters who are in danger of losing their souls.

But, we must be willing to prepare now.

We must be willing to die to ourselves and turn away from this world and its ways.

We must be prepared to be hated by this world because of our belief that Jesus and His Laws are the Truth.

We cannot accept sin as Truth; we cannot try to justify sin as being Truth.

A lie is not the Truth, it is a sin. Gods Law says:

9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived.

Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, 10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you. But you were washed but you were sanctified but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:9-11

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully:

9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for the just man but for the unjust and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for the wicked and defiled, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For fornicators, for them who defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons and whatever other thing is contrary to sound doctrine, 11 Which is according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, which hath been committed to my trust.

1 Timothy 1:8-11, Douay-Rheims

42 And if thy hand scandalize thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life, maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into unquenchable fire:

Mark 9:42, Douay-Rheims

Which means if these sins are not repented of, the person will not enter Eternal Life but will lose their life in the fires of hell. These are not my words but they are Gods Words that the people of the world refuse to hear for all have forgotten that our lives are so short and, when we die, we must stand before Jesus. The question we must all ask ourselves is: when we try to justify our sin or darkness to Him, will He accept it as truth, as modern day thinking and that He has to change with the times?

We are now living in perilous times, the times that have been spoken of in Fatima, Portugal; Garabandal, Spain; Medugorje, Bosnia; La Salette, France; Akita, Japan; Kibeho, Africa; Vassula; Mount Melleray; the Messages of Love, given to the two Patricks and many, many hundreds of other places and people that Jesus and Mary have spoken to and appeared to around this world. We have passed the point of no return.

Pray, pray, pray that many will be saved.

Jesus:

I have Warned you of these times, My children, I have Warned you of how you are being deceived. I have not hidden these things from you but I and My Mother have spoken Truth. Now you enter the time foretold in My Scripture, also foretold by the many prophecies given to you through the ages.

You are an evil generation and you shall be cleansed from the face of that, that I created in My Love. You have gone against My Laws, you have perverted My Truth into that, that lucifer has guided you into. You have listened to the deceiver, the father of lies and now you shall see what you have done.

I shall show this world the lies, the untruth, the deceit. My Spirit shall Touch each one of you and in your free will you shall be given a chance to return to My Ways. If this world does not accept this final chance, fire shall fall from the heavens and nations shall be consumed, all that you have built in your greed will be destroyed in My Justice. Your lives, your greed, your deceit, shall be no more but the generations that follow you will look in wonder and fear at the path that you have walked.

I give you this Warning, children, turn away from your darkness, your sin. Die to yourselves, turn against that, that you have accepted into your lives and come follow Me in truth for your days are numbered. No longer shall I accept your denial, your evil lives.

Behold, children, the Day has come, the Day of Truth, the Day of Justice, the Day of Freedom for this world. Prepare! I Approach.

Saturday
8 December 2012

Immaculate Conception

Jesus:

Trust in Me, My little ones, trust in Me, your God, for I am Coming soon to free you from the darkness that man has sown by his sin. Come, My beloved children, take on these Words of Truth that I am giving to you. Let this world see that you are a believer by the way that you live your lives. Take on My Words and die to the things of this world so that you may begin to produce fruit in Me, your God. Come, My beloved children, listen to My Words, take on these Words of Truth and

We, together, shall show this world that I am Alive in you. I am calling out to you, I am ever calling you to come and take on My Words of Truth, My Words of Life so that you can have Eternal Life with Me in Our Father's Kingdom. Come now, children, do not delay for there is very little time left. I Love you.

Patrick:

Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

Sunday 9 December 2012

Jesus:

Come to Me, My beloved children, and do not allow fear to be an obstacle between Us. Do not allow this world to drive you away from Me because of its beliefs. I am the Truth and I have told you that this world will hate you because you believe in My Ways. Hold on for a little while longer, My children, for your freedom is at hand. All those that have went against My Truth, My Love will see and understand how they have went against their God. Hold on to My Truth and believe that I am Coming that I will send My Spirit to show this world the Truth of My Ways. I Love you, My children, I Love you, be at peace and follow Me in truth, do not deny My Ways because of the fear of believing in Me will make you an outcast. Trust in Me, children, trust in My Love for you for your reward shall be great. I Love you.

Patrick:

Thank You, Jesus, I love You.

Urgent Appeal

Dear friends of Jesus and Mary,

We are sorry to ask for your help once again but the bills at the House of Prayer are nearly £20,000 and many are ringing asking that their bills be paid.

We know we are always asking for your help but without you the Houses of Prayer could not be.

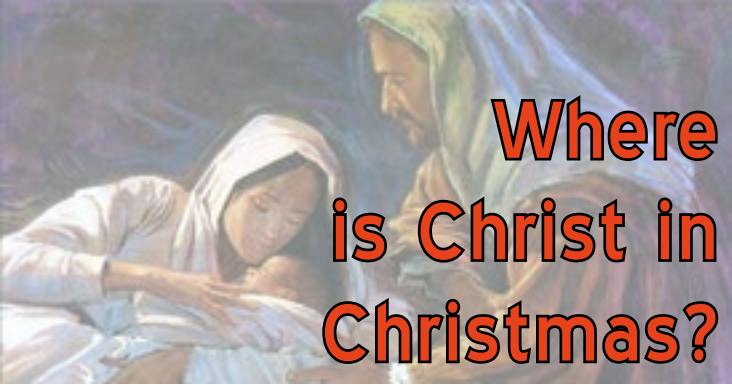

We know Jesus will repay you all a thousandfold for what you have done for Him. If you are not in a situation to help financially do not worry but, please, pray that the Plans of Jesus may be fulfilled.

We remember you all faithfully in our prayers.

God Bless and thank you in Jesus' Name

Where is Christ in Christmas?

This is an article we found on the internet which asks the question 'Where is Christ in Christmas?' Even though it was written before the new millennium, it makes many good points, which are even more relevant today, on how we kick Jesus out at Christmas. It challenges us to look within ourselves and see what Christmas really means and to realise that Christmas is not just about the 25 December! Christmas should live in our hearts always.

Christ in Christmas

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!

Let earth receive her King;

Let every heart prepare

Him room,

And Heaven and nature

sing,

And Heaven and nature

sing,

And Heaven and Heaven and nature sing.

The Angels' joyful announcement was worthy of a Heavenly King. But how do we celebrate His Majesty?

Shuts Him out

The world's preparation for Christmas shuts Him out. Jesus, our Lord - the long-awaited Messiah - simply doesn't fit today's vision of pluralism. That's why signs and symbols of the celebration bearing His Name have been censored from schools and public places from coast to coast. Never mind that He created the universe and has each future day written in His Book. Or that He alone can fulfil our longing for genuine peace and lasting joy. His guidelines offend the world.

Too busy

Unless its masses can re-imagine a god more like themselves [Ps 50:21], they resent His Name. His Holiness violates their comfort zone, so they hide from Him (like Adam and Eve), deny His Existence, or fill their days with shallow distractions and alternatives.

Meanwhile, many of us are too busy planning 'His party' to seek His Will or grieve His absence.

Unspeakable sorrow

The King whose Birth we celebrate may be sad but He's never surprised.

24 But Jesus did not trust Himself unto them for that He knew all men. John

2:24

Long ago, He stood in Jerusalem watching a world too blinded by human wants and ambitions to see the Saviour in their midst. "If you had known," He said with unspeakable sorrow, "the things that make for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes."

Luke 19:42

The compromising Church

Today, almost two thousand years later, religious leaders still lead the anti-Christ crusade. Many have accepted the new global consensus on spirituality: all religions are equally good - except Biblical Christianity. It is too narrow to be tolerated in this new millennium. The envisioned "Culture of Peace" won't make room for Gods "divisive" Biblical values. Faith in His unchanging Truths clashes with the global standard for mental health. And at the forefront of this cultural transformation stand countless compromising churches that teach a Cross-less and Christ-less distortion of Christianity.

Angelic jubilation

No wonder embarrassed theologians joined the public outcry two years ago when several presidential candidates dared to Name Jesus in public. To offend "Christian" leaders, evasion and lies would have been more tolerable than Biblical Truth and Light. But then, such was the religious climate that glorious Night when our King came to earth and Angelic Jubilation pierced the stillness of the skies.

Not welcome in their midst

For Jesus was Born into a culture ruled by the same spiritual mastermind that prods the masses today. The Apostle John, said it well: "The whole world lies under the sway of the evil one." 1 John 5:19

That's why the religious leaders during His time on earth had little tolerance for His call to purity and separation. "Come unto Me..." meant leaving the acceptable ways of the world, a dangerous notion that threatened the establishment. Unless the long-awaited Messiah would conform to contemporary teachings, He was not welcome in their midst. John summarized the tragedy as well as the triumph:

"He was in the world and the world was made through Him and the world did not know Him. He came to His own and His own did not receive Him. But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name: who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." John 1:10-13

The spiritual battle

Human nature doesn't change with time, nor does the spiritual battle that still rages against Jesus Christ,

His Word and His followers. Churches still conform to the culture and statistics tell us they do so quite consistently.

For the most part, the world will tolerate stars, Angels, christmas trees, or a sweet little Baby sleeping in a manger. But there's still "no room at the inn" for a King who invites us to walk His lowly Path. And if we choose to let Him "be born in us" we must also share His Suffering and bear with Him "the offence of the Cross" - the world's hostility towards the separated and crucified life Christ grants to those who love Him.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? Then is the scandal of the cross made void. Galatians 5:11

The Counterfeit Christmas

But the main problem with Christmas is not the way we trivialize Angels and shepherds. Nor is it the season of the year. I doubt that Jesus cares whether we celebrate His Birth in December or closer to the unknown date.

Nor is it the religious alternatives to Christmas. While kwanza, hanukkah, and winter solstice may have replaced Christmas programs in public schools and homes, they alone wouldn't weaken the Church. Just look at China. Where true believers face the greatest challenges to their faith and families, they demonstrate a growth in faith and perseverance (as well as in numbers) that puts the American church to shame.

22 Blessed shall you be when men shall hate you and when they shall separate you and shall reproach you and cast out your name as evil for the Son of Man's sake. Luke 6:22

Complacency

Nor is it the pagan roots of most popular Christmas customs. Few are even aware of the history behind Christmas trees, mistletoe or the ancient midwinter celebration of a mother-goddess with the midwinter babe. While these unholy roots may contribute to the spiritual complacency, the real crisis is more personal. Our root problem has to do with our view of God and our relationship to Jesus. We have been taught to think of the King of the Universe more like a super-Santa than a jealous God who holds us accountable to His Word. We forget that His favours are designed to conform us to His Image, not meet all our wants.

Fix our hope

He grieves when we, His people, turn worship into self-indulgence - or pretend to please Him while we serve ourselves. His lowly Birth in Bethlehem points to the hardships our Saviour was willing to bear for our sake. Without diminishing His glorious stature as Eternal King, His Humility prompts us to give Him our lives, surrender to His Will, endure persecution and fix our hope on eternity.

Rebuke

Peter didn't understand such single-minded Love. So, when Jesus described His coming Death, Peter reassured Him, "Far be it from You, Lord; this shall not happen to You!" He meant well but he was wrong. Jesus had to correct him - for our sake as much as for Peter. Turning to His friend and follower, He said something that would hardly fit today's politically correct consensus process:

22 And Peter taking Him, began to rebuke Him, saying: Lord, be it far from Thee, this shall not be unto Thee.

23 Who turning, said to Peter: Go behind Me, satan, thou art a scandal unto Me: because thou savourest not the things that are of God but the things that are of men.

24 Then Jesus said to His Disciples: If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. Matthew 16:22-24

Celebrating the King

Peter had set His mind on "the things of men." How can we set our minds on "the things of God" this Christmas?

Two millennia ago, God touched the hearts of three men who would have treasured the Truths we have available today. With joy, they received the little information He gave, then set out on a long, risky pilgrimage to worship the newborn King:

1 When Jesus therefore was born in Bethlehem of Juda, in the days of king Herod, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem.

2 Saying, where is He that is born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the east and are come to adore Him. Matthew 2:1-2

These pilgrims were willing to risk their own lives to make the long, dangerous journey and the gifts they brought were chosen with care. They gave Him their very best – offerings worthy of the King of Heaven and Earth. God must have been pleased. He didn't need their gifts but He saw their loving hearts.

Whole-hearted devotion
Other gifts have pleased Him less. When Ananias and Sapphira pretended to give their all but secretly withheld some of their wealth, they were struck dead - a frightening consequence for what seemed to be good intentions. But God chose to show us something about Himself. He longs for whole-hearted devotion, not a pretentious show of piety.

Warned

Back in Old Testament days, Gods chosen nation pretended to follow His guidelines. They offered the prescribed sacrifices out of cultural obedience. They had to; people were watching each other. But they cheated their All-Knowing God by giving as little as possible - blemished gifts, worth little to man and less than nothing to God. The best they kept for themselves. So God Warned them:

14 Cursed is the deceitful man that hath in his flock a male and making a vow offereth in sacrifice that which is feeble to the Lord for I am a great King, saith the Lord of Hosts and My Name is dreadful among the Gentiles. Malachi 1:14

Then as now, a lukewarm show of obedience to Biblical guidelines is hypocrisy – a pretence of loyalty to the Christ whose Name we bear. But the opposite, the genuine devotion God seeks from His followers, was demonstrated by Mary. Listen to Her response to the Angel's awesome Message - one that called Her to endure the shame of an out-of-wedlock pregnancy in a culture where sexual promiscuity called for death:

28 And the Angel being come in, said unto Her: Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with Thee: blessed art Thou among women.

29 Who having heard, was troubled at his saying and thought with Herself what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the Angel said to Her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found grace with God.

31 Behold Thou shalt conceive in Thy womb and shalt bring forth a Son and thou shalt call His Name Jesus.

32 He shall be great and shall be called the Son of the Most High and the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of David His Father and He shall reign in the house of Jacob for ever.

33 And of His kingdom there shall be no end.

34 And Mary said to the Angel: How shall this be done because I know not man?

35 And the Angel answering, said to Her: The Holy Ghost shall come upon Thee and the power of the most High shall overshadow Thee. And therefore also the Holy which shall be born of Thee shall be called the Son of God.

36 And behold Thy cousin Elizabeth, she also hath conceived a son in her old age and this is the sixth month with her that is called barren:

37 Because no word shall be impossible with God.

38 And Mary said: Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to Me according to thy word. And the Angel departed from Her. Luke 1:28-38

Willing

God chose Mary for He knew Her Heart. He saw that She was willing to do whatever He asked. Her Gift to Him was Her faith, love, life and future. Understanding that the Old Testament "bondservant" meant willing surrender of everything to His service, She offered Herself as a "a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God...."

1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercy of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, pleasing unto God, your reasonable service.

Romans 12:1

Lifelong commitment

The next verse describes our part in Gods lifelong process conforming us to the Life of Jesus - making us a living testimony of His Goodness to the world:

2 And be not conformed to this world but be reformed in the newness of your mind, that you may prove what is the good and the acceptable and the perfect will of God.

Romans 12:2

In other words, the gift God desires from us is our own lives fully dedicated to Him. Only then can He fully use us to fulfil His purpose here on earth. This means a deep lifelong commitment to feed on His Word, follow His Way and demonstrate His Life. It is summarized in an old Command, taught through Moses and emphasized by Jesus:

5 Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and with thy whole soul and with thy whole strength.

6 And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thy heart:

7 And thou shalt tell them to thy children and thou shalt meditate upon them sitting in thy house and walking on thy journey, sleeping and rising. Deuteronomy 6:5-7

Consecrate ourselves

That means all we think, feed our minds, share in our families and show the world will be to and from our King. His Life is our Message – and our lives are His Message. It's a big calling but when we consecrate ourselves to Him and rest in His Arms, He will accomplish it.

"...My King and my God.... Blessed is the man whose strength is in You, Whose heart is set on pilgrimage." Psalms 84:3, 5

Gods Path for His own beloved Son led through a lowly stable. His only worshippers were His parents and the poor shepherds who, in the secluded stillness of the night, could hear the Angels sing. On our pilgrimage, how can we best worship Jesus today and this Christmas?

Please show and enable us, precious Shepherd and King!

*'Twas a humble birthplace,
but Oh how much
God gave to us that Day,
From the manger bed what a path has led,
What a perfect, holy way.*

Refrain

Alleluia! Oh, how the Angels sang.

*Alleluia! How it rang!
And the sky was bright
with a holy Light*

'Twas the Birthday of a King.

Beware,

Be Ready and

Prepare for Strength

Second Coming

‘He will come again to judge the living and the dead.’ This is basic faith of the Church on the second Coming of Christ. Anything more specific than that with regard to how and when He will Come is not an essential part of the faith and can often prove to be counterproductive. Towards the end of the last century we saw so many religious groups and people convinced that the Lord was going to Come at the end of the millennium. Some withdrew their children from school, others withdrew their lifetime of savings and quickly spent it, others built special shelters, hoarded water and supplies and so on.

Extreme

One particular story still vivid in our minds is of the woman who belonged to a sect in the Far East who committed abortion so as to be light enough when the time comes to be lifted up to meet the Lord in the skies! This is an extreme to say the least but tells you how far people can go to “prepare” themselves for the second Coming of the Lord and how impatient we are. The world, however messy it is, belongs to the Lord and only He and He alone knows what to do with it and when. Let’s not usurp His privilege as God.

Teaching and wisdom

So as not to be led astray, we must stay close to the Teaching and wisdom of our Mother, the Church. She Teaches that the best way to prepare for the second Coming of Christ is not to engage in speculations of how and when and where it will be but as Paul says;

12 And may the Lord multiply you and make you abound in charity towards one another and towards all men: as we do also towards you,

13 To confirm your hearts without blame, in holiness, before God and our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, with all His saints. Amen.

1 Thessalonians 3:12-13 Douay-Rheims

She Teaches us not to be caught out like the five foolish virgins who had no oil in their lamps.

Many souls can be saved

First and foremost, we must prepare our hearts and souls through prayer, fasting, sacrifice, following the Commandments and engaging in the corporal works of mercy, to name a few. This is nothing new! Beyond that, Jesus asks over and over again in His Messages to let His Love shine through us to prepare and lead others to God by our example and by loving our neighbour and loving our enemy. It seems that preparing for eternity in our Father’s Kingdom is something we tend to take lightly and put off till tomorrow. Take it seriously today for Jesus says many SOULS can be saved through us.

Pleasures of the world

However, His Words seem to be going by the wayside. Materialism and the pleasures of the world are taking priority in our lives at home and in the work place. We are in such a constant whirlwind of activities, that we simply ignore all the signs prophesied to spell out the second Coming i.e. wars, disease, calamities and so on. Due to advancement in technology and the media we are now getting continuous news even of the smallest thing happening in the remotest corner of the globe almost instantly. In fact, we hear it so much and so often that kind of ho-hum attitude permeates our minds as we say, “We’ve had these things in the past and we will always have them.” At what magnitude and frequency must they be to qualify for the end times, to get our attention? Are we living with our heads in the sand?

Be ready

Is the Lord Coming again?

Most assuredly the answer is yes. When? Still no one knows the day or the hour. It could be any day, any hour, so be ready.

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest perhaps your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness and the cares of this life and that day come upon you suddenly.

36 Watch ye, therefore, praying at all times, that you may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that are to come, and to stand before the Son of Man. Luke 21:34, 36 Douay-Rheims
In His Message on 17

December 2006 Jesus says, “Too long have you ignored My calls, Time is running out for you, My children...” Isn’t it about time we listened?

DAYS OF LOVE 2013

SATURDAY 19 AND SUNDAY 20 JANUARY 2013

Jesus asked us to hold the Day of Love over two Days to allow more people the opportunity to participate in this special celebration of His Love. We hope to have the two Patricks to speak. There will be other talks, music, praise... and much more!!! The prayers begin each Day at 1pm. Would love to see you there!! Accommodation is limited for both nights so please book early to avoid disappointment.

Ireland, stand up and fight!

The Didache

"You shall not kill an unborn child or murder a newborn infant."

Children's referendum

It is amazing how the landscape changes in less than a month. In our last Newsletter, there was a Message where Jesus spoke of the dangers to Ireland of voting yes to the children's referendum. We can only wait in fear for the full consequences of this to be seen down the line.

Violated

The day after that result was announced, the "expert group's" recommendations regarding the 'X case' and the A, B and C versus Ireland case appeared on the desk of the Irish Minister for Health. This report proposes that legislation for abortion should be allowed under circumstances where the woman's life could be at risk and if she was suicidal.

Both been twisted

It must be remembered that the failed proposed constitutional changes via the referendum after the 'X case' in 1992 (to allow abortion in certain circumstances but not suicide) and the more recent one, in 2002, have both been twisted to be seen as endorsements of legislating for a change to the abortion laws in limited circumstances rather than the people voting against abortion in all cases. (The 2002 referendum in particular was worded in a way to cause as much confusion as possible. A yes vote allowed abortion before implantation in the womb. A no vote was heralded by the media, government and the pro-abortion lobby as an endorsement to legislate, rather than a vote against, allowing the morning after pill etc).

Savita Halappanavar

Then oddly, the same evening, news broke that an Indian woman, Savita Halappanavar, had died, because "she was refused an abortion" sixteen days earlier. Sadly, her baby had died through a miscarriage five days previously. This information was sat on for a number of days to avoid it breaking and overshadowing the children's referendum and to plan how best to use it, with the knowledge that the expert group's report was due the following week.

Tragically died

Savita tragically died from septicaemia and E. Coli ESBL. She had presented on Sunday 21 October to the hospital in Galway with back pain and was admitted after it was decided she was having a threatened miscarriage. On Tuesday 23 October, the baby's heartbeat stopped and Savita miscarried. She took ill on Wednesday 24 October and sadly passed away early Sunday morning 28 October. That is all the facts that are in the public domain, apart from what her husband says and claimed what happened, that his wife asked numerous times for a termination and she was refused because Ireland was a Catholic country and that if she had got her wish she would still be alive.

Swell of outrage

This caused uproar and there was a quick swell of outrage, vigils and marches held and calls that Savita's death "should not be in vain" and that Irish women needed to be allowed to have the right to have an abortion so their lives would not be at risk and that if Savita had been granted an abortion she would not have died. Pressure has been put on the Irish Government to quickly act and legislate so this terrible thing could not happen again and the likes of the Labour Party, Sinn Fein and Clare Daly from the Socialist Party, are pushing and proposing bills to change Irish Law on this matter.

Big urgency

There is a big urgency from all parties concerned to get change. Add into this the growing viciousness against all things associated with the Catholic Church and the call that Ireland is no longer a Catholic country from people who want to remove Jesus from all aspects of life in Ireland. It has also diluted peoples' views on abortion and entrenched those whose views may have been a bit iffy regarding the extreme, rare, hard case stories and it scared women into thinking they are in danger if pregnant.

Actual facts

Yet, this rush for change has come before the actual facts of the case have been established. There are currently two investigations ongoing with the possibility of more in the pipeline. We await to see what actually did or didn't happen but why let the lack of facts on the case get in the way of the hysterical bandwagon for abortion law changes to be introduced as soon as possible? Just in case they are proved wrong when the facts come out maybe! But, as usual, things are being twisted and slanted towards the eventual introduction of abortion into Ireland from one source or another, from the day the supreme court's surprise judgement in the 'X case' and saying the people have voted for legislation rather than actually voting against abortion.

So where does this actually leave us at this moment in time?

What the Church teaches

Firstly, we need to see what it is that the Catholic Church teaches and not what Irish law is supposed to allow/not allow or what Pro-Life groups say current Irish law says. First and foremost, our responsibility is to uphold the true Teachings of the Catholic Church and, secondly, to try to affect the laws on abortion in Ireland (as well as elsewhere from different current starting positions).

Three separate areas

On the Catholic Teaching's side of the debate, we need to look at three separate distinct areas:

1. Medical treatment that indirectly causes an unborn baby to die (when the so called double-effect can be applied);
2. Inducing labour when a woman's life is at risk where the unborn baby is potentially viable and
3. Inducing labour before unborn baby is viable (currently set at twenty four weeks).

Pius XII

This is how the Church treats the mother and child

together on an equal playing field when one or other is in danger:

"Never and in no case has the Church taught that the life of the child must be preferred to that of the mother. It is erroneous to put the question with this alternative: either the life of the child or that of the mother. No, neither the life of the mother nor that of the child can be subjected to an act of direct suppression. In the one case, as in the other, there can be but one obligation: to make every effort to save the lives of both, of the mother and of the child.

It is one of the finest and most noble aspirations of the medical profession to search continually for new means of ensuring the life of both mother and child. But if, notwithstanding all the progress of science, there still remain and will remain in the future, cases in which one must reckon with the death of the mother, when the mother wills to bring to birth the life that is within her and not destroy it in violation of the Command of God - Thou shalt not kill - nothing else remains for the man, who will make every effort till the very last moment to help and save but to bow respectfully before the laws of nature and the dispositions of Divine Providence." Pius XII, Allocution to Large Families, November 26, 1951

Encyclical Casti Connubii

However, "As for the 'medical and therapeutic indication,' we have already said, Venerable Brethren, how deeply we feel for the mother whose fulfilment of her natural duty involves her in grave danger to health and even to life itself. But can any reason ever avail to excuse the direct killing of the innocent? For this is what is at stake. The infliction of death whether upon mother or upon child is against the Commandment of God and the voice of nature: "Thou shalt not kill!" The lives of both are equally sacred and no one, not even public authority, can ever have the right to destroy them. It is absurd to invoke against innocent human beings the right of the State to inflict capital punishment for this is valid only against the guilty. Nor is there any question here of the right of self-defence, even to the shedding of blood, against an unjust assailant for none could describe as an unjust assailant, an innocent child. Nor, finally, does there exist any so-called right of extreme necessity which could extend to the direct killing of an innocent human being. Honourable and skilful doctors are therefore worthy of all praise when they make every effort to protect and preserve the life of both mother and child. On the contrary, those who encompass the death of the one or the other, whether on the plea of medical treatment or from a motive of misguided compassion, act in a manner unworthy of the high repute of the medical profession." Pius XI, Encyclical Casti Connubii, Dec. 31, 1930

Under these conditions

1. If a woman is gravely ill, she might need a treatment that might indirectly cause the death of her unborn child. Once the doctors are doing all they can to help the unborn child and this unfortunately happens, Church Law allows for this and does not class it as an abortion. Such things included in this area would be chemo treatment or surgical procedures for cancer sufferers or the removing of a fallopian tube in an ectopic pregnancy. This treatment is not aimed at harming the unborn baby but may indirectly. "Deliberately we have always used the expression 'direct attempt on the life of an innocent person,' 'direct killing.' Because if, for example, the saving of the life of the future mother, independently of her pregnant condition, should urgently require a surgical act or other therapeutic treatment which would have as an accessory consequence, in no way desired nor intended but inevitable, the death of the foetus, such an act could no longer be called a direct attempt on an innocent life.

Under these conditions the operation can be lawful, like other similar medical interventions - granted always that a good of high worth is concerned, such as life and that it is not possible to postpone the operation until after the birth of the child, nor to have recourse to other efficacious remedies." Pius XII, Allocution to Large Families, Nov. 26, 1951.

Late in pregnancy

2. There are occasions where late in pregnancy (after twenty four weeks) when a woman's life is in danger the best course of action is for induction of the pregnancy to take place. The unborn baby is maybe given such things as steroids to improve lung development and the full help of the paediatric department are at hand to do whatever is needed to help the baby when born. This is very common place and if the baby happens to die during labour or soon after birth, again this is not considered abortion or wrong.

Before twenty four weeks

3. The final area is inducing labour before the twenty four week line, when there is little or no chance of the unborn baby surviving as it is not yet developed enough to survive. In its 2009 "Ethical and Religious Directives for Catholic Health Care Services" the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) teaches [my emphases in bold]:

"45. Abortion (that is, the directly intended termination of pregnancy before viability or the directly intended destruction of a viable foetus) is never permitted. Every procedure whose sole immediate effect is the termination of pregnancy before viability is an abortion..."

49. For a proportionate reason, labour may be induced after the foetus is viable."

This is because due concern is not afforded to both the mother and unborn child. The direct killing of the unborn child (as distinct from inducing of labour) is always wrong in all circumstances as is the "speeding up" of the dying of the unborn child.

Play your part

So, we need to take a stand and try to show those who we have voted into power, in our own particular areas, that we still want the Teachings of the Catholic Church as guidelines around which Irish laws are based and not just sit by and allow a very noisy vocal few try and have their way with the lives of the unborn of Ireland. Contact your local TDs (members of the Irish Parliament), your local priests, your local councillors. Attend the vigils and marches that are arranged. Play your part in the fight at this most dangerous of times for the Irish unborn.

Stay strong

But we must remember, even if the battle is lost, the war is still there to be won. We must stay strong in promoting Catholic Teachings on the matter and using these to push for law changes to protect more of the unborn and fight against any further laws being introduced or widened that would threaten more of the unborn. We must continue to inform, educate and pray for those who work in the abortion industry and those who may be considering abortion so that they may choose life instead.

Events Celebrated

Feast of Saint Pio Sunday 23 September

Saint Pio was remarkable in that he suffered the Wounds of Christ. He gave his all to Jesus to help Him Save souls.

It was a joyous and uplifting Day of Prayer and a servant talked of the history of Saint Pio and how he is an example of what Jesus wants of us. Another servant shared on Pio's significance in her life. We were happy to have some of our Music Ministry available as the music is always an added bonus for Days of Prayer. We praise and thank Jesus for Saint Pio.

Feast of the Archangels Saturday 29 September

We thanked God as we celebrated this Feast of the Archangels. As well as the Community Prayer, we listened to talks and extracts being read from Song of the Carpenter on the creation of the Archangels. This was indeed powerful as the Word created each one and what their roles would be: Michael - Love and obedience

Raphael - Healing of God
Gabriel - Messenger of God
Lucifer - Archangel of Light
Menathin - Love
Tiath - Warrior Angel
Agorial - Gentleness
Bartomit - Truth

Feast of Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus Monday 1 October

Saint Thérèse, the Little Flower, is one of the Patrons of the Sacred Heart House of Prayer and the House of Prayer in Belgium is named in her honour. She is a great intercessor for all the Houses of Prayer.

A servant spoke of her childlike way and another shared on the experience of visiting Lisieux and the home of the Little Flower, where the 'Story of a Soul' unfolded. Many prayer requests have been answered through her intercession, in particular, the House of Prayer in Belgium was bought, set up and manned within a few months of Jesus' request!

Feast of the Guardian Angels Tuesday 2 October

This was a great Day of Prayer! The main emphasis of the Day seemed to be the balance of free will. If we do not call on our Guardian Angels then their hands are tied, they cannot help us. They are in total obedience to God and to help us they can only act on our free will.

Feast of Saint Francis Thursday 4 October

As we celebrated the Feast of Saint Francis, we were reminded throughout the day of his humility and how he gave up everything to do what Jesus wanted.

Weekend with the Patricks Friday 12 October to Sunday 14 October

This year the theme running through the Weekend was 'Love.' Love everyone no matter who they are.

The Patricks also spoke about how there is no time left and Jesus is pleading with us now to change before it is too late.

They told us of the film Jesus has inspired them to make of the 'Spirit of Regret,' about the Day of Judgement, when we reach the point where it will be too late to change and repent, imagine the sorrow we will face! So let's do what we can now for we may not have tomorrow! If you go to 'Invitationlovejesus and Spirit of Regret' on YouTube, you can watch this film.

On the Sunday, the Patricks joined us for the Blessing with Jesus' Holy Oil. We had wonderful music from our music ministry, SonLight, and much praise for Jesus. Jesus told the Patricks to give us all the Gift of a Medal of Love which He had kissed and told us to wear them close to our hearts. Patrick advised us never to take it off so that Jesus would see us wearing it when we meet Him in death. It was a powerful Weekend.

Walk Against Abortion Saturday 13 October

On Saturday, we all gathered outside the House of Prayer at 2.45pm for the Walk Against Abortion. There were about seventy people there and all of us were very conscious of the importance of the Walk as we had heard the news that a Marie Stopes clinic was opening in Belfast the following Thursday. The walk was silent and prayerful.

After the Walk, we enjoyed a tea break and then gathered in the Prayer Room for a Special Baptism of the Unborn. We each lit a candle and baptised a baby for Jesus and Mary.

Feast of Saint Teresa of Avila Monday 15 October

On the Feast of Saint Teresa of Avila, we reflected on a few Messages which she gave through the two Patricks. The one I found very striking and gave me food for thought was: ...If, after your conversion, you are still living the same way of life, then you are not converted...You cannot make a pretence of it; it must be real and true. If you are in this category, then you must realise and quickly, that you will never reach the perfection that is laid out for you for you will not reach it through pretence..." If I take on these beautiful Words then I will grow closer to Jesus.

Feast of Saint Margaret Mary Tuesday 16 October

Saint Margaret Mary is the apostle of the Sacred Heart, chosen by Jesus to be the instrument to bring His Sacred Heart to the world. She suffered much in her life because of this but achieved great holiness for her obedience.

At prayer times throughout the day, different servants spoke on her life.

Jesus asked Margaret Mary to begin the Nine First Fridays to make reparation to His Heart. This was achieved with the help of her spiritual director, Saint Claude De La Colombière. Thank You, Jesus, for this Day.

Halloween Vigil Wednesday 31 October

On Wednesday night, 31 October, a vigil was held between 10pm and 2am, to keep company with Jesus on what He called "...a night of terror, when lucifer and his dominions are celebrated openly in this world..."

Thursday 31 October 2002
The vigil followed a free form, combining hymns and praise with prayer and readings, including the reading of Jesus' Message, Warning us about this time of year.

Difficult Circumstances and Pregnant?

An inconvenience

There are many women who find themselves pregnant these days and who are in difficult circumstances. In our modern age we are shown it's an inconvenience to have the baby, that we should wait and get our education, better job etc. Some women may have been raped or just had a one night stand and not know the father. Some may have health problems and/or the baby may have health problems.

Self

The main solution in these times is to 'get rid of it.' But why should we kill the innocent because of self? Why can't we pick up our cross and carry it? If a baby is conceived it has a God given right to live.

Pregnant

In the early 1980s, I became pregnant, I was sixteen, unmarried and still at school. At that time I lived in Ireland with my family. In those days pregnancy out of wedlock was an embarrassment and looked down upon. Some girls were sent away to homes to have their babies which were then given up for adoption.

Could not tell

Although my family have always been loving and close, I felt I could not tell them about my pregnancy. For one, we were Catholics and two, my family were well known in the area and I didn't want to bring shame on them.

I decided to go to England after I had finished school to stay with my sister because I didn't know what else to do. I had always believed abortion was wrong so couldn't even contemplate that route. However, if abortion had been legal in Ireland and I was put under pressure at that time, who knows what I may have done!

A lovely baby boy

On the way to England on the bus with my boyfriend, I turned and looked at him and thought what on earth am I doing? I don't even know this man. It was as if that was the only sensible thought I had ever had.

I went through the pregnancy and had a lovely baby boy at the age of seventeen. It wasn't until after I had him

I told my parents. I really shocked them at the time and I thought it best if we stayed away from where my family lived.

Pregnant again

The relationship I was in soon started turning sour and, before long, I found myself pregnant again. Again, I didn't want to tell my family, how could I upset them in this way again? I had really let them down. One option I had was to put the baby up for adoption but I couldn't bring myself to do it and accepted I was going to have a little brother or sister for my first son.

My parents also found out I was pregnant again and accepted the fact they were going to have another grandchild!

Much love and joy

We decided to make a go of the relationship and I got through the pregnancy and, at the age of eighteen years, I had my second beautiful son. I felt so much love and joy when these little babies were born.

Survived

After a rocky relationship with their father, we split up, I was twenty one years old at the time. These two boys are now in their thirties. Thank God, we all survived through the difficult times and I now have two beautiful granddaughters through these two sons. It would be terrible to think if I had been abortion minded at that time, I could have been responsible for wiping out two generations in my family (so far).

Difficult circumstances

When looking at a Pro-Life website I found some very interesting articles about difficult circumstances in pregnancy I would like to share with you.

WASHINGTON, D.C., 20 September 2012 (LifeSiteNews.com)

A man named Ken recently called in to a Washington, D.C., radio talk show discussing the question of abortion after rape. In the midst of a politically charged discussion, his personal story caught the host off guard. Ken explained that he was adopted as an infant and, at age thirty, located his birth mother and learned the circumstances of his conception.

Adopted

"Her story was that she was hit over the head with a baseball bat and was raped at fifteen. So, she went away to Catholic Charities, had me, made the brave decision to keep me - and, well, keep me alive. And then I was adopted and I have three beautiful children now, have been married for fifteen years - and I would just like to speak up for those [voice breaks] who have no voice."

Conceived in violence
Ken defended both women who are the victims of rape and their innocent children who are conceived in violence:

"It really eats me up when I hear people talk about rape, because it is horrible... but what I want to say to women out there is: you can take something that was terribly done to you and make something good out of it. And that's, [voice breaks] that's me."

A loving adoptive home

At first, the talk show host was stunned but then he asked questions that unfolded into a nine-minute-long segment.

Ken talked about growing up in a loving adoptive home - his parents had just celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary - and how he shares a relationship with his birth mother, her husband and their children (his half-siblings). He expressed gratitude for his birth mother going through so much to give him life. He admired how she rebuilt her life after her assault, pregnancy and adoption placement, saying: "That was a hard time in her life. She sacrificed a lot...But she moved on in her life and she was able to overcome the shame that was put on her."

Human

He urged listeners to see that children conceived in rape are just as human, just as "real,"

as everyone else. "It's an emotional topic because I just get tired of people treating these unborn children like they're, like they're nothing. And they can be born and they can grow up and they can have a great life."

Although Ken was conceived in rape, that was not the final word in his life. Abortion would have multiplied the life of an innocent human being. But, thanks be to God, the power of love prevailed over violence. Through the generosity and courage of his birth mother, both he and his mother were free to love and be loved in many unanticipated ways.

Had to keep him

18 September 2012 (LifeSiteNews.com)

In a recent interview with Kathie Lee Gifford for NBC's TODAY show, Justin Bieber's mom, Pattie Mallette, talked about the pressure she suffered to abort her famous pop-star son.

A victim of childhood sexual abuse, Pattie engaged in drinking, drugs and sex at a young age, ultimately finding herself pregnant at the age of seventeen. Even though she was encouraged to abort, she told Kathie Lee, "I just knew I couldn't. I just knew I couldn't. I just know I had to keep him."

"I didn't know how I was going to do it. But I just knew that I couldn't abort. I had to do my best and I was determined to do whatever it took."

Courage
 Bryan Kemper, Youth Outreach Director for Priests for Life, commented on Mallette's revelations about her pregnancy with Bieber. "I applaud Justin Bieber's mother for having the courage to stand up and say what she did and I hope people will look up to what she did in protecting and carrying her son, see the potential of the child they are carrying and follow her example," said

Kemper.
God is always there to help
 In a similar story in 2011, NFL player Tim Tebow was featured in a Focus on the Family Superbowl ad with his mother, Pam Tebow, who shared how she almost lost Tim before birth due to some serious health problems. In interviews about the ad, she spoke of the pressure from her doctors to abort Tim but how she chose life despite the pressure.

 Yes, there can be difficult circumstances in pregnancy and a temptation to do what seems like an easy option but God is always there to help and provides for you if you put your trust in Him. He has done so much for me in my life and even accepted me back into His Arms, sinner that I am. Thank You, Jesus.

John 15:1-14

1 I am the true vine and My Father is the husbandman.

2 Every branch in Me, that beareth not fruit, He will take away and every one that beareth fruit, He will purge it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now you are clean by reason of the word, which I have spoken to you.

We are compared to the branches of a vine and Jesus is the Vine. If we do not bear fruit, we are of no use, if we do bear fruit then we will be purged, made cleaner so that we can bear more fruit.

4 Abide in Me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abide in the vine, so neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

5 I am the vine: you the branches: he that abideth in Me and I in him, the same beareth much fruit for without Me you can do nothing.

6 If any one abide not in Me, he shall be cast forth as a branch and shall wither and they shall gather him up and cast him into the fire and be burneth.

To abide with Jesus, is to be with Him. With Jesus we can do all things, without Jesus we are nothing in the spiritual sense, we just wither and die.

7 If you abide in Me and My words abide in you, you shall ask whatever you will and it shall be done unto you.

8 In this is My Father glorified; that you bring forth very much fruit and become My disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved Me, I also have loved you.

10 If you keep My commandments, you shall abide in My love; as I also have kept My Father's commandments and do abide in His love. We need to keep the Commandments of Jesus and, through this, we will abide in His Love and bear much fruit.

11 These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may be in you and your joy may be filled.

12 This is My commandment, that you love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 You are My friends, if you do the things that I command you.

Joy and Love, these are the two things promised to each one of us by fulfilling the Commandments especially "Love one another as I have Loved you." Jesus goes on to call us His friends, imagine being friends with Jesus! What more could any of us ask for!

The Wisdom of John Paul II

On the Christian Family in the Modern World Apostolic Exhortation of His Holiness, Pope John Paul II

Continued

12. The communion of love between God and people, a fundamental part of the revelation and faith experience of Israel, finds a meaningful expression in the marriage covenant which is established between a man and a woman.

For this reason the central word of revelation, "God loves his people," is likewise proclaimed through the living and concrete word whereby a man and a woman express their conjugal love. Their bond of love becomes the image and the symbol of the covenant which unites God and his people.

And the same sin which can harm the conjugal covenant becomes an image of the infidelity of the people to their God: Idolatry is prostitution, infidelity is adultery, disobedience to the law is abandonment of the spousal love of the Lord. But the infidelity of Israel does not destroy the eternal fidelity of the Lord, and therefore the ever faithful love of God is put forward as the model of the relations of faithful love which should exist between spouses.

13. The communion between God and his people finds its definitive fulfillment in Jesus Christ, the bridegroom who loves and gives himself as the saviour of humanity, uniting it to himself as his body. He reveals the original truth of marriage, the truth of the "beginning," and, freeing man from his hardness of heart, he makes man capable of realizing this truth in its entirety.

This revelation reaches its definitive fullness in the gift of love which the word of God makes to humanity in assuming a human nature, and in the sacrifice which Jesus Christ makes of himself on the cross for his bride, the church. In this sacrifice there is entirely revealed that plan which God has imprinted on the humanity of man and woman since their creation, the marriage of baptized persons thus becomes a real symbol of that new and eternal covenant sanctioned in the blood of Christ. The Spirit which the Lord pours forth gives a new heart, and renders man and woman capable of loving one another as Christ has loved us. Conjugal love reaches that fullness to which it is interiorly ordained, conjugal charity, which is the proper and specific way in which the spouses participate in and are called to live the very charity of Christ, who gave himself on the cross.

In a deservedly famous page, Tertullian has well expressed the greatness of this conjugal life in Christ and its beauty: "How can I ever express the happiness of the marriage that is joined together by the church, strengthened by an offering, sealed by a blessing, announced by angels and ratified by the Father?!!! How wonderful the bond between two believers, with a single hope, a single desire, a single observance, a single service! They are both brethren and both fellow servants; there is no separation between them in spirit or flesh. In fact they are truly two in one flesh, and where the flesh is one, one is the spirit."

Receiving and meditating faithfully on the word of God, the church has solemnly taught and continued to teach that the marriage of the baptized is one of the seven sacraments of the new covenant.

Indeed by means of baptism, man and woman are definitively placed within the new and eternal covenant, in the spousal covenant of Christ with the church. And it is because of this indestructible insertion that the intimate community of conjugal life and love, founded by the creator, is elevated and assumed into the spousal charity of Christ, sustained and enriched by his redeeming power.

By virtue of the sacramentality of their marriage, spouses are bound to one another in the most profoundly indissoluble manner. Their belonging to each other is the real representation, by means of the sacramental sign, of the very relationship of Christ with the church.

Spouses are therefore the permanent reminder to the church of what happened on the cross; they are for one another and for the children witnesses to the salvation in which the sacrament makes them sharers. Of this salvation event marriage, like every sacrament, is a memorial, actuation and prophecy: "As a memorial, the sacrament gives them the grace and duty of commemorating the great works of God and of bearing witness to them before their children. As actuation, it gives them the grace and duty of putting into practice in the present, toward each other and their children, the demands of a love which forgives and redeems. As prophecy, it gives them the grace and duty of living and bearing witness to the hope of the future encounter with Christ."

Like each of the seven sacraments, so also marriage is a real symbol of the event of salvation, but in its own way.

"The spouses participate in it as spouses, together, as a couple, so that the first and immediate effect of marriage (res et sacramentum) is not supernatural grace itself, but the Christian conjugal bond, a typically Christian communion of two persons because it represents the mystery of Christ's incarnation and the mystery of his covenant. The content of participation in Christ's life is also specific: Conjugal love involves a totality, in which all the elements of the person enter - appeal of the body and instinct, power of feeling and affectivity, aspiration of the spirit and of will. It aims at a deeply personal unity, the unity that, beyond union in one flesh, leads to forming one heart and soul; it demands indissolubility and faithfulness in definitive mutual giving; and it is open to fertility (cf. Humanae Vitae, 9). In a word, it is a question of the normal characteristics of all natural conjugal love, but with a new significance which not only purifies and strengthens them, but raises them to the extent of making them the expression of specifically Christian values."

The Plight of Others

Thou Shalt Not Kill

Right to life

The right to life must be defended from the moment of conception. This is an issue Pope John Paul II frequently and forcefully raised in his teaching. He repeatedly condemned any legalisation of abortion.

Cultural and political factions

Today this teaching needs to be echoed in our churches as we see certain cultural and political factions who hold that 'humanitarian reasons' are on their side – the side that has led governments to permit abortion. The right to life means the right to be born and then continue to live until one's natural death.

Innocent and defenceless

The legalisation of the termination of pregnancy is none other than the authorisation given to an adult, with the approval of an established law, to take the lives of children yet unborn and thus incapable of defending themselves. It is difficult to imagine a more unjust situation that calls us to the defence of the right to life of an innocent and defenceless human being.

Thou shalt not kill

Often we hear the argument presented as a woman's right to free choice regarding the life already existing in her womb; that the woman should have the right to choose between giving life or taking it away from the unborn child. How can it be possible to speak of the right to choose when a clear moral evil is involved? What is at stake is the Commandment: "Thou shalt not kill."

Conceived

This Commandment does not allow for exception. A child conceived in its mother's womb is not and never can be, an unjust aggressor. It is a defenceless human being, waiting to be welcomed and helped.

Selfishness

Sometimes, the woman is the victim of male selfishness, where the man who has contributed to the conception of a new life does not want to be burdened with it and leaves all responsibility to the woman, as if it were only her fault. He may stubbornly resist any sense of responsibility at a time when the woman needs so much of the man's support. This is a problem that is well known and comes up more and more often these days in courts that deal with minors.

Supported

In firmly rejecting 'pro-choice' we must promote a choice that is truly in favour of woman and not leave her alone. Many counselling centres show that the woman does not want to suppress the life of the child she carries within her.

If she is supported and helped, to be freed from the intimidation of those around her, then she is capable of heroism.

Culture of death

We must pray and sacrifice that society may see the 'Truth' and recognise the evil behind this promotion of legalising abortion, this culture of death.

We must pray that our priests will put into practise the words of the Apostle Paul to Timothy:

2 Preach the word: be instant in season, out of season: reprove, entreat, rebuke in all patience and doctrine.

3 For there shall be a time, when they will not endure sound doctrine but, according to their own desires, they will heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears: (2 Timothy 4:2-3)

Healed

Just a short note to ask you if you could send me a few Medals of Love?

I ask you to remember my son in your prayers. He went through a bad time with diabetes. He got a bad foot infection that the doctors said wouldn't heal. But God answered our prayers and his foot healed and he is now home and in good form.

I keep the Medal of Love under his pillow at all times and I believe it was prayer that healed him. Thanking you ... Violet

Teachings

Dear friends in Jesus, Greetings and good wishes to you all. What a wealth of teachings in the Newsletter just received! Thank You, Jesus. Thank you all.

"Draw upon me," Jesus invites. Oh, how truly Blessed we are, though we don't always realise this. We are so busy and the meagre crumbs we offer to Him wear us out. Why? Because we do not always draw on Him. We work in our own ever-decreasing strength. Fresh start tomorrow, Jesus!

Please forgive my ranting. Sometimes we feel isolated and alone. How wrong we are...

Enclosed, a cheque for ... to cover Newsletter subscription. Balance to wherever the need is greatest.

Love, prayers and thanks to you all.

Yours, in the LOVE of Jesus and Mary.

THE TRUE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

IN TODAY'S DAY AND TIME,
IT'S EASY TO LOSE SIGHT,
OF THE TRUE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS AND ONE SPECIAL NIGHT.

WHEN WE GO SHOPPING,
WE SAY "HOW MUCH WILL IT COST?"
THEN THE TRUE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS,
SOMEHOW BECOMES LOST.

AMIDST THE TINSEL, GLITTER
AND RIBBONS OF GOLD,
WE FORGET ABOUT THE CHILD,
BORN ON A NIGHT SO COLD.

THE CHILDREN LOOK FOR SANTA
IN HIS BIG, RED SLEIGH
NEVER THINKING OF THE BABY
WHOSE BED WAS MADE OF HAY.

IN REALITY WHEN WE LOOK INTO THE NIGHT SKY,
WE DON'T SEE A SLEIGH
BUT A STAR, BURNING BRIGHT AND HIGH.

A FAITHFUL REMINDER, OF THAT NIGHT SO LONG AGO,
AND OF THE CHILD WE CALL JESUS,
WHOSE LOVE, THE WORLD WOULD KNOW.
